Special libraries are facing increasing challenges today The biggest challenge before them is how to demonstrate that they are the best source of specialized information despite reliance on the web for information Special libraries therefore need to change in terms of their collections roles services and evolve strategies for managing the change Preservation refers to the set of activities that aims to prolong the life of a record and relevant metadata or enhance its value or improve access to it through noninterventive means This includes actions taken to influence records creators prior to selection and acquisition The purpose of preservation is to ensure protection of information of enduring value for access by present and future generations Libraries and archives have served as the central institutional focus for preservation and both types of institutions include preservation as one of their core functions In recent decades many major libraries and archives have established formal preservation programs for traditional materials which include regular allocation of resources for preservation preventive measures to arrest deterioration of materials remedial measures to restore the usability of selected materials and the incorporation of preservation needs and requirements into overall program planning This book attempts to provide all basic aspects of digital library in an authentic but simple style It describes the revolutionary changes brought out by digital libraries in the entire concept of library organisation managements and operations It also discusses the challenges emerging due to the adoption of newer technologies Preparing for the Worst, Planning for the Best: Protecting our Cultural Heritage from Disaster Johanna G. Wellheiser, Nancy E. Gwinn, 2011-10-25 In July 2003 a special IFLA conference was held in Berlin devoted to the preparedness of library collections in the face of man made disasters conflict war and or natural disasters earthquakes floods hurricanes A panel of international experts discussed these issues and exchanged views Papers focused on both national policy planning and on the institutional level with an emphasis on what has been shown to work on the basis of practical experience in libraries and other sectors In addition case studies on a worldwide scale are presented This book contains the proceedings of that conference Preparing a Historic Preservation Plan Bradford J. White, Richard J. Roddewig, 1994 The surge in local interest in historic preservation laws has been accompanied by a new wave of planning for the preservation and protection of historic resources This report examines the 10 essential elements of a good preservation plan The authors explain the legal justification for historic preservation and the pitfalls that one can encounter when drafting a plan Case studies show how various communities have modified these elements to fit individual
