Present Continuous István Bart, 1986      The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers      Hungarian Rhapsodies Richard Teleky, 2011-11-01 Like the renowned American writer Edmund Wilson who began to learn Hungarian at the age of 65 Richard Teleky started his study of that difficult language as an adult Unlike Wilson he is a third generation Hungarian American with a strong desire to understand how his ethnic background has affected the course of his life Exploring my ethnicity he writes became a way of exploring the arbitrary nature of my own life It was not so much a search for roots as for a way of understanding rootlessness how I stacked up against another way of being He writes with clarity perception and humor about a subject of importance to many Americans reconciling their contemporary identity with a heritage from another country From an examination of photographer Andre Kertesz to a visit to a Hungarian American church in Cleveland from a consideration of stereotypical treatment of Hungarians in North American fiction and film to a description of the process of translating Hungarian poetry into English Teleky's interests are wide ranging he concludes with an account of his first visit to Hungary at the end of Soviet rule      Eastern Europe, 1986-1993 Robert H. Burger, Helen F. Sullivan, 1995-12-15 Describing approximately 1 000 books published between 1986 and late 1993 this work provides readers with a selective guide to English language publications on the subject of Eastern Europe It covers general studies of the area as well as works on the individual countries of Albania Bulgaria the former Czechoslovakia the former German Democratic Republic East Germany Hungary Poland Romania and the former Yugoslavia In addition to bibliographic and descriptive information the authors also include citations to book reviews A companion to their Russia and the Former Soviet Union Libraries Unlimited 1994 this volume also focuses on the social sciences and the humanities As interest about this part of the world continues to build and English language publications about it proliferate Burger and Sullivan's guide is a pertinent addition to academic and public library collections      Twentieth-century Eastern European Writers Steven Serafin, 1999 Essays on writers from Albania Czech Republic Estonia Hungary Latvia Lithuania Poland Romania and Slovakia Discusses authors who played significant roles in the growth development and preservation of their respective literatures during an extraordinarily inventive and creative time period As many of these authors had limited exposure in the West these essays provide a comprehensive understanding and appreciation of Eastern Europe and its literary tradition      Frommer's Budapest and Best of Hungary Joseph Leiber, 1995-09
