Urban and Architectural Heritage Conservation within Sustainability Dr. Kabila Hmood, 2019-07-03 Urban and Architectural Heritage within Sustainability is interested in the cities of the future which must tie together the past present and future through an advanced connective chain that meets all humans requirements in any era This book attempts to answer many questions such as what is urban conservation How do cities of historical depth deal with modern planning policies and our conservation policies rehabilitation restoration and preservation of historical cities and heritage buildings How can we explain sustainable heritage and sustainability Comprised of four sections this book includes six chapters by noted experts and researchers Section 1 covers heritage conservation and rehabilitation of architectural and urban heritage Section 2 investigates current retrofitting strategies and interventions in heritage buildings through the viewpoint of energy efficiency Section 3 redefines what identity is and explores how new places and spaces offer an eyrie of cultural values And Section 4 establishes heritage significant values and assesses sustainable heritage conservation options Present and Futures Ignasi Solà-Morales Rubió, Xavier Costa, Centre de Cultura Contemporània de Barcelona, 1996 Emerging Perspectives on Teaching Architecture and Urbanism David Leite Viana, Emílio da Cruz Brandão, Franklim Moraes, Isabel Cristina Carvalho, José P. Duarte, Nicolau Brandão, 2023-11-17 This book contains a set of essays on the teaching of Architecture and Urbanism written by university professors and researchers from several countries It argues that the teaching of architecture and urbanism is in a state of crisis architecture seems unable to respond to current problems and urbanism seems incapable of fulfilling the needs of a more balanced society and its built environment including the human right to housing The book comprises historical analyses systematization of concepts manifestos and social evaluations and above all an alignment of new objectives curricular plans and pedagogical methodologies Present and Future Paradigms of Cyberculture in the 21st Century Atay, Simber, Kurubacak-Meriç, Gülsün, Sisman-Uğur, Serap, 2020-11-27 Cyberculture is a particularly complex issue It is seen as a fantastic meeting point of classic philosophers with postmodern theorists politicians with community engineers contemporary sophists with software engineers and artists with rhetoricians Today cyberculture is identified highly with new media and digital rhetoric and could be used to create a comprehensive map of modern culture Present and Future Paradigms of Cyberculture in the 21st Century is a comprehensive research publication that explores the influence of the internet and internet culture on society as a whole Highlighting a wide range of topics such as digital media activism and psychology this book is ideal for academicians researchers sociologists psychologists anthropologists and students Architectural Theories of the Environment Ariane Lourie Harrison, 2013-03-05 As architects and designers we struggle to reconcile ever increasing environmental humanitarian and technological demands placed on our projects Our new geological era the Anthropocene marks humans as the largest environmental force on the planet and suggests that conventional anthropocentric approaches to design must accommodate a more complex understanding of the interrelationship between architecture and environment Here for the first time editor Ariane Lourie Harrison collects the essays of architects theorists and sustainable designers that together provide a framework for a posthuman understanding of the design environment An introductory essay defines the key terms concepts and precedents for a posthuman approach to architecture and nine fully illustrated case studies of buildings from around the globe demonstrate how issues raised in posthuman theory provide rich terrain for contemporary architecture making theory concrete By assembling a range of voices across different fields from urban geography to critical theory to design practitioners this anthology offers a resource for design professionals educators and students seeking to grapple the ecological mandate of our current period Case studies include work by Arakawa and Gins Arons en Gelauff Casagrande The Living Minifie van Schaik R Sie n SCAPE Studio Gang and xDesign Essayists include Gilles Cl ment Matthew Gandy Francesco Gonz les de Canales Elizabeth Grosz Simon Guy Seth Harrison N Katherine Hayles Ursula Heise Catherine Ingraham Bruno Latour William J Mitchell Matteo Pasquinelli Erik Swyngedouw Sarah Whatmore Jennifer Wolch Cary Wolfe and Albena Yaneva

Islamic Heritage Architecture IV S. Hernandez, 2022-09-13 Islamic architecture has enriched design with a wide variety of structural shapes including among others unique arches a wide variety of vaults and domes which allow for new forms to be developed This volume deals with the design of many types of buildings in Islamic countries including not only the better known public buildings like mosques mausoleums citadels and forts but also houses and gardens engineering works such as bridges and dams irrigation systems and many others which have also had a profound impact on society There is much to learn from past experiences to arrive at solutions that are environmentally sound and sustainable in the long term As conventional energy resources become scarce the Islamic design heritage can offer invaluable lessons on how to deal in an efficient manner with cases of hard and extreme environments Traditional architecture and urban environments in most Islamic countries are now being eroded by overemphasis on a global type of architecture and city planning Consequently many regions are losing their identity The included research reviews these developments in the light of what the classical Islamic urban designs and architectures have to offer modern society Chicago: Past, Present, Future John Stephen Wright, 1870

Earthen Architecture: Past, Present and Future C. Mileto, F. Vegas, L. García Soriano, V. Cristini, 2014-09-01 Earthen architecture is widespread all over the world and demonstrates a significant richness of varieties both in application and in materials used This book discusses and debates the lessons that can be learned from earthen architecture to create sustainable architecture today both for the conservation of traditional existing buildings and the

