Pressure Groups The Permissive Society:

Pressure Groups and the Permissive Society Bridget Pym, 1974      Pressure Groups Duncan Watts, 2007-04-04 Pressure Groups are an increasingly important feature of the political landscape and they are active on many levels local national or European They reflect a diverse compass of interests from the well known the National Farmers Union to the less familiar the Zip Fastener Association and interact with a wide range of political players in different parts of the political system parties the media government and parliament They are involved at every stage of the political process from raising issues and agenda setting to policy implementation and monitoring      Morality and the Market (Routledge Revivals) N. Craig Smith, 2014-11-13 Can businesses abandon the axiom that the customer is always right when consumers start questioning the ethics of business practices Professor Craig Smith examines the theory and practice of ethical purchase behaviour a crucial mechanism for ensuring social responsibility in business He explains how and why consumers have used their purchasing power to influence corporate policies and practices He argues the case for the social control of business drawing on perspectives from marketing economics politics sociology and business policy He concludes that the market may act as an arbiter of good and bad business practice Dr Smith considers the practical aspects of ethical purchase behaviour focusing on consumer boycotts as a specific form of this consumer behaviour and explains how boycotted businesses should respond This title first published in 1990 is ideal for both business students and those who have a business of their own      NGOs in Contemporary Britain N. Crowson, M. Hilton, J. McKay, 2009-04-22 Examining the history of social movements and non state socio political action this volume shows how Non Governmental Organisations NGOs have proliferated in Britain since 1945 and how they have raised new political agendas revived associational life and arguably re politicized generations disillusioned with the politics of the ballot box      The Politics of the Rope Neville Twitchell, 2012 The campaign to abolish capital punishment 1955 1969      Outside Lobbying Kenneth Kollman, 2020-11-10 In Outside Lobbying Ken Kollman explores why and when interest group leaders in Washington seek to mobilize the public in order to influence policy decisions in Congress In the past political scientists have argued that lobbying groups make outside appeals primarily because of their own internal dynamics to recruit new members for example Kollman however grants a more important role to the need for interest group leaders to demonstrate popular support on particular issues He interviewed more than ninety interest group leaders and policy makers active on issues ranging from NAFTA to housing for the poor While he concludes that group leaders most often appeal to the public when they perceive that their stand has widespread popular support he also shows that there are many important and revealing exceptions to this pattern Kollman develops his theory of outside lobbying through a combination of rational choice modeling and statistical tests that compare public opinion data with data from his interviews about interest groups policy positions and activities The tests reveal that group leaders use outside lobbying to take advantage of pre existing public preferences not to recruit members or to try to generate the mere appearance of grass roots support Kollman's innovative book will clarify the complex relationship among lobbying public opinion and public policy and will set a new standard for interest group research Whitehouse Michael Tracey, David Morrison, 1979-11-08

Between the late 1950s and mid 1970s British cinema experienced an explosion of X-certified films. In parallel with an era marked by social, political, and sexual ferment and upheaval, British filmmakers and censors pushed and guarded the permissible limits of violence, horror, revolt, and sexuality on screen. Adult Themes is the first volume entirely devoted to the exploration of British X-certificate films across this transformative period since identified as the long 1960s. How did the British Board of Film Censors, harried on one side by the censorious and moralistic and beset on the other by demands for greater artistic freedom, oversee and manage this provocative body of films? How did the freedoms and restrictions of the X-certificate hasten, determine, and reshape post-war British cinema into an artistic, exploitative, and unapologetically adult medium? Contributors to this collection consider these central questions as they take us to swinging parties, on youthful crime sprees, into local council meetings, on police raids of cinemas and around Soho strip clubs, and introduce us to mass murderers, lesbian vampires, apoplectic protestors, eroticised middle-aged women, and rebellious working-class men. Adult Themes examines both the workings and negotiations of British film censorship, the limits of artistic expression, and a wider culture of X-certificate cinema. This is an important volume for students and scholars of British Film History and censorship, Media Studies, the 1960s, and Cultural and Sexuality Studies, while simultaneously an entertaining read for all connoisseurs of British cinema at its most vivid and scandalous.

The 1960s were a time of explosive change and innovation in the Christian churches as well as of charismatic leaders like Pope John XXIII and Martin Luther King. Using oral history, Hugh McLeod explains what happened to religion in the 1960s, why it happened, and how the events of that decade shaped the rest of the 20th century.

conducted that Sir Louis has found the most important outlet for his abundant talents His creativity his powers of analysis his understanding and ability to relate to the public have again and again been called on by the government of the day and other institutions both in this country and abroad when matters of great public concern have arisen All the distinguished contributors to this Festschrift have known and esteemed Sir Louis in one or more of his multifarious capacities They and the editors dedicate this volume to this remarkable man with their admiration and warm affection      Queer London Matt Houlbrook,2005-09-03 Cyril s story is Matt Houlbrook s point of entry into the queer worlds of early twentieth century London Drawing on previously unknown sources from police reports and newspaper exposes to personal letters diaries and the first queer guidebook ever written Houlbrook here explores the relationship between queer sexualities and modern urban culture that we take for granted today He revisits the diverse queer lives that took hold in London s parks and streets its restaurants pubs and dancehalls and its Turkish bathhouses and hotels as well as attempts by municipal authorities to crack down on those worlds Jacket      Encyclopedia of British and Irish Political Organizations Peter Barberis,John McHugh,Mike Tyldesley,2000-01-01 This major authoritative reference work embraces the spectrum of organized political activity in the British Isles It includes over 2 500 organizations in 1 700 separate entries Arrangement is in 20 main subject sections covering the three main p      The Spectator ,1875 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art
