Andrew Jackson* ,2015-07-08 Excerpt from Addresses on the Presentation of the Sword of Gen Andrew Jackson To the Congress of the United States Delivered in the Senate and House of Representatives February 26 1855 This is neither the time nor the place to portray those great traits Of character which gave to General J ack son the ascendancy that no man ever denied who approached him and that wonderful in uence with his countrymen which marked almost his whole course from his entrance upon a public career till the grave closed upon his life and his labors and left him to that equality which the mighty and the lowly must find at last Still from my personal and Official relations with him and I trust I may add from his friendship towards me Of which I had many proofs I cannot withhold the acknowledgment Of the impression which his high qual ities made upon me and which becomes more lasting and profound as time is doing its work Of separation from the days Of my intercourse with him About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
