Notebook The Proof The Third Lie:

The Notebook Agota Kristof, 1997 Kristof's postmodern saga begins with The Notebook in which the brothers are children lost in a country torn apart by conflict who must learn every trick of evil and cruelty merely to survive Three Novels Agota Kristof, Alan Sheridan, 1997 TRILOGY THE NOTEBOOK THE PROOF THE THIRD AGOTA KRISTOF, 2022-06 Twinkind William Viney, 2024-01-09 An arresting illustrated history of twins in mythology science and visual culture Twins have captivated the imagination for centuries occupying a unique place in our cultural and scientific history Twinkind looks at twins in myth and legend anatomy sociology and genetics and as sources of spectacle entertainment and community A visual journey like no other this book sheds critical light on the competing visions of twins around the world and throughout history showing how the lived experience of twinkind has elicited profound attraction and respect but also puzzlement fear and fascination The Edges of Trauma Tamás Bényei, Alexandra Stara, 2014-06-30 A collection of essays by an international group of scholars The Edges of Trauma Explorations in Visual Art and Literature addresses the vast cultural and discursive construction that trauma has become in recent decades Unravelling aspects of representing narrating testifying to trauma and of sharing or conveying traumatic non experience many of the essays offer new perspectives on traditionally central topics of trauma studies including shellshock sexual abuse the Holocaust AIDS and 9 11 or on canonical trauma texts such as Art Spiegelman's Maus W G Sebald's Austerlitz and Virginia Woolf's autobiographical writings Some authors take issue with the at least partly commercially motivated canonisation of trauma fiction and with the automatic linking of certain textual features with traumatic experiences In other essays trauma works as an interpretative device that allows us to see otherwise familiar texts like Paul Scott's Raj Quartet and the fiction of Beckett and Agota Kristof in a new light Other contributors interrogate less obvious cultural and artistic representations including First World War British painting Jean Richard Bloch's wartime writings Félix González Torres's candy spills the photography of Peter Piller and Ori Gersht and recent American television comedy in the context of trauma while one author explores her own artistic practice as part of the working through of traumatic experiences The Edges of Trauma differs from other volumes concerned with trauma and art in that it gathers together essays on both literature and visual art These essays are concerned with the relationship between trauma and art traumatic non experience and aesthetic experience exploring how the non experience of trauma finds its way into artistic representations Modern European Borders in Fiction Andrew Hammond, 2025-09-18 There are few features of the contemporary world more significant than national and regional borders In modern Europe the practices of human division have defined the continent from the early years of the Cold War to the present barriers of Fortress Europe whose exposure of irregular migrants to trafficking discrimination and deportation is rarely absent from the daily news Modern European Borders in Fiction offers a comprehensive study of literary responses to the topic Through reference to over 600 novels and short stories Andrew Hammond analyses the wide ranging engagement of post 1945 novelists with the ideologies processes and effects of territorialisation as well as the related issues of military conflict migration populism nationalism and regionalism Among the topics under study are the ideological divisions of the Cold War the closed societies of totalitarian communism the labour migrations of the 1950s and 1960s the tightening of border controls from the 1970s the twenty first century war on migration the official restrictions on borderland communities the conflicts in Bosnia Georgia and Ukraine and the patterns of social segregation that have marked the continent from the Second World War to the present Drawing on theoretical work in the social sciences and the humanities this is a ground breaking contribution to European literary studies establishing the importance of continental border writing and opening up fresh avenues for decolonised teaching and research

The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels

The Monstrosity of Christ Slavoj Žižek, John Milbank, 2011-02-25 A militant Marxist atheist and a Radical Orthodox Christian theologian square off on everything from the meaning of theology and Christ to the war machine of corporate mafia What matters is not so much that Žižek is endorsing a demythologized disenchanted Christianity without transcendence as that he is offering in the end despite what he sometimes claims a heterodox version of Christian belief John Milbank To put it even more bluntly my claim is that it is Milbank who is effectively guilty of heterodoxy ultimately of a regression to paganism in my atheism I am more Christian than Milbank Slavoj Žižek In this corner philosopher Slavoj Žižek a militant atheist who represents the critical materialist stance against religion's illusions in the other corner Radical Orthodox theologian John Milbank an influential and provocative thinker who argues that theology is the only foundation upon which knowledge politics and ethics can stand In The Monstrosity of Christ i ek and Milbank go head to head for three rounds employing an impressive arsenal of moves to advance their positions and press their respective advantages By the closing bell they have not only proven themselves worthy adversaries they have shown that faith and reason are not simply and intractably opposed i ek has long been interested in the emancipatory potential offered by Christian theology And Milbank seeing global capitalism as the new century's greatest ethical challenge has pushed his own ontology in more political and materialist directions Their debate in The Monstrosity of Christ concerns the future of religion secularity and political hope in light of a monstrous event God becoming human For the first time since i ek's turn toward theology we have a true debate between an atheist and a theologian about the very meaning of theology Christ the Church the Holy Ghost Universality and the foundations of logic The result goes far beyond the popularized atheist theist point counterpoint of recent books by Christopher Hitchens Richard Dawkins and others i ek begins and Milbank answers countering dialectics with paradox The debate centers on the nature of and relation between paradox and parallax between analogy and dialectics between transcendent glory and liberation Slavoj i ek is a philosopher and cultural critic He has published over thirty books including Looking Awry The Puppet and the Dwarf and The Parallax View these three published by the MIT Press John Milbank is an influential Christian theologian and the author of Theology and Social Theory Beyond Secular Reason and other books Creston Davis who conceived of this encounter studied under both i ek and Milbank

