Notebooks/Memoirs/Archives Jenny Taylor, 2019-10-01 Since The Grass is Singing was published in 1950 Doris Lessing has commanded a widespread and heterogeneous readership Written from a feminist political perspective and employing diverse modes of critical analysis the present volume originally published in 1982 aims to combine detailed technical exploration of Lessing's work with a sense of this extraordinary writer's historical political and personal development The essays placed in political and biographical context by the editor's introduction span the entire length of Lessing's career up to Canopus in Argos and includes studies of A Man and Two Women The Golden Notebook and The Children of Violence as well as an interview with David Gladwell director of Memoirs of a Survivor      Doris Lessing and the Forming of History

Kevin Brazil, 2016-09-20 The death of Nobel Prize winning Doris Lessing sparked a range of commemorations that cemented her place as one of the major figures of twentieth and twenty first century world literature This volume views Lessing's writing as a whole and in retrospect focusing on her innovative attempts to rework literary form to engage with the challenges thrown up by the sweeping historical changes through which she lived The 12 original chapters provide new readings of Lessing's work via contexts ranging from post war youth politics and radical women's writing to European cinema analyse her experiments with genres from realism to autobiography and science fiction and draw on previously unstudied archive material The volume also explores how Lessing's writing can provide insight into some of the issues now shaping twenty first century scholarship including trauma ecocriticism the post human and world literature as they emerge as defining challenges to our own present moment in history      The British and Irish Novel Since 1960 James

Acheson, 1991-09-03 The essays in this collection survey the work of some of the most important British and Irish novelists of today They not only consider afresh the work of novelists who established their reputations before 1960 such as Doris Lessing and William Golding they also discuss the work of more recent novelists among them Kazuo Ishiguro Angela Carter and Graham Swift The contributors are drawn from various parts of the English speaking world and provide a variety of original perspectives on the novelists concerned      The Other Side of the Story Molly Hite, 2018-03-05 According to Molly

Hite a number of influential contemporary women novelists notably Jean Rhys Doris Lessing Alice Walker and Margaret Atwood attempt innovations in narrative form that are more radical in their implications than the dominant modes of fictional experimentation characterized as postmodernist In The Other Side of the Story Hite makes the point that these innovations which distinguish the genre she calls contemporary feminist narrative are more radical precisely because their context is the critique of a culture and a literary tradition apprehended as profoundly masculinist      The Intimate Empire Gillian

Whitlock, 2000-02-01 By means of contextualized readings this work argues that autobiographic writing allows an intimate access to processes of colonization and decolonization incorporation and resistance and the formation and reformation of identities which occurs in postcolonial space The book explores the interconnections between race gender autobiography and colonialism and uses a method of reading which looks for connections between very different autobiographical writings to pursue constructions of blackness and whiteness femininity and masculinity and nationality Unlike previous studies of autobiography which focus on a limited Euro American canon the book brings together contemporary and 19th century women s autobiographies and travel writing from Canada the Caribbean Kenya South Africa Australia and New Zealand With emphasis on the reader of autobiography as much as the subject it argues that colonization and resistance are deeply embedded in thinking about the self      Female Stories, Female Bodies Lidia Curti,1998-01-19 This interdisciplinary book explores women s narratives in a wide variety of media and genre from soap opera and film to the post modern novel and Shakespearian drama Adopting an innovative feminist perspective it focuses particularly on the themes of hybridity and monstrosity in language and the body In doing so it raises issues to do with closure and temporal and spatial dislocation drawing on themes of passion paranoia and desire      Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark

Hawkins-Dady,2012-12-06 Reader s Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study      In the Presence of Audience Deborah Martinson,2003 Martinson examines the diaries of Virginia

Woolf Katherine Mansfield Violet Hunt and Doris Lessing s fictional character Anna Wulf She argues that these diaries and others like them are not entirely private writings but that their authors wrote them knowing they would be read She argues that the audience is the author s male lover or husband and describes how knowledge of this audience affects the language and content in each diary She argues that this audience enforces a certain male censorship which changes the shape of the revelations and of the writer herself      Fiction, Intuition, & Creativity Angela Hague,2003 This is a search for the origins of fiction and for an understanding of how these origins influence the finished work of art The text examines the connection between the creative process and fictional form by discussing intuitive consciousness      Feminism and the Postmodern

