Nvqs In Nursing And Residential Care Homes:

NVQs in Nursing and Residential Care Homes Linda Nazarko, 2006-11-17 People living in nursing and residential care homes are vulnerable to the effects of poor quality care. They rely on staff to assist them with the activities of daily living to help them manage long term conditions and to support them in leading fulfilling lives. Care home staff need to be caring, compassionate and educated. Government now state that at least 50% of care assistants working in care homes must have a National Vocational Qualification NVQ in health and social care at level two or above. This third edition of NVQs in Nursing and Residential Care Homes is fully updated and tailored to the new NVQ syllabus. It is written specifically for care assistants working in care homes who are studying for NVQ level two in health and social care and also provides a solid foundation for higher levels. Care assistants working with the older person in home care, intermediate care and hospital settings will also find this book helpful. It contains accessible and practical information to enable care assistants to provide sensitive, high quality care to the older person. Dementia Care Training Manual for Staff Working in Nursing and Residential Settings

Danny Walsh, 2006-06-26 This interactive resource book encourages front line staff working with dementia sufferers to examine their working practice and modify it to meet best practice guidelines. Packed with photocopiable exercises, discussion points and questions, this training manual provides a framework for care work in line with statutory requirements and standards. End of Life in Care Homes Jeanne Samson Katz, Sheila M. Peace, 2003-04-03 In our society the overwhelming majority of people die in later life. They typically die slowly of chronic diseases with multiple co-existing problems over long periods of time. They spend the majority of their final years at home but many will die in hospitals or care homes. This book explores the possibilities for improving the care of older people dying in residential care and nursing homes. It argues that there are aspects of palliative care that given the right circumstances are transferable to dying people in settings that are not domestic or hospice based. End of Life in Care Homes describes what happens in nursing and residential care homes when a resident is dying, how carers cope and the practical health and emotional challenges that carers face on top of their day to day work. Based on detailed research from both the UK and US, the book shows how the situation can be improved.

NVQs in Nursing and Residential Homes Linda Nazarko, 1996-01-17 Over one million older people are cared for in nursing and residential homes. The last decade has witnessed a significant change in the level and quality of care provided in these settings. The provision of a higher standard of care combined with an increase in the number of elderly people requiring support has contributed to the development in the role of care assistants. NVQs in Nursing and Residential Homes has been specifically written for care assistants studying for NVQ Level II and will provide a sound foundation for higher levels. It contains accessible and practical information to enable carers to face and meet the challenges of caring for older people. Nursing in Care Homes Linda Nazarko, 2009-02-12 Nursing in Care Homes is a practical guide for nurses of all levels working in care homes. It is directly relevant to everyday practice and covers clinical issues such as continence care wound care infection control and nutrition as well as information on a wide range of issues including legal requirements care home standards and liaising with social and health care services The revised and updated second edition includes new chapters on maximising abilities risk management stroke and diabetes and calls upon the recommendations of the National Service Framework for Older People and the requirements of the Care Standards Act 2002 Concise and easy to follow Nursing in Care Homes is an essential guide to skilled professional care for all nurses in care homes It will also be invaluable to nursing students undertaking their placements in care homes

End of Life Care Great Britain. National Audit Office,2008 This National Audit Office report finds that some people approaching the end of their life receive a high quality service but that there is room for improved coordination between health and social care services in planning and delivering end of life care The provision of end of life care is becoming increasingly complex with people living longer and the incidence of frailty and multiple conditions in older people rising Information on peoples wishes is often not captured or shared and a lack of services to support them at home may lead to unplanned and unwanted admissions to hospital In 2006 07 estimated expenditure on specialist palliative care varied considerably between PCTs from 154 to 1 684 per person who died While there are no complete data on the total cost of end of life care NAO estimate the cost of caring for the 27 per cent of people who die from cancer is 1 8 billion in the last year of their life The majority of people approaching the end of their life wish to be cared for outside of hospital so reducing the amount of time they spend there unnecessarily could make resources available to support these people more effectively in their preferred place of care Frontline staff often lack training in delivering basic end of life care Only 29 per cent of doctors and 18 per cent of nurses received pre registration training in end of life care and there is a lack of formal training for staff working in care homes Positive experiences of care were often linked to being treated by staff who understood appreciated and empathised with the end of life situation

