Perfecting Women Ashraf 'Alī Thānvī, Barbara Daly Metcalf, 1990 Challenging conventional notions about the place of women in Muslim societies the Bihishti Zewar Heavenly Ornaments gives life to the themes of religious and social reform that have too often been treated in the abstract This instructional guidebook used by the world's largest population of Muslims is a vital source for those interested in modern Indian social and intellectual history in Islamic reform and in conceptions of gender and women's roles The Bihishti Zewar was written in northern India in the early 1900s by a revered Muslim scholar and spiritual guide Maulana Ashraf Ali Thanawi 1864-1943 to instruct Muslim girls and women in religious teachings proper behavior and prudent conduct of their everyday lives In so doing it sets out the core of a reformist version of Islam that has become increasingly prominent across Muslim societies during the past hundred years Throughout the work nothing is more striking than the extent to which the book takes women and men as essentially the same in contrast to European works directed toward women at this time Its rich descriptions of the everyday life of the relatively privileged classes in turn of the century north India provide information on issues of personality formation as well as on family life social relations household management and encounters with new institutions and inventions Barbara Metcalf has carefully selected those sections of the Bihishti Zewar that best illustrate the themes of reformist thought about God the person society and gender She provides a substantial introduction to the text and to each section as well as detailed annotations
