Not Wanted 1949:

Ida Lupino, Forgotten Auteur Alexandra Seros, 2025-01-14 An archival study of Ida Lupino's work in film and television directing writing producing and acting from the 1940s to the 1970s Though her acting career is well known Ida Lupino was until very recently either unknown or overlooked as an influential director One of the few female directors in Classical Hollywood Lupino was the only woman with membership in the Directors Guild of America between 1948 and 1971 Her films were about women without power in society and engaged with highly controversial topics despite Hollywood's strict production code Working in a male dominated field Lupino was forced to manage her public persona carefully resisting attempts by the press to paint her solely as a dutiful wife and mother a continual feminization just so that she could continue directing Filmmaker Alexandra Seros retells the story of Ida Lupino's career from actor to director first in film then in television using archival materials from collections housed around the world The result provides rich insights into three of Lupino's independently directed films and a number of episodes from her vast television oeuvre Seros contextualizes this analysis with discussions of gendered labor in the film industry the rise of consumerism in the United States after World War II and the expectations put on women in their family lives during the postwar era Seros's portrait of Lupino ultimately paints her life and career as an exemplar of collaborative auteurship

A Very Dangerous Citizen Paul Buhle, Dave Wagner, 2001-06-05 When he was summoned before the House Committee on Un American Activities in 1951 Abraham Lincoln Polonsky 1911-1999 was labeled a very dangerous citizen by Harold Velde a congressman from Illinois Lawyer educator novelist labor organizer radio and television scriptwriter film director and screenwriter wartime intelligence operative and full time radical romantic Polonsky was blacklisted in Hollywood for refusing to be an informer The New York Times called his blacklisting the single greatest loss to American film during the McCarthy era and his expressed admirers include Steven Spielberg Martin Scorsese Sidney Lumet Warren Beatty and Harry Belafonte In this first critical and cultural biography of Abraham Polonsky Paul Buhle and Dave Wagner present both an accomplished consideration of a remarkable survivor of America's cultural cold war and a superb study of the Hollywood left The Bronx born son of immigrant parents Polonsky in the few years after the end of World War II and just before the blacklist had one of the most distinguished careers in Hollywood He wrote two films that established John Garfield's postwar persona Body and Soul 1947 still the standard for boxing films and the model for such movies as Raging Bull and Pulp Fiction and Force of Evil 1948 the great noir drama that he also directed Once blacklisted Polonsky quit working under his own name yet he proved to be one of television's most talented writers Later in life he became the most acerbic critic of the Hollywood blacklist's legacy while writing and directing films such as Tell Them Willie Boy Is Here 1970 A Very Dangerous Citizen goes beyond biography to help us understand the relationship between art and politics in American culture and to uncover the effects of U S anticommunism and anti-Semitism Rich in anecdote and in analysis it provides an informative and entertaining portrait of one of the most intriguing personalities of twentieth century American culture Hollywood Heroines Laura L. S. Bauer, 2018-12-07 This is a topical resource that provides a comprehensive look at the most influential women in Hollywood cinema across a wide range of occupations rarely found together in a single volume Unlike other anthologies Hollywood Heroines The Most Influential Women in Film History is a hybrid of film history and industry information with an exclusive focus on prominent women This reference work includes more commonly discussed categories of important women in Hollywood film history such as directors and actresses and reaches beyond them to encompass women working as cinematographers casting directors studio heads musical composers and visual and special effects supervisors Dive into interviews with industry legends such as Sherry Lansing the first woman to run major Hollywood studios like 20th Century Fox and Paramount Studios Jodie Foster acclaimed actress and director Zo Bell renowned stuntwoman Donna Gigliotti Academy Award winning producer Vicky Jenson animation director of Shrek Ve Neill makeup artist behind The Hunger Games and Pirates of the Caribbean and a host of other influential women in visual effects editing casting costume cinematography and sound each of whom has left their mark in film history The wide range of filmmaking crafts covered in the book provides an acute view of the industry and increases the visibility of and quality of representation for women working in Hollywood By bringing the experience of these influential women to light Hollywood Heroines joins a growing movement that endeavors to dismantle harmful long standing industry myths that perpetuate the systemic underrepresentation of women and the devaluation of women's stories in the Hollywood film industry Ida Lupino, Director Therese Grisham, Julie Grossman, 2017-05-23 Dominated by men and bound by the restrictive Hays Code postwar Hollywood offered little support for a female director who sought to make unique films on controversial subjects But Ida Lupino bucked the system writing and directing a string of movies that exposed the dark underside of American society on topics such as rape polio unwed motherhood bigamy exploitative sports and serial murder The first in depth study devoted to Lupino's directorial work this book makes a strong case for her as a trailblazing feminist auteur a filmmaker with a clear signature style and an abiding interest in depicting the plights of postwar American women Ida Lupino Director not only examines her work as a cinematic auteur but also offers a serious consideration of her diverse and long ranging career getting her start in Hollywood as an actress in her teens and twenties directing her first films in her early thirties and later working as an acclaimed director of television westerns sitcoms and suspense dramas It also demonstrates how Lupino fused generic elements of film noir and the social problem film to create a distinctive directorial style that was both highly expressionistic and grittily realistic Ida Lupino Director thus shines a long awaited spotlight on one of our greatest filmmakers Ida Lupino, Filmmaker Phillip Sipiora, 2021-07-15 Ida Lupino Filmmaker begins with an exploration of biographical studies and analytical treatments of Lupino's film and television work as director moving forward to assess Lupino's career in film and television with particular attention given to Lupino's singular pioneering achievements and her role s within the cultural milieu s of her time particularly the representation of women in cinema Each chapter includes a close analysis of the film or television work with insights drawn from film history and cultural gender studies to demonstrate that Lupino was a significant directorial figure in the development of film especially in the late 1940s and early 1950s and in television extending well into the 1960s Lupino left her imprint on filmmaking and her canon of film and television work continue to influence Hollywood movie making The contributors to this volume assess Lupino s main strengths as a filmmaker her treatment of narrative movement plotting dialogue gender roles and uses of tradition representations of men and women in frames of parody and satire The book collectively examines the successes and failures of Lupino s directorial career including focusing on the reasons why she initially proved to be so strategic to the progress of women behind the camera