Oxford Textbook of Old Age Psychiatry Tom Denning, Alan Thomas, 2013-09-26. Broad in scope and with global appeal. The Oxford Textbook of Old Age Psychiatry second edition is the definitive resource on old age psychiatry. It comprehensively provides the latest knowledge on the science and practice of treating later life mental disorders, focusing on the health and social issues that arise around ageing, dementia, co-morbidity, dependency and the end of life in progressively ageing societies across the world. Published in previous incarnations as the much-loved Psychiatry in the Elderly, this core resource for all old age psychiatrists, trainees and other clinical professionals treating older people's mental health has been fully revised, updated and significantly expanded. Twelve months' inclusive access to the online version, including the full text which can be browsed by the contents list, index or searched links from references to external sources via PubMed, ISI and CrossRef, and the ability to download all figures and illustrations into PowerPoint, ensures that it remains the leading text on old age psychiatry in the field. Maintaining the classic combination of comprehensive coverage, clear writing style and the provision of authoritative and up-to-date information from earlier editions, this highly respected volume covers the underpinning basic science, both the neurobiological and social varieties, clinical practice and specific disorders, as well as providing information on psychiatric services for older people and medico-legal and ethical issues that often present hard challenges for those treating older patients. Taking a global approach by highlighting both the common burdens and the differences in management from country to country, and with a much expanded cast of contributors providing a truly international perspective, the Oxford Textbook of Old Age Psychiatry second edition includes information on all the latest improvements and changes in the field. New chapters are included to reflect the development of old age care, covering palliative care, the ethics of caring and living and dying with dementia. Existing chapters have also been revised and updated throughout, and additional information is included on brain stimulation therapies, memory clinics and services and capacity, which now includes all mental capacity and decision making. Providing extensive coverage and written by experts in the field, the second edition of the Oxford Textbook of Old Age Psychiatry is an essential resource no old age psychiatrist trainee or anyone working in the field of mental health care for older people should be without a copy on their bookshelf Nursing Care and the Activities of Living Ian Peate, 2010-01-19 This book gives a practical focus to the underpinning theory of nursing in order to help students through the academic part of their undergraduate course as well as their placement The book is based on the activities of living model so each activity has its own chapter allowing readers to dip in and out It is essential reading for students enabling them to understand and manage the many clinical issues they face on a daily basis when nursing adults on wards in clinics and in the community setting

Re-evaluating Residential Care Sheila M. Peace, Leonie A. Kellaher, Dianne M. Willcocks, 1997 The authors of this timely book set out to answer this pressing question and offer an explanation as to what makes older people give up their homes Residential care homes provide accommodation for over 300 000 older people in the UK the majority of whom are in their mid eighties More than a quarter of the population over eighty five live in institutional settings most of them in residential care homes Market Research in Health and Social Care Mike Luck, Rob Pocock, Mike Tricker, 2003-09-02 The shift to managed markets has meant that whilst planners and purchasers of health and social services seek information on needs managers who provide these services seek information on performance and response Market research contributes to both This text is a comprehensive and rigorous introduction to the relevance planning and management of market research in the areas of health and social care that have developed in Britain and most other industrialised countries It features an explanation of how managed markets provide the context for market research a comprehensive guide to choosing the appropriate survey method recommendations for commissioning monitoring and implementing results practical advice on producing successful student projects a comparative international perspective Intended for managers and students of public sector management and marketing this outstanding book contains instruction on research methods practical advice for managers and professionals on how to commission monitor and implement the results of market research and an excellent selection of case studies BTEC National Care Neil Moonie, Mark Walsh, 2003 This textbook covers the content of the

BTEC National care course t contains 12 units and advice and guidance on completion of the IVA The A-Z of Careers and Jobs Kogan Page Editorial, 2018-05-03 From accountant to zoologist this new edition of The A Z of Careers and Jobs is your one stop guide for insightful guidance on more than 300 different career areas in the UK This book is a quick and informative way to find out about what jobs and careers are out there from traditional roles to brand new opportunities in the digital world For those looking for their first job after school or university or for anyone considering a change of career this book provides reliable and up to date advice on a wide range of professions to help you choose the right path for you The A Z of Careers and Jobs covers the practical issues you need to understand such as the extent of job opportunities in each industry what personal skills are needed what experience is required entry qualifications training as well as typical earnings and starting salaries In an ever more competitive and changing job market information will help maximize your chances of success This book is designed to help identify what personal strengths fit to what kinds of work what skills you should highlight on a CV and what you need to know about each job The A Z of Careers and Jobs is also a valuable resource for careers advisers working in schools colleges and universities who need to keep track of new developments such as new roles and routes of entry professional associations and exams to offer the very best guidance to today s job hunters Resources in Education ,1996-05

Death, Dying and Bereavement Donna Dickenson,Malcolm Johnson,Jeanne Katz,2000-09-28 The fully revised and updated edition of this bestselling collection combines academic research with professional and personal reflections Death Dying and Bereavement addresses both the practical and the more metaphysical aspects of death Topics such as new methods of pain relief guidelines for breaking bad news and current attitudes to euthanasia are considered while the mystery of death and its wider implications are also explored A highly distinctive interdisciplinary approach is adopted including perspectives from literature theology sociology and psychology There are wide ranging contributions from those who come into professional contact with death and bereavement doctors nurses social wo

Oxford Handbook of Geriatric Medicine Lesley Bowker,James Price,Sarah Smith,2012-08-09 In an ageing population geriatric medicine has become central to general practice and to emergency and general internal medicine in the hospital setting Diseases are more common in the older person and can be particularly difficult to assess and to treat effectively in a field that has limited evidence yet makes up a substantial proportion of the work of most clinicians Fully updated this second edition of the Oxford Handbook of Geriatric Medicine includes all the information required to deliver effective geriatric care Guidance is given on a range of key treatment areas indicating where practice differs from that of younger adults or is ill informed by evidence where dangers lurk for the inexperienced clinician and on the many ethical and clinical dilemmas common in geriatric practice This accessible handbook is essential reading for all junior doctors and specialist trainees in geriatric medicine and general internal medicine and for all medical and nursing staff who manage older people
