The book charts the development of the Society over a hundred years of musical theatre British and American. Each of the almost 100 productions has its own lively informative and socially aware essay accompanied by photographs revealing the development of the company from its origins in 1925 as well as showing the changing faces and styles of musical theatre throughout the century. The early years of the Society favoured such continental operettas as The Marriage Market and the bewitching Sybil before a long dalliance with Gilbert and Sullivan from which it broke free after World War II although Iolanthe returned for her third outing in 1955. The Society's fascination with operetta continued through the 1960s with such sturdy favourites as The Student Prince, The Merry Widow and Rose Marie with an occasional recognition of the British musical notably in the 1975 production of Ivor Novello's King's Rhapsody and in the hugely successful Betty Blue Eyes of 2024. For One Week Only explores the history of the N N and its ongoing contribution to the arts in Norfolk. Warmly and wittily it lifts the curtain on a story of theatrical endurance and adventure.

The Ballad of John Latouche Howard Pollack, 2017-10-06 Born into a poor Virginian family, John Treville Latouche (1914-56) in his short life made a profound mark on America's musical theater as a lyricist, book writer and librettist. The wit and skill of his lyrics elicited comparisons with the likes of Ira Gershwin, Lorenz Hart and Cole Porter, but he had too noted Stephen Sondheim, a large vision of what musical theater could be and he proved especially venturesome in helping to develop a lyric theater that innovatively combined music, word, dance and costume and set design. Many of his pieces, even if not commonly known today, remain high points in the history of American musical theater. A great American genius, in the words of Duke Ellington, Latouche initially came to wide public attention in his early twenties with his cantata for soloist and chorus Ballad for Americans (1939) with music by Earl Robinson, a work that swept the nation during the Second World War. Other milestones in his career included the all-black musical fable Cabin in the Sky (1940) with Vernon Duke, an interracial updating of John Gay's classic The Beggar's Opera as Beggar's Holiday (1946) with Duke Ellington, two acclaimed Broadway operas with Jerome Moross, Ballet Ballads (1948) and The Golden Apple (1954), one of the most enduring operas in the American canon. The Ballad of
