Wood, 2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book's first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book

Kagan, 2002 Setting aside the pastiche of bullfighters and flamenco dancers that has dominated the U S image of Spain for more than a century this innovative volume uncovers the roots of Spanish studies to explain why the diversity vitality and complexity of Spanish history and culture have been reduced in U S accounts to the equivalent of a tourist brochure Spurred by the complex colonial relations between the United States and Spain the new field of Spanish studies offered a way for the young country to reflect a positive image of itself as a democracy in contrast with perceived Spanish intolerance and closure Spain in America investigates the political and historical forces behind this duality surveying the work of the major nineteenth century U S Hispanists in the fields of history art history literature and music A distinguished panel of contributors offers fresh examinations of the role of U S writers especially Washington Irving and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow in crafting a wildly romantic vision of Spain They examine the views of such scholars as William H Prescott and George Ticknor who contrasted the failure of Spanish history with U S exceptionalism Other essays explore how U S interests in Latin America consistently colored its vision of Spain and how musicology in the United States dominated by German migrants relegated Spanish music to little more than a footnote Also included are profiles of the philanthropist Archer Mitchell Huntington and the pioneering art historians Georgiana Goddard King and Arthur Kingsley Porter who spearheaded U S interest in the architecture and sculpture of medieval Spain Providing a much needed look at the development and history of Hispanism Spain in America opens the way toward confronting and modifying reductive views of Spain that are frozen in another time
