Reynolds Beal, Impressionist Landscapes and Seascapes Sidney Bressler, 1989 Notes on the Post-impressionist Painters Charles John Holmes, 1910 Monet, Renoir and the Impressionist Landscape National Gallery of Ireland, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 2002 Impressionism John I. Clancy, 2003 Defining an artistic era or movement is often a difficult task as one tries to group individualistic expressions and artwork under one broad brush Such is the case with impressionism which culls together the art of a multitude of painters in the mid 19th century including Monet C zanne Renoir Degas and van Gogh Basically impressionism involved the shedding of traditional painting methods The subjects of art were taken from everyday life as opposed to the pages of mythology and history In addition each artist painted to express feelings of the moment instead of hewing to time honoured standards This description of impressionism obviously is quite broad and can apply to a wide array of styles Nonetheless it remains a very important school in the annals of art Any current or budding art aficionado should become familiar with the impressionist movement and its impact on the art world This book presents a sweeping study of this artistic period from its origins to its manifestations in the works of some of art history s most revered painters Following this overview is a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access through author title and subject indexes Impressionism John House, 2004-01-01 A new perspective on Impressionist art that offers revealing fresh interpretations of familiar paintings In this handsome book a leading authority on Impressionist painting offers a new view of this admired and immensely popular art form John House examines the style and technique subject matter and imagery exhibiting and marketing strategies and social political and ideological contexts of Impressionism in light of the perspectives that have been brought to it in the last twenty years When all of these diverse approaches are taken into account he argues Impressionism can be seen as a movement that challenged both artistic and political authority with its uncompromisingly modern subject matter and its determinedly secular worldview Moving from the late 1860s to the early 1880s House analyzes the paintings and career strategies of the leading Impressionist artists pointing out the ways in which they countered the dominant conventions of the contemporary art world and evolved their distinctive and immediately recognizable manner of painting Focusing closely on the technique composition and imagery of the paintings themselves and combining this fresh appraisal with recent historical studies of Impressionism House explores how pictorial style could generate social and political meanings and opens new ways of looking at this luminous art Childe Hassam, American Impressionist Helene Barbara Weinberg, 2004 This illustrated publication accompanies a major exhibition at the Metropolitan Museum the first retrospective presentation of Hassam s work in a museum since 1972 Unique to this volume are an account of Hassam s lifelong campaign to market his art a study of the frames he selected and designed for his paintings and an unprecedented lifetime exhibition record Included in addition are a checklist of works in the exhibition and a chronology of Hassam s life All works in the exhibition as well as comparative materials are reproduced BOOK JACKET An American Impressionist

Deborah Epstein Solon, 2005 Intended as the companion art book to a travelling exhibition An American Impressionist The Art And Life Of Alson Skinner Clark is the first in depth scrutiny of the American Impressionist painter Alson Skinner Clark 1876 1949 Featuring 77 colour plates and 10 halftones of Clark's work ranging from nude figures to bustling urban centres to panoramic scenes from all over the world An American Impressionist pairs the raw beauty and gentle imagery of the oil on canvas works with a brief discussion of Clark's life his marriage travels abroad the toll World War I took upon him his obscure retirement and the recent rediscovery of his contributions particularly to the Impressionist tradition in California where Clark made a name and lasting memory for himself among the local art community Especially recommended for collectors students and connoisseurs of the Impressionist style 77 colour 10 halftone plates Academy Notes Buffalo Fine Arts Academy, 1918 Neo-Impressionist Painters Russell T. Clement, Annick Houzé, 1999-09-30 This reference provides biographical historical and critical information on Neo Impressionist painting and its most significant painters Neo Impressionism also called Divisionism and Pointillism was one of the most innovative and startling late 19th century French avant garde styles Over 2 000 books articles manuscripts and audiovisual materials as well as chronologies biographical sketches and exhibition lists are cited Also provided are both primary and secondary bibliographies for each artist Secondary bibliographies capture details about each artist's life and career relationships with other artists work in various media iconography critical reception and interpretation archival sources and more Art scholars will appreciate the comprehensive bibliographic research contained in this one volume Entries on Neo Impressionism in general on exhibitions and the primary and secondary bibliographies of artists follow an introduction about Neo Impressionism and a Neo Impressionism chronology that spans the years 1881 to 1905 An index of art works and an index of personal names complete the volume Western Camera Notes, 1903 Mapping Impressionist Painting in Transnational Contexts Emily C. Burns, Alice M. Rudy Price, 2021-05-03 This book offers microhistories related to the transnational circulations of impressionism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The contributors rethink the role of French impressionism in shaping these iterations by placing France within its global and imperialist context and arguing that impressionisms might be framed through the mobility studies concept of constellations of mobility Artists engaging with impressionism in France as in other global contexts relied on responded to appropriated and resisted elements of form and content based on fluid and interconnected political realities and market structures Written by scholars and curators the chapters demand reconsideration of impressionism as a historical construct and the meanings assigned to that term This project frames future discussion in art history cultural studies and global studies on the politics of appropriating impressionism Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings Kirstin Ringelberg, 2017-07-05 Were late nineteenth century gender boundaries as restrictive as is generally held In Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings Work Place Domestic Space Kirstin Ringelberg argues that it is time to bring the current re evaluation of the notion of separate spheres to these images Focusing on studio paintings by American artists William Merritt Chase and Mary Fairchild MacMonnies Low she explores how the home based painting studio existed outside of entrenched gendered divisions of public and private space and argues that representations of these studios are at odds with standard perceptions of the images their creators and the concept of gender in the nineteenth century Unlike most of their bourgeois contemporaries Gilded Age artists whether male or female often melded the worlds of work and home Through analysis of both paintings and literature of the time Ringelberg reveals how art history continues to support a false dichotomy that in fact paintings that show women negotiating a complex combination of professionalism and domesticity are still overlooked in favor of those that emphasize women as decorative objects Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings challenges the dominant interpretation of American and European Impressionism and considers both men and women artists as active performers of multivalent identities Promenades of an Impressionist James Huneker,1910 Promenades of an Impressionist
