part of a course Preparing the Next Generation of Teacher Educators for Clinical Practice Diane Yendol-Hoppey, Nancy Fichtman Dana, David T. Hoppey, 2019-07-01 Today in many contexts the lack of attention to preparing the next generation of teacher educators as well as having a critical mass of faculty who understand the current teacher education research problem lingers Although the NCATE Blue Ribbon Panel Report 2010 the recent advent of the CAEP standards and the new AACTE Clinical Practice Commission Report 2017 challenge those responsible for teacher preparation to rethink the design as well as their work within clinical practice there is much too little discussion about how to prepare the next generation of teacher educators to work differently Just like Zeichner found almost 20 years ago teacher education still too often remains a tangential concern for most and the major concern of only a few Zeichner 1999 p 11 These concerns raise important questions for those who are currently responsible for pivoting reinventing and researching teacher preparation This book offers insights from teacher education researchers that illustrate the ongoing benefits and persistent challenges of educating and preparing university and school based teacher educators This is an important step in understanding the complex roles practices and responsibilities associated with high quality teacher education that emphasizes clinical practice

Professional Development in Online Teaching and Learning in Technical Communication Beth L. Hewett, Tiffany Bourelle, 2020-05-18 Technical communication instructors need professional development opportunities that will aid them in creating their online courses in developing curricula and in teaching in what may be a new environment Although instructors can turn to instructional design teams for assistance in using Learning Management System and its functions they specifically need their own first hand immersive learning within their pedagogical training In other words teachers need to learn in an online context like the environment that their students will use such direct training helps instructors to facilitate student learning in a technologically distributed classroom Beyond learning technological skills to facilitate a course these teachers need to learn to use the technology effectively to keep students on track and to teach them skills and material This collection which includes three contributions from 2007 and 10 from 2017 focuses on the types of professional development instructors need to be successful in the online technical communication classroom Formed as a 10 year retrospective of the field and its advances in online education professional development the book offers instructors theoretical and practical suggestions for creating and teaching successful online courses and managing entire online technical communication programs This book was originally published as a special issue of Technical Communication Quarterly TCQ Evaluating a Course Ian Forsyth, Alan Jolliffe, David Stevens, 1999 Clearly structured and illustrated with tables charts and figures to help educators come to terms with how best to evaluate a course this text provides tips intended to make course evaluation easy clearly demonstrating the place of different types of assessment in education
