Not Just A Sound The Story Of Wlw:

Not Just a Sound Dick Perry,1971 On the Air John Dunning,1998-05-07 Now long out of print John Dunning's Tune in Yesterday was the definitive one volume reference on old time radio broadcasting Now in On the Air Dunning has completely rethought this classic work reorganizing the material and doubling its coverage to provide a richer and more informative account of radio's golden age Here are some 1 500 radio shows presented in alphabetical order The great programs of the 30s 40s and 50s are all here Amos n Andy Fibber McGee and Molly The Lone Ranger Major Bowes Original Amateur Hour and The March of Time to name only a few For each Dunning provides a complete broadcast history with the timeslot the network and the name of the show's advertisers He also lists major cast members announcers producers directors writers and sound effects people even the show's theme song There are also umbrella entries such as News Broadcasts which features an engaging essay on radio news with capsule biographies of major broadcasters such as Lowell Thomas and Edward R Murrow Equally important Dunning provides a fascinating account of each program taking us behind the scenes to capture the feel of the performance such as the ghastly sounds of Lights Out a horror drama where heads rolled and bones crunched and providing engrossing biographies of the main people involved in the show A wonderful read for everyone who loves old time radio On the Air is a must purchase for all radio hobbyists and anyone interested in 20th century American history It is an essential reference work for libraries and radio stations An American Organist in Paris Lee Erwin,2012-05-04 An American Organist in Paris presents Lee Orville Erwin's letters from France to his family in 1930 1931 In these letters Erwin recounts his daily experiences and encounters with some of the 20th century's greatest musicians and teachers He writes of his lessons with Andr Encyclopedia of Radio 3-Volume Set Christopher H. Sterling,2004-03-01 Produced in association with the Museum of Broadcast Communications in Chicago the Encyclopedia of Radio includes more than 600 entries covering major countries and regions of the world as well as specific programs and people networks and organizations regulation and policies audience research and radio's technology This encyclopedic work will be the first broadly conceived reference source on a medium that is now nearly eighty years old with essays that provide essential information on the subject as well as comment on the significance of the particular person organization or topic being examined Playback Mark Coleman,2025-05-01 Suddenly popular music resembles an alien landscape The great common ground of 45s LPs and even compact discs is rapidly falling by the wayside to be replaced by binary bits of sound In the 21st century radical advances in music technology threaten to overshadow the music itself Indeed today the generations divide over how they listen to the music not what kinds of music they enjoy Playback is the first book to place the staggering history of sound reproduction within its larger social and cultural context Concisely told via a narrative arc that begins with Edison's cylinder and ends with digital music this is a history that we have all directly experienced in one way or another From the Victrola to the 78 to the 45 to the 33 1 3 to the 8track to the cassette to the compact disc to MP3 and beyond not to mention everyone from Thomas Edison to Enrico Caruso to Dick Clark to Grandmaster Flash to Napster CEO Shawn Fanning the story of Playback is also the story of music and the music business in the 20th century Invisible Stars Donna Halper, 2015-02-11 Invisible Stars was the first book to recognize that women have always played an important part in American electronic media The emphasis is on social history as the author skillfully explains how the changing role of women in different eras influenced their participation in broadcasting This is not just the story of radio stars or broadcast journalists but a social history of women both on and off the air Beginning in the early 1920s with the emergence of radio the book chronicles the ambivalence toward women in broadcasting during the 1930s and 1940s the gradual change in status of women in the 1950s and 1960s the increased presence of women in broadcasting in the 1970s and the successes of women in broadcasting in the 1980s and 1990s The second edition is expanded to include the social and political changes that occurred in the 2000s such as the growing number of women talk show hosts changing attitudes about women in leadership roles in business more about minority women in media and women in sports and women sports announcers The author addresses the question of whether women are in fact no longer invisible in electronic media She provides an assessment of where progress for women in society as well as broadcasting can be seen and where progress appears totally stalled Fats Waller On The Air Stephen Taylor, 2006-03-20 A documentation of radio and television appearances by the jazz pianist and entertainer Thomas Fats Waller from his first broadcast in 1923 at age 19 until his final airing shortly before his premature death in 1943 This book also includes a comprehensive discography and photos Popular Music Roman Iwaschkin, 2016-04-14 This is a comprehensive guide to popular music literature first published in 1986 Its main focus is on American and British works but it includes significant works from other countries making it truly international in scope American Popular Music and Its Business: From 1900 to 1984 Russell Sanjek, 1988 Volume three of this work focuses on developments in the music business in the twentieth century from its earliest days to the present era American Popular Music and Its Business the late Russell Sanjek, 1988-07-28 This volume focuses on developments in the music business in the twentieth century including vaudeville music boxes the relationship of Hollywood to the music business the fall and rise of the record business in the 1930s new technology TV FM and the LP record after World War II the dominance of rock and roll and the huge increase in the music business during the 1950s and 1960s and finally the changing music business scene from 1967 to the present especially regarding government regulations music licensing and the record business Industrial Strength Bluegrass Fred Bartenstein, Curtis W. Ellison, 2021-01-25 In the twentieth century Appalachian migrants seeking economic opportunities relocated to southwestern Ohio bringing their music with them Between 1947 and 1989 they created an internationally renowned capital for the thriving bluegrass music genre centered on the industrial region of Cincinnati Dayton Hamilton Middletown and Springfield Fred Bartenstein and Curtis W Ellison edit a collection of eyewitness narratives and in depth analyses that explore southwestern Ohio s bluegrass musicians radio broadcasters recording studios record labels and performance venues along with the music's contributions to religious activities community development and public education As the bluegrass scene grew southwestern Ohio's distinctive sounds reached new fans and influenced those everywhere who continue to play produce and love roots music Revelatory and multifaceted Industrial Strength Bluegrass shares the inspiring story of a bluegrass hotbed and the people who created it Contributors Fred Bartenstein Curtis W Ellison Jon Hartley Fox Rick Good Lily Isaacs Ben Krakauer Mac McDivitt Nathan McGee Daniel Mullins Joe Mullins Larry Nager Phillip J Obermiller Bobby Osborne and Neil V Rosenberg
