Red Ted The Life Of Eg Theodore:

"Red Ted" Ross Fitzgerald,1994 E G Theodore one of Australia s most enterprising and unusual political figures was Treasurer and Premier of Queensland and later Federal Treasurer and Deputy Prime Minister of Australia in the Scullin Labor government The Life and Soul of the Party Brett Evans,2001 Out of office and at sea the federal ALP has spent the past five years facing up to the causes of its electoral failure and the lessons for the future But despite the soul searching this work states that it s not clear that Labour has come up with a convincing case for its return to government The Curse of Mungana David E. Moore,2016-12-06 The Mungana scandal is not just the story of a failed mining venture and its victims but an expose of the arrogance of powerful politicians who compromised integrity for personal greed Late in the 19th century mining entrepreneurs were eager to profit from over optimistic expectations of another Broken Hill in North Queensland Ventures thrived with private railways linking new mines including the town of Mungana In the wake of 1 000 disappointments of the failed Chillagoe Company the new Labor Government acquired the assets This was the signal for opportunistic operators and politicians to orchestrate secret deals allowing them to enjoy financial benefits at government expense The critical acquisition was Mungana Mines Its largest shareholder was William McCormack future Queensland Premier This culminated in a Royal Commission whose bombshell report exposed key beneficiaries including McCormack and his friend Edward Theodore then Treasurer of Australia In the aftermath of the scandal several myths have arisen These are identified and refuted It is pertinent to ask if ethical standards have really improved over the past 80 years Work and Strife in Paradise Bradley Bowden,2009 From Queensland s inception as a self governing colony in December 1859 the issue of labour relations has preoccupied governments and shaped the experiences of its working men and women However despite the often turbulent nature of labour relations in Queensland there has prior to this book been no attempt to provide an overview of the system as a whole This important addition to Queensland s sesquicentenary celebrations redresses this failure looking at the diverse range of experiences that together made up a unique system of labour relations including those of employers women workers indigenous workers unions the Queensland Industrial Relations Commission labour law industrial disputation the workings of health and safety system and life in regional areas It is argued that overall Queensland s system of industrial regulation was central to its economic and social development Despite past emphasis on the large scale strikes that periodically raked the state this book finds that consensus normally prevailed The People's Champion, Fred Paterson Ross Fitzgerald,1997 The first biography of F W Paterson radical barrister and Communist Party MLA for Bowen from 1944 to 1950 when his electorate was gerrymandered out of existence by the ruling Labor Party Detailed index The Pope's Battalions Ross Fitzgerald,Adam James Carr,William J. Dealy,2003 A prophet whose confident prophecies were frequently proved wrong B A Santamaria profoundly affected 20th century Australian political life Although he rarely gave interviews and never held elected office Santamaria became widely known through his regular commentaries in the

Australian and in his magazine News Weekly Building on his battle against Communist influence in the trade unions Santamaria boldly attempted to capture the ALP and transform it into a European style Christian Democrat party The ensuing split was disastrous demoralising the ALP and casting Santamaria out of the Labor fold for all time Australia in the Global Economy David Meredith,Barrie Dyster,2000-01-17 This up to date volume considers Australian economic development in light of worldwide political and social developments arguing that the Australian economy is an integral part of the world economy and subject to the same trends across the globe The book also focuses on domestic factors that have shaped the growth of the Australian economy such as the growth of exports the role of foreign capital and the positive contribution of migrants The authors also consider the Gulf Wars the East Asian financial crisis and globalization A Global History of Gold Rushes Benjamin Mountford,Stephen Tuffnell,2018-10-16 Nothing set the world in motion like gold Between the discovery of California placer gold in 1848 and the rush to Alaska fifty years later the search for the precious yellow metal accelerated worldwide circulations of people goods capital and technologies A Global History of Gold Rushes brings together historians of the United States Africa Australasia and the Pacific World to tell the rich story of these nineteenth century gold rushes from a global perspective Gold was central to the growth of capitalism it whetted the appetites of empire builders mobilized the integration of global markets and economies profoundly affected the environment and transformed large scale migration patterns Together these essays tell the story of fifty years that changed the world

