Older People and Mental Health Nursing

Rebecca Neno, Barry Aveyard, Hazel Heath, 2008-04-15 Older People and Mental Health Nursing provides an evidence based guide to caring for the growing number of older people with mental health issues. It focuses on the knowledge and key skills which practitioners require to work effectively with older people who have or are at risk of developing mental health needs. Divided into five sections, Older People and Mental Health Nursing first explores the background, historical perspectives and influences on mental health care in later life. It then looks at the ethical and legal issues involved, therapeutic relationships and the values underpinning support and care. Part three focuses on aspects which have traditionally been neglected in mental health care, including culture, religion and sexuality. Part four details specific mental health issues for older people, including delirium, depression and dementia. The final section explores future trends in older people's mental health and offers ideas on how nursing is developing and could develop to address these. Offers a practical evidence based guide to the care of older people with mental health conditions. Includes thought provoking practice examples throughout. Contains guidelines for nursing practice, therapeutic interventions. Includes case studies and reflective scenarios. Written by experts in the field.

Geriatric Nursing Protocols for Best Practice Mathy Doval Mezey, 2003. The protocols in this thoroughly updated edition address key clinical conditions and circumstances likely to be encountered by a hospital nurse caring for older adults. They represent best practices for acute care of the elderly as developed by nursing experts around the country as part of the Hartford Foundation's Nurses Improving Care to the Hospitalized Elderly project. NICHE. New to this edition are chapters on evaluating practice guidelines and measuring quality and outcome of care. Although the protocols were developed for acute care, they can be easily modified to work in other practice settings such as the nursing home or home care.

Nursing Older People at a Glance Josephine Tetley, Nigel Cox, Kirsten Jack, Gary Witham, 2018-02-16. As the environment of care continues to evolve to promote person centredness, dignity, health and wellbeing for nurses working with older people, this can be challenging. Nursing Older People at a Glance is a timely publication which provides an overview of key concepts that nurses need to know in order to care for older people in a wide range of settings. Divided into six sections, it explores a range of themes such as person centred care, health and wellbeing, health promotion and the complexity of older people's care, encompassing mental wellbeing, diverse communities and learning disability. With a strong focus on dignity in care throughout, Nursing Older People at a Glance will readily equip undergraduate and post qualification nurses with the knowledge and skills required to care for older people in a competent and compassionate manner.

Nursing Care of Older People with Diabetes Trisha Dunning, 2005-07-29. Diabetes presents differently in older people and normal ageing processes, predisposition to specific complications and other co-morbid conditions complicate its management. The underlying philosophy of this book is that there are opportunities for prevention, health maintenance and rehabilitation for older people with diabetes which can realistically improve their quality of life. This book is an easy to follow essential guide to providing skilled and effective care for older people with diabetes in community, acute and residential care settings. It aims to provide nurses and other health professionals with the knowledge needed to accurately diagnose treat and care for older people with diabetes It draws upon guidance from the National Service Frameworks for Diabetes and Care of Older People UK and the Department of Human Service Standards Australia and provides an ideal companion to Care of People with Diabetes
