The New Extractivism James Petras, Henry Veltmeyer, 2014-03-13 In a primary commodities boom spurred on by the rise of China countries the world over are turning to the extraction of natural resources and the export of primary commodities as an antidote to the global recession The New Extractivism addresses a fundamental dilemma faced by these governments to pursue or not a development strategy based on resource extraction in the face of immense social and environmental costs not to mention mass resistance from the people negatively affected by it With fresh insight and analysis from Argentina Bolivia Colombia Ecuador Mexico and Peru this book looks at the political dynamics of capitalist development in a region where the neoliberal model is collapsing under the weight of a resistance movement lead by peasant farmers and indigenous communities It calls for us to understand the new extractivism not as a viable development model for the post neoliberal world but as the dangerous emergence of a new form of imperialism