Australia's five learned Academies Awarded an AO in 1993 named as one of Australia's 100 living national treasures in 1997 he was elected a Visiting Fellow Commoner of Trinity College Cambridge in 1999 His autobiography A Thinking Reed was published in 2006 and The Shock of Recognition about music and literature in 2016 In 2014 he received an AC for services as a leading intellectual in Australian public life What Is to Be Done was published by Scribe in 2020 McCawley and Trethowan - The Chaos of Politics and the Integrity of Law - Volume 2 Ian Loveland, 2021-07-01 In the second part of this two volume study Ian Loveland delves deeply into the immediate historical and political context of the Trethowan litigation which began in New South Wales in 1930 and reached the Privy Council two years later The litigation centred on the efforts of a conservatively inclined government to prevent a future Labour administration led by the then radical politician Jack Lang abolishing the upper house of the State's legislature by entrenching the existence of the upper house through the legal device of requiring that its abolition be approved by a state wide referendum The book carefully examines the immediate political and legal routes of the entrenchment device fashioned by the State's Premier Sir Thomas Bavin and his former law student colleague and then Dean of the Sydney University law school Sir John Peden and places the doctrinal arguments advanced in subsequent litigation in the State courts before the High Court and finally in the Privy Council in the multiple contexts of the personal and policy based disputes which pervaded both the State and national political arenas In its final chapter the book draws on insights provided by the detailed study of McCawley in volume one and Trethowan to revisit and re evaluate the respective positions adopted by William Wade and Ivor Jennings as to the capacity of the United Kingdom's Parliament to introduce entrenching legislation which would be upheld by the courts Born with a Copper Spoon Robrecht Declercq, Duncan Money, Hans Otto Frøland, 2022-11-15 Over the past two centuries industrial societies hungry for copper essential for light power and communication have demanded ever increasing quantities of the metal Born with a Copper Spoon examines how the metal has been produced distributed controlled and sold on a global scale However this is not simply a narrative of ever increasing and deepening global connections It is also about periods of deglobalization fragmentation and attempts to sever connections Throughout history copper production has spawned its own practices technologies and a constantly changing political economy Large scale production has affected ecologies states and companies while creating and even destroying local communities dependent on volatile commodity markets Former president of Zambia Kenneth Kaunda once remarked that Zambians were born with a copper spoon in our mouths but few societies managed to profit from copper's abundance From copper cartels and the futures market to the consequences of resource nationalism Born with a Copper Spoon delivers a global perspective on one of the world's most important metals Alas it Seems Cruel Peter Bell, 2013 Peter Bell grew up in Cairns in the 1960s a few years after the town of Mount Mulligan had been abandoned He went to school with members of the dispersed community and he heard stories about the mine disaster that had happened in their grandparent's time Neither Power Nor Glory Paul Strangio, 2012 When Frank Hardy published

Power Without Glory his notorious novel about corruption and venality in the Victorian Labor Party it quickly came to be seen as a true account of the party Until now there has been no authoritative chronicle of the struggles of political Labor in Victoria from its origins in the mid nineteenth century through to the calamitous split of the 1950s By conventional measures these were fallow years Ensnared by the colony s powerful liberal protectionist tradition in the late nineteenth century Victorian Labor then found itself hindered by a grossly unfair electoral system and the lack of a constituency outside Melbourne s industrial suburbs But exile from government also meant that the party developed its own distinctive traditions and culture It was a unique and intriguing species among the state Labor parties Meticulously researched and elegantly written Neither Power Nor Glory fills an important gap in Australian political history and our understanding of the Labor Party It is also a timely antidote to nostalgia about Labor s past In Victoria at least that past was anything but golden

The Brilliant Boy Gideon Haigh, 2021-07-07 Longlisted for the 2022 Indie Book Awards Longlisted for the Australian Political Book of the Year Award Chosen as a Book of the Year in The Australian The Australian Financial Review and The Australian Book Review In a quiet Sydney street in 1937 a seven year old immigrant boy drowned in a ditch that had filled with rain after being left unfenced by council workers How the law should deal with the trauma of the family s loss was one of the most complex and controversial cases to reach Australia s High Court where it seized the imagination of its youngest and cleverest member These days Doc Evatt is remembered mainly as the hapless and divisive opposition leader during the long ascendancy of his great rival Sir Robert Menzies Yet long before we spoke of public intellectuals Evatt was one a dashing advocate an inspired jurist an outspoken opinion maker one of our first popular historians and the nation s foremost champion of modern art Through Evatt s innovative and empathic decision in Chester v the Council of Waverley Municipality which argued for the law to acknowledge inner suffering as it did physical injury Gideon Haigh rediscovers the most brilliant Australian of his day a patriot with a vision of his country charting its own path and being its own example the same attitude he brought to being the only Australian president of the UN General Assembly and instrumental in the foundation of Israel A feat of remarkable historical perception deep research and masterful storytelling The Brilliant Boy confirms Gideon Haigh as one of our finest writers of non fiction It shows Australia in a rare light as a genuinely clever country prepared to contest big ideas and face the future confidently Gideon Haigh has always been an exquisite wordsmith and he proves here that he is also an intuitive historian and acute biographer with a masterful control of the broad sweep and telling detail AFR Books of the Year Here is a master craftsman delivering one of his most finely honed works Meticulous in its research humane in its storytelling The Brilliant Boy is Gideon Haigh at his lush luminous best Haigh shines a light on person place and era with the sheer force of his intellect and the generosity of his words The Brilliant Boy is simply a brilliant book Clare Wright Stella Prize winning author of The Forgotten Rebels of Eureka Gideon Haigh has a nose for Australian stories that light up the past from new angles and he tells this one with verve grace and lightly worn erudition I couldn t put it down Judith Brett The

