Nursery Rhymes of England J. O. (James Orchard) Halliwell Phillipps, 2018-06-26 The Nursery Rhymes of England by J O James Orchard Halliwell Phillipps I LD King Cole Was a merry old soul And a merry old soul was he He called for his pipe And he called for his bowl And he called for his fiddlers three Every fiddler he had a fiddle And a very fine fiddle had he Twee tweedle dee tweedle dee went the fiddlers Oh there s none so rare As can compare With King Cole and his fiddlers three The traditional Nursery Rhymes of England commence with a legendary satire on King Cole who reigned in Britain as the old chroniclers inform us in the third century after Christ According to Robert of Gloucester he was the father of St Helena and if so Butler must be wrong in ascribing an obscure origin to the celebrated mother of Constantine King Cole was a brave and popular man in his day and ascended the throne of Britain on the death of Asclepiod amidst the acclamations of the people or as Robert of Gloucester expresses himself the fole was tho of this lond y paid wel y nou At Colchester there is a large earthwork supposed to have been a Roman amphitheatre which goes popularly by the name of King Cole s kitchen According to Jeffrey of Monmouth King Cole s daughter was well skilled in music but we unfortunately have no evidence to show that her father was attached to that science further than what is contained in the foregoing lines which are of doubtful antiquity The following version of the song is of the seventeenth century the one given above being probably a modernization Good King Cole He call d for his bowl And he call d for fidlers three And there was fiddle fiddle And twice fiddle fiddle For twas my lady s birth day Therefore we keep holiday And come to be merry II When good king Arthur ruled this land He was a goodly king He stole three pecks of barley meal To make a bag pudding A bag pudding the king did make And stuff d it well with plums And in it put great lumps of fat As big as my two thumbs The king and queen did eat thereof And noblemen beside And what they could not eat that night The queen next morning fried We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience Nursery Songs & Rhymes of England Winifred Smith, 1895 Nursery Songs and Rhymes of England.
