Living in the Presence Benjamin Epstein, 2020-01-02 In our frantic fast paced society we need constant guidance to remind us that we can only find the peace of mind we sorely lack by looking inward Judaism like many other spiritual traditions offers a unique path to cultivating fulfillment and presence of mind In cultivating peace of mind we do not aim to achieve transcendence Rather our goal is to enter fully into whatever is occurring in our lives and meet it with full presence But being a better Jew and a happier person are not mutually exclusive On the contrary they are mutually interdependent From the moment we wake to the moment we fall asleep biblical commandments provide us with guidelines that encourage us to be aware of the present moment A Guide to Jewish Mindfulness provides concise and clear instructions on how to cultivate peace of mind in order to attain a life of greater commitment and inspiration for the present moment The Only Little Prayer You Need Engle, Debra Landwehr, 2014-10-01 We need to encourage an understanding that inner peace comes from relying on human values like love compassion tolerance and honesty and that peace in the world relies on individuals finding inner peace His Holiness the Dalai Lama These six words please heal my fear based thoughts change lives In this brief and inspiring book based on Engle's study of A Course in Miracles she explains how to use the prayer and experience immediate benefits being less irritable more patient laughing more feeling like you have more time more energy worrying less making decisions more easily saying no without guilt A typical prayer goes something like this Please help us find the money to pay our mortgage this month Saying the prayer may help you feel like the burden of that month's mortgage has been lifted but the part of you that feeds on fear will simply seek out new financial worries to keep you awake at night Old patterns remain intact In contrast asking Please heal my fear based thoughts about our mortgage lifts the burden AND relieves the need to re-create that fear and hold onto it This prayer heals your very desire for burdens your addiction to fear based thoughts freeing you to live without that fear and with greater peace of mind As a result your financial situation is also free to improve That's what makes it so different One Facebook fan told Engle The most blessed aspect of this prayer is all the open space it creates for peace I never knew how many fear based thoughts were clogging up in me until this prayer
