Brandão, Franklim Morais, Isabel Cristina Carvalho, José P. Duarte, Nicolau Brandão, 2023-11-17 This book contains a set of essays on the teaching of Architecture and Urbanism written by university professors and researchers from several countries It argues that the teaching of architecture and urbanism is in a state of crisis architecture seems unable to respond to current problems and urbanism seems incapable of fulfilling the needs of a more balanced society and its built environment including the human right to housing The book comprises historical analyses systematization of concepts manifestos and social evaluations and above all an alignment of new objectives curricular plans and pedagogical methodologies Future Cities Paul Dobraszczyk, 2025-03-15 Brings together architecture fiction film and visual art to reconnect the imaginary city with the real proposing a future for humanity that is firmly grounded in the present and the diverse creative practices already at our fingertips Though reaching ever further toward the skies today's cities are overshadowed by multiple threats climate change overpopulation social division and urban warfare all endanger our metropolitan way of life The fundamental tool we use to make sense of these uncertain city futures is the imagination Architects artists filmmakers and fiction writers have long been inspired to imagine cities of the future but their speculative visions tend to be seen very differently from scientific predictions flights of fancy on the one hand versus practical reasoning on the other In a digital age when the real and the fantastic coexist as near equals it is especially important to know how these two forces are entangled and how together they may help us best conceive of cities yet to come Exploring a breathtaking range of imagined cities submerged floating flying vertical underground ruined and salvaged Future Cities teases out the links between speculation and reality arguing that there is no clear separation between the two In the Netherlands prototype floating cities are already being built

Sustaining Cities Linda Krause,2012-12-14 What has happened to cities after the global economic recession Sustaining Cities answers this question by explaining how failed governmental policies contributed to urban problems and offering best practices for solving them From social scientists and urban planners to architects and literary and film critics the authors of this unique collection suggest real responses to this crisis Could the drastic declines in housing markets have been avoided Yes if we reframe our housing values Do you want to attract corporate investment to your town You might want to think twice about doing so The extinction of the Celtic Tiger may be charted in statistics but the response in popular Irish mystery novels is much more compelling China while not immune to market vicissitudes still booms but at a considerable cost to its urban identities Whether constructing a sustainable social framework for Mexican mega cities or a neighborhood in London these nine essays consider some strikingly similar strategies And perhaps as the contributors suggest it s time to look beyond the usual boundaries of urban suburban and exurban to forge new links among these communities that will benefit all citizens Accessible to anyone with an interest in how cities cope today Sustaining Cities presents a cautionary tale with a hopeful ending

The Figure of Knowledge Sebastiaan Loosen,Rajesh Heynickx,Hilde Heynen,2020-10-01 It is a major challenge to write the history of post WWII architectural theory without boiling it down to a few defining paradigms An impressive anthologising effort during the 1990s charted architectural theory mostly via the various theoretical frameworks employed such as critical theory critical regionalism deconstructivism and pragmatism Yet the intellectual contours of what constitutes architectural theory have been constantly in flux It is therefore paramount to ask what kind of knowledge has become important in the recent history of architectural theory and how the resulting figure of knowledge sets the conditions for the actual arguments made The contributions in this volume focus on institutional geographical rhetorical and other conditioning factors They thus screen the unspoken rules of engagement that postwar architectural theory ascribed to
