Nuestra Natacha Alejandro Casona, 1979-10-01      Nuestra Natacha ; Otra vez el diablo Alejandro Casona, 1943

Literatura española contemporánea (1898-1950) Juan Chabás, Carmen Valcárcel, 2001-01-01 Esta edición rescata una de las realizaciones más ambiciosas del exilio republicano y por extensión de la España de posguerra. Publicada en La Habana en 1952, la obra no puede comprenderse en su total significación sin atender al compromiso sociopolítico que representa, así como al método que aplica, que no son otros, en primer lugar, que la concreción de una crítica militante y en segundo, la coherente conjunción de la estilística y los principios de la doctrina marxista.      Escritores, editoriales y revistas del exilio republicano de 1939 Manuel Aznar Soler, 2006      Theatre Censorship in Spain, 1931-1985 Catherine O'Leary, Michael Thompson, 2023-05-15 This is a comprehensive study of the impact of censorship on theatre in twentieth century Spain. It draws on extensive archival evidence, vivid personal testimonies and in-depth analysis of legislation to document the different kinds of theatre censorship practised during the Second Republic (1931-6), the civil war (1936-9), the Franco dictatorship (1939-75) and the transition to democracy (1975-85). Changes in criteria, administrative structures and personnel from these periods are traced in relation to wider political, social and cultural developments, and the responses of playwrights, directors and companies are explored. With a focus on censorship, new light is cast on particular theatre-makers and their work, the conditions in which all kinds of theatre were produced, the construction of genres and canons, as well as on broader cultural history and changing ideological climate, all of which are linked to reflections on the nature of censorship and the relationship between culture and the state.      A History of Spanish Film Sally Faulkner, 2013-04-11 A History of Spanish Film explores Spanish film from the beginnings of the industry to the present day by combining some of the most exciting work taking place in film studies with some of the most urgent questions that have preoccupied twentieth century Spain. It addresses new questions in film studies like prestige film and middlebrow cinema and places these in the context of a country defined by social mobility, including the 1920s industrial boom, the 1940s post-Civil War depression and the mass movement into the middle classes from the 1960s onwards. Close textual analysis of some 42 films from 1910-2010 provides an especially useful avenue into the study of this cinema for the student. Uniquely offers extensive close readings of 42 films which are especially useful to students and teachers of Spanish cinema. Analyses Spanish silent cinema and films of the Franco era as well as contemporary examples. Interrogates film's relations with other media including literature, pictorial art and television. Explores both auteur and popular cinemas. Establishes prestige and the middlebrow as crucial new terms in Spanish cinema studies. Considers the transnationality of Spanish cinema throughout its century of existence. Contemporary directors covered in this book include Almodóvar, Bollaín, Díaz Yanes and more.      Picturing Argentina: Myths, Movies, and the Peronist Vision Currie K.
