Fighting at the Legal Boundaries Kenneth Watkin OMM, CD, QC, 2016-05-03 The international law governing armed conflict is at a crossroads as the formal framework of laws designed to control the exercise of self defense and conduct of inter state conflict finds itself confronted with violent 21st Century disputes of a very different character Military practitioners who seek to stay within the bounds of international law often find themselves applying bodies of law IHRL IHL ICL in an exclusionary fashion and adherence to those boundaries can lead to a formal and often rigid application of the law that does not adequately address contemporary security challenges Fighting at the Legal Boundaries offers a holistic approach towards the application of the various constitutive parts of international law The author focuses on the interaction between the applicable bodies of law by exploring whether their boundaries are improperly drawn or are being interpreted in too rigid a fashion Emphasis is placed on the disconnect that can occur between theory and practice regarding how these legal regimes are applied and interact with one another Through a number of case studies Fighting at the Legal Boundaries explores how the threat posed by insurgents terrorists and transnational criminal gangs often occurs not only at the point where these bodies of law interact but also in situations where there is significant overlap In this regard the exercise of the longstanding right of States to defend nationals including the conduct of operations such as hostage rescue can involve the application of human rights based law enforcement norms to counter threats transcending the conflict spectrum This book has five parts Part I sets out the security legal and operational challenges of contemporary conflict Part II focuses on the interaction between the jus ad bellum humanitarian law and human rights including an analysis of the historical influences that shaped their application as separate bodies of law Emphasis is placed on the influence the proper authority principle has had in the human rights based approach being favored when dealing with criminal non State actors during both international and non international armed conflict Part III analyzes the threats of insurgency and terrorism and the state response This includes exploring their link to criminal activity and the phenomenon of transnational criminal organizations Part IV addresses the conduct of operations against non State actors that span the conflict spectrum from inter state warfare to international law enforcement Lastly Part V looks at the way ahead and discusses the approaches that can be applied to address the evolving diverse and unique security threats facing the international community

Fighting at the Legal Boundaries Kenneth Watkin, 2016 Fighting at the Legal Boundaries offers a holistic approach towards the application of the various constitutive parts of international law The author focuses on the interaction between the applicable bodies of law by exploring whether their boundaries are improperly drawn or are being interpreted in too rigid a fashion Emphasis is placed on the disconnect that can occur between theory and practice regarding how these legal regimes are applied and interact with one another Through a number of case studies Fighting at the Legal Boundaries explores how the threat posed by insurgents terrorists and transnational criminal gangs often occurs not only at the point where these bodies of law interact but also in situations where there is significant overlap In this regard the exercise of the longstanding right of States to defend nationals including the conduct of operations such as hostage rescue can involve the application of human rights based law enforcement norms to counter threats transcending the conflict spectrum

Methods of Resolving Conflicts between Treaties Seyed-Ali Sadat-Akhavi, 2021-10-18 Despite the theoretical and practical importance of the question of conflict between treaties little has been written on the subject This monograph fills this gap by providing a detailed analysis of the main issues The book is divided into three parts The first deals with the definition of conflict causes of conflict and different types of conflict The second part examines different sources of international law in order to identify rules of international law relating to the resolution of conflicts The third part addresses the actual process of resolving conflicts between treaties After describing different stages of treaty conflict resolution it discusses some special principles advanced for resolving conflicts between certain types of treaties namely those relating to the protection of human rights those concerning dispute settlement and treaties dealing with private law issues Post-conflict Administrations in International Law Eric de Brabandere, 2009-04-24 The concept of international administrations of territory in which comprehensive administrative powers are exercised by on behalf of or with the agreement of the United Nations has recently re emerged in the context of reconstructing parts of states after conflict Although in Kosovo and East Timor the UN was endowed with wide ranging executive and legislative powers in the subsequent operations in Afghanistan it was decided to principally rely on local capacity with minimal international participation and in Iraq administrative power was exercised by the occupying powers The objectives are however very similar This work first delineates the origins of the granting of administrative functions to international actors and analyses the context in which it has resurfaced namely post conflict peace building or reconstruction Secondly the book methodically establishes the legal framework applicable to post conflict administrations and peace building operations by taking into account the post conflict scenario in which they operate Based on these two analyses an enquiry into the practice of the reconstruction processes in Kosovo East Timor Afghanistan and Iraq is undertaken to analyse and understand the influence of the international legal framework and the different approaches on the implementation of the mandates Finally the book concludes with an analysis of questions on exit strategies local ownership the internationalisation of domestic institutions and the need for a comprehensive approach towards post conflict reconstruction Conflict of Laws in the People's Republic of China Zheng Sophia Tang, Yongping Xiao, Zhengxin Huo, 2016-07-27 The area of conflict of laws in China has undergone fundamental development in the past three decades and the most recent changes in the 2010s regarding both jurisdiction and choice of law rules mark the establishment of a modern Chinese conflicts system Jointly written by three professors from both China and the UK this book provides the most up to date and comprehensive analysis of Chinese conflict of laws in civil and commercial matters covering jurisdiction choice of law procedure judgment and awards recognition and enforcement and interregional conflicts in China Legitimacy in EU Cartel Control Ingeborg

Simonsson, 2010-02-23 This book examines the law developed by the EU to control cartels The law including case law is carefully documented and analysed against a standard of legitimacy which questions the EU's enforcement measures its institutional structures policy choices substantive law evidentiary standards and procedures and sanctions It includes a unique catalogue of over 150 EU cartel decisions as well as novel analyses of difficult borderline issues such as mixed horizontal and vertical cartels single brand dealer cartels and buyer cartels The effect on trade in cartel cases is analysed with reference to established law and deterrence theory Throughout the book the author asks whether EU law also applies at the national level or whether certain assessments need to be made according to national law This approach makes the book particularly helpful for national authorities courts and private practitioners The book includes in depth comparisons with US law as well as a comprehensive survey of the secondary academic literature on cartels As such it presents not only a comprehensive practical view but also a sound theoretical framework for better understanding cartel law This is a work which will be of utmost importance to those working in competition authorities and competition courts in the EU Member States as well as those working for EU institutions and in private practice and academia
