of its kind has been completely updated for the new millennium. It contains hundreds of new entries, many expanded descriptions and notations of additional companion and related titles, more than 1,700 in all. The best loved classics of the twentieth century are included as well as a thoughtful selection of outstanding titles from the last decade. Six sections are organized according to reading level: Wordless Picture Story, Early Reading, Middle Reading, and Young Adult. In addition to a summary of the book, each entry provides the essential bibliographic information you need to find a book in your local library or bookstore, including title, author, and/or illustrator, hardcover and/or paperback, publisher, and publication year, major awards, related titles. The unique and most popular feature of the guide is its system of special indexes, more than sixty in all. They make it easy for parents and grandparents, teachers and librarians, even children themselves to match the right book to the right child. Browse through the indexes and find titles for every interest and mood: picture books about cats, mice, or dinosaurs; for babies; funny books to read aloud to toddlers; series about family life or school or fantasy adventures for a middle grade child; books on divorce or death and coming of age; novels just right for someone starting junior high school. There are also indexes for books about minorities and religion, an age appropriate reading level index, and much more. Lavishly decorated with more than three hundred illustrations from representative titles, the guide also features extra wide margins for notes on which of your children liked which book, at what age, and why. Thus the guide becomes a family reading record as well as an invaluable resource you'll use again and again.

Story Hour Jeri Kladder, 2003-07-10. Story time at the public library is the first exposure to books outside the home for many preschool children. For the librarian, it is an exciting opportunity to instill in youngsters a love of reading and books. But coming up with new ideas that hold the children's attention can be trying. Until now. Here are 55 tried and true story hour programs with a thematic approach. All are highly flexible and adaptable across the full preschool age range. Most of the ideas are arranged under one of eight specific themes that include four to eight one hour programs: barnyard animals, the Caldecott Medal, colors, families, a storytelling feast, the five senses, reptiles and amphibians, and around the world. There are also 18 individual holiday and seasonal programs. All story hours provide ideas for name tags, suggested audiovisual materials, recommended story, poetry, and song selections, additional titles, and a full description of the activity.

Kindergarten Grade Social Science Terri Raymond, 2014-07-14. Over 50 discussion questions and activities and 50 quiz questions fill this comprehensive social science book. The book covers the following topics: Important People in American History, Geography, Economics, Civics, Government, Personal, Local, Civics, American Government, Symbols, American History, Holidays. If you are homeschooling or if you are just trying to get extra practice for your child, then you already know that social science workbooks and curriculum can be expensive. Homeschool Brew is trying to change that. We have teamed with teachers and parents to create books for prices parents can afford. We believe education shouldn't be expensive.
