Getting Started Lori Strumpf,1993 Adult Literacy Robert Edward Campbell,1987 The Essential Hyland Ken Hyland,2018-01-25 Writing in the academy has assumed huge importance in recent years as countless students and academics around the world must now gain fluency in the conventions of academic writing in English to understand their disciplines to establish their careers or to successfully navigate their learning Professor Ken Hyland has been a contributor to the literature on this topic for over 20 years with 26 books and over 200 chapters and articles This work has had considerable influence in shaping the direction of the field and generating papers and PhD theses from researchers around the world This is a topic which has found its time as a central concept in applied linguistics sociology of science library studies bibliometrics and so on This book brings together Ken Hyland s most influential and cited papers These are organised thematically to provide both an introduction to the study of academic discourse and an overview of his contribution to the understanding of how academics construct themselves their disciplines and knowledge through written texts Several academic celebrities from the field provide a brief commentary on the papers and the book includes an overall reflection by the author on the impact of the papers and the direction of the field together with linear notes on the specific papers in each section The volume not only includes some of Hyland s best chapters and journal articles but the thoughts of disciplinary luminaries on both the ideas in the book and the general state and direction of the field Other Floors, Other Voices, Twentieth Anniversary Edition John M. Swales, 2018-04-10 John Swales textography might also be called comparative rhetoric in a small building offering proof once again that another culture may be only a trip up or down a flight of stairs such an appealing and original book BAAL News Originally published in 1998 Other Floors Other Voices uses texts to capture the lives of three communities operating within a single building the North University Building or NUBS on the University of Michigan campus Swales thoughtful exploration of the three units the Computer Resource Site the University Herbarium botany and the English Language Institute centers around the individuals who work on each floor and the discourse related activities they engage in The Twentieth Anniversary Edition of Other Floors Other Voices includes a new preface an introductory essay on the value of rereading this volume many years after publication and an epilogue that reflects on and reveals what has happened to the three units in the past 20 years Other Floors, Other Voices John M. Swales, 2013-11-05 The author describes this volume as a textography because it combines certain elements of both text analysis and ethnography Through analysis of texts textual forms and systems of texts it shows the lives life commitments and life projects of people deeply embedded in the literate culture of the university. The people examined work in a single building but their textual lives are maintained in different times and spaces measured by the dimensions of text production and text circulation in their fields of work These domains of text time and space are to some degree differentiated by the three specialties that mark the three floors of a small building at a major research university the ethnographic site of this journey into textual lives computing taxonomic botany and English as a second language This research site provides the opportunity to re examine the concept of discourse community and to investigate the nature and origination of academic discourse from a new perspective The author is a distinctive member of the applied linguistics and composition communities an original stamped by the global village of language education in which he has lived his life and revealed in his own autobiographical account embedded within this book This book now reveals him as a person making text about how people are embedded in making their textual lives within the discursive landscapes their communities afford In doing so he shows not only his own love of language as a way of life but also his appreciation of how all his subjects find their labors of love in the language they create This book has been written to appeal to a general academic audience as well as to specialists in rhetoric discourse analysis and composition
