Graham Greene Richard Greene, 2011-04-20 There have been a number of Graham Greene biographies but none has captured his voice his loves hates family and friends intimate and writerly or his deep understanding of the world like this astonishing collection of letters Graham Greene is one of the few modern novelists who can be called great In the course of his long and eventful life 1904 1991 he wrote tens of thousands of letters to family friends writers publishers and others involved in his various interests and causes A Life in Letters presents a fresh and engrossing account of his life career and mind in his own words Meticulously chosen and engagingly annotated this selection of letters many of them seen here for the first time gives an entirely new perspective on a life that combined literary achievement political action espionage exotic travel and romantic entanglement In several letters the individuals events or places described provide the inspiration for characters episodes or locations found in his later fiction The correspondence describes his travels in Mexico Africa Malaya Vietnam Haiti Cuba Sierra Leone Liberia and other trouble spots where he observed the struggles of victims and victors with a compassionate and truthful eye The volume includes a vast number of unpublished letters to authors Evelyn Waugh Auberon Waugh Anthony Powell Edith Sitwell R K Narayan and Muriel Spark and to other more notorious individuals such as the double agent Kim Philby Some of these letters dispute previous assessments of his character such as his alleged anti-Semitism or obscenity and he emerges as a man of deep integrity decency and courage Others reveal the agonies of his romantic life especially his relations with his wife Vivien Greene and with one of his mistresses Catherine Walston The letters can be poignant despairing amorous furious or amusing but the sheer range of experience contained in them will astound everyone who reads this book Graham Greene Neil

Taylor,2015-07-28 Winner of the Whitbread Biography Award A profoundly moving and definitive portrait of George Orwell author of 1984 and larger than life literary genius The Daily Telegraph It was not easy to bury George Orwell After a lifetime of iconoclasm during which he professed no interest in religion and no affiliation with any church he asked to be buried in an Anglican churchyard but none would have him Orwell's friends fought for him to have a proper grave however and the author of 1984 Animal Farm and Homage to Catalonia among other brilliant works of prose poetry and journalism was laid to rest in a quiet country cemetery Almost immediately his legacy was in dispute Orwell did not want any biographies written of him but that has not stopped scholars from trying Of all those published since the author's death in 1950 D J Taylor's prize winning book is considered the most definitive Born in India Orwell spent his forty six years of life traveling the British Empire and confronting the world head on From the trenches of Spain to the top of bestseller lists Taylor presents Orwell fully as a writer social critic and human being Rosamond Lehmann Selina Hastings,2012-02-29 The life of Rosamond

Lehmann was as romantic and harrowing as that of any of her fictional heroines Her first novel the shocking Dusty Answer became wildly successful launching her career as a novelist and just as her novels depicted the tempestuous lives of her heroines Rosamond's personal life would be full of heartbreaking affairs and lost loves Escaping from a disastrous early marriage Rosamond moved right into the heart of Bloomsbury society with Wogan Philipps Later on she would embark on the most important love affair of her life with the poet Cecil Day Lewis nine years later he abandoned her for a young actress a betrayal from which she would never recover Selina Hastings masterfully creates a portrait of a woman whose dramatic life work and relationships crisscrossed the cultural literary and political landscape of England in the middle of the twentieth century Text & Presentation, 2018 Jay Malarcher,2019-04-05 The 15th in a series drawn from scholarship presented at