Impulse Magali Cornier Michael,Margaret Atwood,1996-01-01 Michael analyzes the intersections between feminist politics and postmodern aesthetics as demonstrated in recent Anglo American fiction While much has been written on various aspects of postmodernism and postmodern fiction and of feminism and feminist fiction very little attention has been given to the postmodern aesthetic strategies that surface in post World War II feminist fiction Feminism and the Postmodern Impulse examines ways in which many widely read and acclaimed novels with feminist impulses engage and transform subversive aesthetic strategies usually associated with postmodern fiction to strengthen their feminist political edge The author discusses many examples of recent feminist postmodern fiction and explores in greater depth Doris Lessing s The Golden Notebook Marge Piercy s Woman on the Edge of Time Margaret Atwood s The Handmaid s Tale and Angela Carter s Nights at the Circus She shows that feminist postmodern fiction s emphasis on the material historical situation the link to activist politics and commitment to enacting concrete changes in the world and thus the need to reach a large reading public often results in a blending and transformation of postmodern and realist aesthetic forms Moreover feminist fiction uses deconstructive strategies not only to disrupt the status quo but also to create a space for reconstruction particularly of recreating new forms of female subjectivities and feminist aesthetics

Doris Lessing Susan Watkins,2013-07-19 This study examines the writing career of the respected and prolific novelist Doris Lessing who was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2007 and has recently published what she has announced will be her final novel Whereas earlier assessments have focused on Lessing s relationship with feminism and the impact of her 1962 novel The Golden Notebook this book argues that Lessing s writing was formed by her experiences of the colonial encounter it makes use of postcolonial theory and criticism to examine Lessing s continued interest in ideas of nation empire gender and race and the connections between them The book examines the entire range of her writing including her most recent fiction and non fiction which have been comparatively neglected The book is aimed at undergraduate and postgraduate students of Doris Lessing s work as well as the general reader who enjoys her writing This is the first significant book length critical evaluation in ten years

Image and Power Sarah Sceats,Gail Cunningham,2014-09-11 Image and Power is an important work of literary and cultural criticism This collection of essays focuses on some of the major issues addressed by women s writing in the twentieth century concerning genre subjectivity and social and cultural expectations issues which in the past have been regarded from an essentially male perspective The text introduces women writers whose novels have been widely read and provides an important contribution to the debate about women in literature

A Companion to the British and Irish Novel, 1945 - 2000 Brian W. Shaffer,2008-04-15 A Companion to the British and Irish Novel 1945 - 2000 serves as an extended introduction and reference guide to the British and Irish novel between the close of World War II and the turn of the millennium Covers a wide range of authors from Samuel Beckett to Salman Rushdie Provides readings of key novels including Graham Greene s Heart of the Matter Jean Rhys s Wide Sargasso Sea and Kazuo Ishiguro s The Remains of the Day Considers particular subgenres such as the feminist novel and the postcolonial novel Discusses overarching cultural political and literary trends such as screen adaptations and the literary prize phenomenon Gives readers a sense of the richness and diversity of the novel during this period and of the vitality with which it continues to be discussed

Narrative Authority and Homeostasis in the Novels of Doris Lessing and Carmen Martín Gaité Linda E. Chown,2019-10-02 This study originally published in 1990 assesses a shift in the presentation of self consciousness in two pairs of novels by Doris Lessing and Carmen Martín Gaité 1 Lessing s The Summer Before the Dark 1973 and Martín Gaité s Retah las 1974 and 2 Lessing s The Memoirs of a Survivor 1974 and Martín Gaité s The Back Room 1978 Three major structural divisions facilitate examining implications of the novels for 1 feminism 2 literary narrative and 3 the lives of people at large

Rereading Modernism Lisa Rado,2012-08-21 Until about 1986 feminists generally considered modernism a reactionary misogynist and hegemonic mire not worth investigating Since then enough studies of modernism have appeared that 17 feminist critics can now review and debate their treatment of the period They evaluate the progress and goals of the new era of modernist scholarship As the authors in this volume suggest instead of condemning writers for not practicing or portraying an acceptable politics of gender we ought instead to show how their assumptions about the nature of the sexes inform their texts both in their creation and in their reception This also allows examination of the complex and changing relationship between human subjectivity and aesthetics This volume is a highly reflective dialogue introspective and evaluative at a moment of crisis within modernist studies and feminist studies The analysis of critical work on early twentieth century literature not only helps reread and redefine a definition of modernism it also intends to redirect and reintegrate feminist theory
