 Ron Van Houten, Saul Axelrod, 2013-11-22 In May 1986 the Association for Behavior Analysis ABA established a task force on the right to effective behavioral treatment The mandate of this task force was to identify and delineate specific rights as they apply to behavioral treatment Impetus for this project came in part from the controversy over the use of aversive procedures which some held had no place in treatment and with evolution of the treatment process were no longer necessary In con trast others cited evidence that programs based on positive reinforcement alone were sometimes not effective in treating severe problems These re searchers and practitioners desired to ensure that clients and guardians be permitted to choose treatments that included punishment procedures when assessments warranted their use The first editor approached Ogden Lindsley president of ABA about establishing a task force to examine this isuse The ABA council decided to broaden the mandate to include an examination of clients right to effective behavioral treatment in general The first editor was asked to chair the task force and appointed Saul Axelrod Jon S Bailey Judith E Favell Richard M Foxx and O Ivar Lovaas as members knowledge of teacher education broadly by providing an in depth look at the most up to date research on special education teacher preparation Opening chapters ground the collection in political and economic context while subsequent sections delve deeply into issues related to the current state of our special education workforce and offer insights into how to best prepare and sustain that workforce Ultimately by illuminating the particularities of special education teacher preparation this landmark handbook addresses the state of current research in the field and sets an agenda for future scholarship