,1919 Integrated Architecture Liangyong Wu,2013-12-01 Integrated Architecture is both a historical and contemporary work The book was first published in 1989 by Wu Liangyong one of contemporary China's most influential architects and theoreticians with the title A General Theory on Architecture His eminence is also recognised by the international architectural community above all the group of architectural and urban planning theoreticians battling for a more decisive reform to the concepts methodologies and practices presiding over the construction and requalification of the contemporary metropolis I first met professor Wu Liangyong in 2005 at the Faculty of Architecture at the Tsinghua University of Beijing his Faculty Wu Liangyong founded the school in 1949 at the age of 24 together with Liang Sicheng the father of modern Chinese architectural studies From this moment more than sixty seven years ago professor Liangyong has remained a central figure in Beijing's academic community He remains a constant source of inspiration not only national to education reforms and above all theoretical methodological and operative research into architecture the city and the territory He is a rare figure present throughout a lengthy historical period witness the world over to tumultuous upheavals in society and its cities A period whose most dramatic and exalting manifestations were perhaps to be found in China a period of war of hope of revolutions of great leaps forward of presumptions horrors errors new leaps forward and incomprehensible economic growth of irreversible social and cultural metamorphoses and what interests us most as architects of staggering urban growth and territorial transformations The intellect of this minute and genteel figure held fast against the storms of history The observation of events and the humanist and scientific principles of his personal culture continuously nourished an increasingly more effective reflection on the meaning of architecture in today's world He also clearly saw its inextricable ties to the substance of the city and the impossibility to substitute the figure of the architect scientist humanist and artist A few years after our meeting having absorbed direct lessons from Wu's work as an architect and theoretician I proposed an Italian translation of an anthology of his writings The material was to be drawn from his many books and essays on architecture and the city published continuously over the course of his incomparable career Professor Wu Liangyong responded with a challenge in lieu of this anthology of texts he proposed a full translation in Italian and English of a book published twenty years ago 1989's A General Theory on Architecture Given the pace of cultural debate it would not have been out of place to imagine a book firmly sedimented in history I understood instead that it was a milestone in the expression of Wu Liangyong's ideas a benchmark that in all likelihood served as the starting point for his later theories even the most recent Published in other fundamental essays they range across the vast field of human settlements touching on all components of the man made environment Lucio Valerio Barbera Contested Architectural Pasts and Futures of a Regional City, Geelong, Australia Mirjana Lozanovska,Ursula de Jong,2024-10-03 This collection of essays highlights current debates for cities undergoing urban renewal focussing on regional cities as places that lead change Like many regional cities Geelong is grappling with the legacy of its industrial architectural heritage and identity This in depth study of the city of Geelong examines theories and realities from the speculative to the mundane critical to change pre-empted by deindustrialisation While this book argues that architecture and the built environment are key to urban renewal an intersectional perspective on Geelong as a place raises contested pasts and territories This brings attention to the dispossession of First Nations people by British colonisers as well as the exploitation of immigrant communities in industrial production Informed by positions on design futures decolonising and cultural urbanisms adaptive re-use and the post-industrial city the chapters in this book expand an interdisciplinary field relevant to scholars and practitioners in heritage and conservation urban design community engagement and place making more generally

Splintering Urbanism Steve Graham, Simon Marvin, 2002-09-11 Splintering Urbanism makes an international and interdisciplinary analysis of the complex interactions between infrastructure networks and urban spaces It delivers a new and powerful way of understanding contemporary urban change bringing together discussions about globalization and the city technology and society urban space and urban networks infrastructure and the built environment developed developing and post-communist worlds With a range of case studies illustrations and boxed examples from New York to Jakarta Johannesburg to Manila and Sao Paulo to Melbourne Splintering Urbanism demonstrates the latest social urban and technological theories which give us an understanding of our contemporary metropolis

Urban Landscape Perspectives Giovanni Maciocco, 2008-02-01 Urban Landscape Perspectives explores how landscape terminology can be usefully brought into the urban debate The articles are by scholars who have a particular interest in and experience of the city project at various operative scales They include theoretical reflections on the landscape as an eminently project-like figure The book describes new methods and approaches dealing with the contemporary environment whether it is from the point of view of the city or the landscape

Computer-Aided Architectural Design: The Next City - New Technologies and the Future of the Built Environment Gabriela Celani, David Moreno Sperling, Juarez Moara Santos Franco, 2015-06-15 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 16th International Conference on Computer Aided Architectural Design Futures CAAD Futures 2015 held in S o Paulo Brazil in July 2015 The 33 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 200 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on modeling analyzing and simulating the city sustainability and performance of the built space automated and parametric design building information modelling BIM fabrication and materiality shape studies

Planting New Towns in Europe in the Interwar Years Helen Meller, Heleni Porfyriou, 2016-06-22 The key theme of the papers in this book concerns the prospects of building new urban environments and creating new societies in Europe during the interwar years The contributions do not focus on the system of government communist fascist or democratic but rather on what actually got built by whom and why and how the international communication of ideas was filtered through the prism of local concerns and culture As such the volume serves to tease out connections between urban form and social aspirations and between the moral basis of social planning and how it was interpreted Did the new towns of the interwar years actually create a planned society where visions met realities aided by the design of new urban forms This is one of the principal questions investigated by the contributors here in all the different political contexts of their chosen new towns The Figure of Knowledge Sebastiaan Loosen,Rajesh Heynickx,Hilde Heynen,2020-10-01 It is a major challenge to write the history of post WWII architectural theory without boiling it down to a few defining paradigms An impressive anthologising effort during the 1990s charted architectural theory mostly via the various theoretical frameworks employed such as critical theory critical regionalism deconstructivism and pragmatism Yet the intellectual contours of what constitutes architectural theory have been constantly in flux It is therefore paramount to ask what kind of knowledge has become important in the recent history of architectural theory and how the resulting figure of knowledge sets the conditions for the actual arguments made The contributions in this volume focus on institutional geographical rhetorical and other conditioning factors They thus screen the unspoken rules of engagement that postwar architectural theory ascribed to Journal of the American Institute of Architects American Institute of Architects,1913
