Hybrid Identity and the Utopian Impulse in the Postmodern Spanish-American Comic Novel Paul R. McAleer, 2015 The author examines the role of comedy in the novels of four key postmodern Spanish American writers Gustavo Sainz Alfredo Bryce Echenique Jaime Bayly and Fernando Vallejo An important but often overlooked function of comedy is its intrinsic relation to questions of identity This relationship furthermore is connected to another traditional feature of comedy the utopian impulse This book analyses these functions of comedy in the novels of four key postmodern Spanish American writers Gustavo Sainz Alfredo Bryce Echenique Fernando Vallejo and Jaime Bayly Focusing on the correlation between changing concepts of identity and the hybrid cultural context of the late 20th century it examines the issues of individual and social identities expressed by these authors in their inscription and distortion of the comic genre as well as in their usage of different modes of comedy It views the novels comic aspects as symptoms of hybridity which according to many theorists have brought about the dissolution of concepts such as the self and society and utopian modernity These symptoms are studied in tandem with the individual themes of the novels such as gender sexuality class and global migration as well as the post national question of Peruvian Colombian and Mexican identity Paul McAleer is Lecturer in Hispanic Studies at the University of Hull
