Nuestra Señora de la Soledad, Chapel and Garden Julieta J. Ríos Parraga, 1994      The Mission of Nuestra Señora de la Soledad Frances Norris Rand Smith, 192?      Devociones y oraciones marianas Rosa A. Fernández (F.S.P.), 2001

... Handbook of American Indians North of Mexico: N-Z Frederick Webb Hodge, 1910      California Missions & Presidios Alastair Worden, Randy Leffingwell, The missions and presidios of California are among the state's oldest structures and are the most visited historical monuments. These notable buildings are an integral part of California's history. The state's recorded history essentially began with the Spanish missions along the ambitious chain of 21 missions on El Camino Real, The Royal Highway, and the men who founded them. California Missions and Presidios is a gorgeous book that presents the history of these intriguing sanctuaries of peace and beauty. The eye-popping photography of Alastair Worden and Randy Leffingwell captures their unique character while Leffingwell's accessible text brings to life the overall history of California's conquest by the Spanish, the construction and operation of the missions, presidios, ranchos, and adobes, and the background of the mission architecture and style. Seemingly unchanged, these missions and presidios have survived the centuries remarkably well, still welcoming visitors as a refuge of serenity and splendor while providing a glimpse into the lives of the spirited pioneers who built these structures and lived and worked there.      Domestic Noir Laura Joyce, Henry Sutton, 2018-04-23 This book represents the first serious consideration of the domestic noir phenomenon and, by extension, the psychological thriller. The only such landmark collection since Lee Horsley's The Noir Thriller, it extends the argument for serious academic study of crime fiction, particularly in relation to gender, domestic violence, social and political awareness, psychological acuity, and structural and narratological inventiveness. As well as this, it shifts the debate around the sub-genre firmly up to date and brings together a range of global voices to dissect and situate the notion of domestic noir. This book is essential reading for students, scholars, and fans of the psychological thriller.      Backcountry Adventures Southern California Peter G. Massey, Jeanne Wilson, 2006-05 Beautifully crafted, high-quality, sewn 4-color guidebook. Part of a multiple book series of books on travel through America's beautiful and historic backcountry. Directions and maps to 2,970 miles of routes that travel through the beautiful mountain regions of Big Sur, across the arid Mojave Desert, and straight into the heart of the aptly named Death Valley. Trail history comes alive through the accounts of Spanish missionaries, eager prospectors looking to cash in during California's gold rush, and legends of lost mines. Includes wildlife information and photographs to help readers identify the great variety of native birds, plants, and animals they are likely to see. Contains 153 trails, 640 pages, and 645 photos.      California Missions Teacher Created Materials, Incorporated, 2003-03 Describe the cultures and traditions of Native American tribes. Join the padres at the mission. Examine the architecture and floor plan of a mission.      Theater of a Thousand Wonders William B. Taylor, 2016-10-03 The first comprehensive historical study of the images and shrines of New Spain, rich in stories and patterns of change over time.      A Wild Country Out in the Garden Maria De San

Newson,2017-09-18 Based on extensive archival research in Peru Spain and Italy Making Medicines in Early Colonial Lima Peru examines how apothecaries in Lima were trained ran their businesses traded medicinal products prepared medicines and found their place in society In the book Newson argues that apothecaries had the potential to be innovators in science especially in the New World where they encountered new environments and diverse healing traditions However it shows that despite experimental tendencies among some apothecaries they generally adhered to traditional humoral practices and imported materia medica from Spain rather than adopt native plants or exploit the region's rich mineral resources. This adherence was not due to state regulation but reflected the entrenchment of humoral beliefs in popular thought and their promotion by the Church and Inquisition.