The Twin Enigma Vivienne Lewin, 2018-05-08 The book offers a unique in depth understanding of the twin relationship and the way in which twin development is affected by our attitudes to twins and our enduring fascination with them It explores our historical fascination with this subject and the origins of this excitement how our perceptions of twins reflect our own longing for a perfect soul mate and the effect this personal projection has on the development in twins It is a book written with the general reader in mind rather than experts Twins share a deep psychic bond that forms the core of their twinship but they are never identical Many factors will affect their development including the early mutual resonances and sensate experiences between them and parental and societal attitudes in raising them

Off Sites Bertie Ferdman, 2018-07-30 Honorable Mention ATHE's 2018 Outstanding Book Award Contextualizing the techniques and methods of the incredibly rich and vital genre of site specific performance author Bertie Ferdman traces the evolution of that term Originally used for experimental staging practices and then later also for engaged situational events site specific is no longer sufficient for the genre's many contemporary variations Using the term off site Ferdman illustrates five distinct ways artists have challenged the disciplinary framework of site specific theatre blurring the traditional boundaries between the fictional and the real changing how the audience and actor interact with each other and whether they are physically together or apart fabricating sites from physically bound conceptually constructed or virtual spaces staging live situations in real nonreal and often mediated encounters and challenging our preconceived notions of time and space Tracing the genealogy of site based work through the twentieth and twenty first centuries Ferdman outlines the theoretical groundwork for her study in the introduction Individual chapters focus on distinct types of off sites the interdisciplinary discourse of disciplinary sites the spaces of audience engagement with spectator sites the dislocation of time for temporal sites and the historiographical spaces of mapping for urban sites Ferdman examines site based work being done in the Americas by contemporary companies and artists experimenting with new forms and practices for site driven theatre Key productions discussed include Private Moment by David Levine Geyser Land by Mary Ellen Strom and Ann Carlson Jim Findlay's Dream of the Red Chamber and Lola Arias' Mi Vida Después Žižek Reading Bonhoeffer Bojan Koltaj, 2019-08-23 This book critically examines Bonhoeffer's social theology in Sanctorum Communio from the perspective of Žižek's theological materialism Specifically it refers to Žižek's struggling universality of abandonment and its ethic of indifference in consideration of Bonhoeffer's transcendental personalist community of saints and its ethic of universal love As such it represents an attempt to reflect on the content and implication of theological thought without presuppositions and an argument for the necessity of such an approach a radical approach that is true to theology's critical character of challenging narratives and revealing exceptions in search of truth

Psychoanalysis: Topological Perspectives Michael Friedman, Samo Tomšič, 2016-12-15 The volume addresses the philosophical epistemological and interdisciplinary aspects of the link between psychoanalysis and topology Looking at the historical developments of psychoanalytic theory one can hardly overlook the significant presence of architectonic and geometrical references that traverse Freud's writings Lacan's return to Freud made a decisive step in taking these metaphors seriously and engaged with the mathematical correspondence of Freud's topological models He thereby intensified the link with topology which obtained an important didactic and conceptual value The contributions highlight the ongoing relevance of this topological turn in psychoanalysis by exploring both concrete topological objects and outline the philosophical framework that supports the relation of psychoanalysis to topology or the reader's and viewer's reception. Out of the cross motivations that the creative mind filters in its temporal synthesis in touch with all the perspectives of existence there surges the deepest significance of life in humanity and culture. But first of all life comes to light as timing itself in its logos.

Tymieniecka Bicultural Literature and Film in French and English Peter I. Barta, Phil Powrie, 2015-12-22 This book focuses on literature and cinema in English or French by authors and directors not working in their native language. Artists with hybrid identities have become a defining phenomenon of contemporary reality following the increased mobility between civilisations during the postcolonial period and the waves of emigration to the West. Cinema and prose fiction remain the most popular sources of cultural consumption not least owing to the adaptability of both to the new electronic media. This volume considers cultural products in English and French in which the explicitly multi-focal representation of authors' experiences of their native languages/cultures makes itself conspicuous. The essays explore work by the peripheral and those without a country while problematising what might be meant by the widely used but not always well defined term bicultural. The first section looks at films by such well known filmmakers working in France as Bouchareb, Kechiche, Legzouli and Dridi as well as the animated feature Persepolis. Here the focus is on the representation of human experience in spatial terms exploring the appropriation of territory cohabited by local people, newcomers and their children haunted by the cultural memories of distant places. The second part is devoted to multicultural authors whose native language was English, Russian, Polish, Hungarian or Spanish: Beckett, Herzen, Voeikova, Triolet, Conrad, Hoffmann, Kristof Dorfman and their creative engagement with difference. A study of the emergence of multilingual writing in Montaigne and an autobiographical essay by Elleke Boehmer on growing up surrounded by English, Dutch, Afrikaans and Zulu frame the volume's chapters. The collection relishes the freedom provided by liberation from the confines of one language and culture and the delight in creative multilingualism. This book will be of significant interest to those studying the subject of biculturalism as well as the fields of comparative literature and cinema.

Yale/theatre, 2003 Twins William Viney, 2021-05-05 Human twins have many meanings and different histories. They have been seen as gods and monsters, signs of danger, death and sexual deviance. They are taken as objects of wonder and violent repression, the subjects of scientific experiment. Now millions are born through fertility technologies. Their history is often buried in philosophies and medical theories, religious and scientific practices and countless stories of devotion and tragedy. In this history of superstitions and marvels, fantasies and experiments, William Viney himself a twin shows how the use and abuse of twins has helped to shape the world in which we live. This book has been written not just for twins but for anyone interested in their historical, global and political impact.