Saturday Paper An absolutely remarkable moving and elegant re reading of the early life of an extraordinary Australian Gideon Haigh is one of Australia s finest writers and thinkers mesmerizing one of the best Australian biographies I have read for a long time Michael McKernan Canberra Times Money Men Chris Bowen,2015-08-03 How much do we know about the second most important office in the nation Who was Australia s first treasurer Who resigned because of a relationship breakdown with the PM And who did Frank Hardy base his character Ted Thurgood in Power without Glory on The Money Men is the first in depth look at the twelve most notable and interesting men to have held the office of Treasurer of Australia Former Treasurer Chris Bowen brings a unique insider perspective to the lessons learned from the successes and failures of those who went before him Who does Chris Bowen think has been Australia s most exceptional Treasurer With revealing interviews of the five last treasurers The Money Men dares to answer that question Business Review Weekly ,1994

My Name Is Ross Ross Fitzgerald,2010-10 Brutally honest and inspiring this narrative tells the story of a well known writer s life as an alcoholic and his struggle to become and stay sober Beginning with his first drink at the age of 14 this unique account traces the author s relationship with alcohol taking readers on a journey from substance abuse and despair to hope and courage Both heart wrenching and enlightening this chronicle is a strong personal story of triumph over substance abuse that will grip readers from the start The Cosmopolitan Empire Peter Gerard Myers,2023-10-13 This book is about conspiracies in high places Conspiracies it covers include the assassination of JFK the attacks of 9 11 the Covid 19 Lockdown Orwell depicted Speech Codes and Thought Police Both have turned out to be correct ‘Now is the Psychological Moment’ Stephen Wilks,2020-10-12 Earle Christmas Grafton Page 1880 1961 surgeon Country Party leader treasurer and prime minister was perhaps the most extraordinary visionary to hold high public office in twentieth century Australia Over decades he made determined efforts to seize the psychological moment and thereby realise his vision of a decentralised regionalised and rationally ordered nation Page s unique dreaming of a very different Australia encompassed new states hydroelectricity economic planning cooperative federalism and rural universities His story casts light on the wider place in history of visions of national development He was Australia s most important advocate of developmentalism the important yet little studied stream of thought that assumes that governments can lead the nation to realise its economic potential His audacious synthesis of ideas delineated and stretched the Australian political imagination Page s rich career confirms that Australia has long inspired popular ideals of national development but also suggests that their practical implementation was increasingly challenged during the twentieth century Effervescent intelligent and somewhat eccentric Page was one of Australia s great optimists Few Australian leaders who stood for so much have since been so neglected McCawley and Trethowan - The Chaos of Politics and the Integrity of Law - Volume 1 Ian Loveland,2021-07-01 In this two volume work Ian Loveland offers a detailed exploration and analysis of 2 Australian entrenchment cases which have long been a source of fascination and inspiration to lawyers This first volume focusing on the McCawley case introduces non Australian readers to the remarkably rich legal and political history of constitutional formation and development in New South Wales and Queensland in the 19th and early 20th centuries It culminates with a deeply contextualised analysis of the emergence of the bizarre Two Act entrenchment principle which emerged in Queensland s constitutional law in 1908 and the subsequent and celebrated McCawley judgments of the Australian High Court and Privy Council The judgments are placed in both their deep and immediate historical and political contexts from the legal formation of New South Wales in the late 1700s through the creation of New South Wales and Queensland as distinct colonies in the 1850s and the subsequent passage of the Colonial Laws Validity Act 1865 on to the fiercely contested reformism espoused by Labour governments in Queensland in the early part of the twentieth century
