Notes and Journal of Travel in Europe, 1804-1805 Washington Irving, 2013-09. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1921 edition. Excerpt. NOTE: The Grolier Club expresses its appreciative thanks to Mrs. Isaac N. Seligman and Mr. William A. White for their kind permission to publish these Journals from the original manuscripts belonging to them respectively. The first of the three vellum-bound blank books comprising the Journals consists of one hundred and fifteen closely written leaves of blue paper with rough pencil drawings on the insides of the covers and on a fly leaf, and notes such as "Ship Matilda 27th Decr Opposite Corsica and Acheti en Bordeaux Juillet 1804 Prix 3 liv". The second and fourth volumes are similar but slightly smaller and not so thick. The much smaller volume of preliminary notes which has been used to cover the comparatively short period for which there seems to have been a missing third volume of the elaborated Journal was generously lent to the Club by the late Mr. Irving Van Wart. It is one of a series and became after his death a part of Mrs. Seligman's collection. The transcripts for the printer have been diligently compared with the original manuscripts by Miss Ruth S. Granniss, Librarian of the Club, who has supplied the Notes on the Text. The work of comparison was carried on in the Manuscript Division of the New York Public

Library and the courtesy and assistance received there are gratefully acknowledged In transcribing the manuscripts Irving's spelling and punctuation have been followed except in cases where it has seemed advisable to carry out his obvious intention as in the supplying of periods where he occasionally indicated the beginning of new sentences merely by extra spacing etc Proper nouns and adjectives have been capitalized where necessary but attention has not been drawn to the frequent misspelling of names
