Arms and the Woman Helen M. Cooper, Adrienne Auslander Munich, Susan Merrill Squier, 2000-11-15 Although the themes of women s complicity in and resistance to war have been part of literature from early times they have not been fully integrated into conventional conceptions of the war narrative Combining feminist literary criticism with the emerging field of feminist war theory this collection explores the role of gender as an organizing principle in the war system and reveals how literature perpetuates the ancient myth of arms and the man The volume shows how the gendered conception of war has both shaped literary texts and formed the literary canon It identifies and interrogates the conventional war text with its culturally determined split between warlike men and peaceful women and it confirms that women s role in relation to war is much more complex and complicitous than such essentializing suggests The contributors examine a wide range of familiar texts from fresh perspectives and bring new texts to light Collectively these essays range in time from the Trojan War to the nuclear age The contributors are June Jordan Lorraine Helms Patricia Francis Cholakian Jane E Schultz Margaret R Higonnet James Longenbach Laura Stempel Mumford Sharon O Brien Jane Marcus Sara Friedrichsmeyer Susan Schweik Carol J Adams Esther Fuchs Barbara Freeman Gillian Brown Helen M Cooper Adrienne Auslander Munich and Susan Merrill Squier

The Greatest Romance Classics of All Time is a monumental collection that showcases the breadth and depth of romantic literature spanning centuries and encapsulating a variety of literary styles. From the tragic depths of Tolstoy's explorations of love and loss to the witty and satirical amours immortalized by Jane Austen, from the Gothic passions of the Brontë sisters to the modernist portrayals of love's complexities by Virginia Woolf, this anthology offers a panoramic view of the ways in which romance has been conceived and reconceived in literary history. Standout pieces include the timeless tragedy of Shakespeare's star-crossed lovers, the intricate social dances of Edith Wharton's New York, and the poignant unspoken desires in the works of E. M. Forster, highlighting the collection's range from the elation of young love to the introspection of love lost. The contributing authors, an illustrious assembly of some of literature's most revered names, bring to this collection an unmatched depth of cultural and historical contexts. The diversity of authors, spanning from the dawn of modern literature with Fanny Burney to the keen observations of social conventions and individual desires by Henry James, and the innovative narrative styles of F. Scott Fitzgerald, mirrors the evolution of the romance genre itself. This anthology not only aligns with major literary movements from Romanticism to Realism to Modernism but also presents a unique dialogue across cultures and epochs, showcasing the universal and evolving nature of love and human connection. This collection is an indispensable treasure for those who wish to immerse themselves in the rich legacy of romance literature. It offers readers a unique opportunity to explore love in its myriad forms, from the fiery and tumultuous to the subtle and unspoken. This anthology is not merely a celebration of romantic love but an educational voyage through the landscapes of human emotion and societal norms as expressed through romantic encounters across time. It is a must-read for those looking to understand the multifaceted nature of love, appreciate the genius of literary giants, and experience the timeless dialogue between changing societies and the enduring human heart through the lens of romance.
