Nurses Wild:

The Student Nurse in the Diploma School of Nursing George Psathas, 2013-12-14 Emergency! Richard Yokley, Rozane Sutherland, 2007-05 The hit television show that helped revolutionize emergency medical care in the streets is still a favorite with fans all over the world When the show premiered in 1972 fire department paramedic services were being piloted in just a handful of cities By 1977 over 50% of the US population was within 10 minutes of a paramedic unit The paramedics of Fire Station 51 showed viewers critical techniques such as CPR that saved lives both on screen and off Emergency Behind the Scene contains real life tales from the production crew from medical and fire technical advisors cast members and writer to paramedics and fire fighters Learn more about Johnny Gage Roy DeSoto Dixie McCall and the rest of the Station 51 Rampart General Hospital staff If you are a fire fighter paramedic or simply a fan you will enjoy this in depth look behind the scenes The House of the Mother Cynthia R. Chapman, 2016-10-25 A novel approach to Israelite kinship arguing that maternal kinship bonds played key social economic and political roles for a son who aspired to inherit his father's household Upending traditional scholarship on patrilineal genealogy Cynthia Chapman draws on twenty years of research to uncover an underappreciated yet socially significant kinship unit in the Bible the house of the mother In households where a man had two or more wives siblings born to the same mother worked to promote and protect one another's interests Revealing the hierarchies of the maternal houses and political divisions within the national house of Israel this book provides us with a nuanced understanding of domestic and political life in ancient Israel Genocide Perspectives VI Nikki Marczak, Kirril Shields, 2020-12-21 Genocide Perspectives VI grapples with two core themes the personal toll of genocide and processes that facilitate the crime From political choices governments and leaders make through to denialism and impunity the crime of genocide recurs again and again across the globe At what cost to individuals and communities What might the legacy of this criminality be This collection of essays examines the personal sacrifice genocide takes from those who live through the trauma and the generations that follow Contributors speak to the way visual art and literature attempt to represent genocide hoping to make sense of problematic histories while also offering a means of reflection after years of slow violence or silenced memories Some authors generously allow us into their own histories or contemplate how they may have experienced genocide had they been born in another time or place What facets contribute to the processes that lead to or enable the crime of genocide This collection explores those processes through a variety of case studies and lenses How do nurses whose role is inherently linked to care and compassion become mass killers How do restrictions on religious freedom play a role in advancing genocidal policies and why do perpetrators of genocide often target religious leaders Why is it so important for Australia and other nations with histories of colonial genocide to acknowledge their past Among the essays published in this volume we have the privilege and the sorrow of publishing the very last essay Professor Colin Tatz wrote before his passing in 2019 His contribution reveals yet again the enormous influence of both his research and his original ideas on genocide He reflects on continuing legacies for Indigenous Australian communities with whom he worked for many decades and adds nuance to contemporary understanding of the Armenian Genocide and the Holocaust two other cases to which he was deeply committed
