Herman,2016-03-22 Through competent scholarship insightful interpretation and masterful understanding of the present dialogue on hermeneutics it brings Buber s book on Chuang Tzu into sinology and sinology via this book into the understanding and interpretation of Buber No one else has ever tackled bringing these three fields Sinology Buber scholarship and comparative mysticism into meaningful interrelation and dialogue Maurice Friedman author of Martin Buber s Life and Work The best thing is the depth and breadth of his discussion of hermeneutic issues Herman is very well read both in theoretical hermeneutics and in sinological literature on the Chuang Tzu and he has thought carefully through the main methodological issues related to his task His discussion of the relation between unitive escapist and intrawordly mysticism in the Chuang Tzu is a great contribution Michael LaFargue University of Massachusetts Boston Buber s approach to Taoism is not primarily that of the scholar but of the practitioner of philosophia perennis And since Buber holds a prominent place in twentieth century religious history his appropriation of the Chuang Tzu is an important subject Herman to his credit has not stood in Buber s path but has allowed him to speak for himself His treatment of textual reconstruction interpretation and reception in the hermeneutic chapters adds a great deal to these topics that is valuable quite apart from the specific text he addresses David L Hall *Reden und Gleichnisse des Tschuang Tse. Reden und Gleichnisse des Tschuang-Tse Chuangtse,1920 A Philosophy of Prayer George Pattison,2024-07-02

Exploring the silence of prayer in Post Kantian philosophy and traditional spirituality A Philosophy of Prayer explores prayer within the perspective of post Kantian philosophy Against a background of traditional sources including Augustine The Cloud of Unknowing and the seventeenth century French school of spirituality the book uses Schleiermacher Kierkegaard Dostoevsky Heidegger Berdyaev Tillich Marcel Simone Weil Emmanuel Levinas and Jean Louis Chr tien to provide an interpretation of what is meant by the passivity and self annihilation of the praying self suggesting an apophatics of the personality Pattison pays particular attention to the question of language and the implications of the role given to silence in traditional texts arguing that language remains a defining element of the human God relationship and that silence is not to be construed as the negation of language but as the revelation of the depth of language itself The basic structure of prayer is shown to be implicitly eschatological oriented toward a coming kingdom of justice and peace while at the same time expressing a deep desire for ontological homecoming a tension manifest in respectively Levinas and Heidegger On Pattison s reading prayer calls for and develops a particular orientation of the self toward existence corresponding to the virtue of humility long understood as the basic Christian virtue This is shown to be in tension with modernity s commitment to strong versions of autonomy However the choice of humility is not presented as the reinstatement of religious heteronomy but as a free choice of the praying self

The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia ... Isaac Landman,1940 Martin Buber and the Human Sciences Maurice Friedman,2012-02-01 The specific focus of Martin Buber and the Human Sciences is dialogue as the foundation of and integrating factor in the human sciences using dialogue in the special sense which Buber has made famous mutuality presentness openness meeting the other in his or her uniqueness and not just as a content for one s own thought categories and knowing as deriving in the first instance from mutual contact rather than knowledge of a subject about an object By the human sciences the authors editors mean material that can be meaningfully approached in a dialogic way hence the humanities education psychology speech communication anthropology history sociology and economics The essays in Martin Buber and the Human Sciences demonstrate that thirty years after Buber s death his influence is still resonating in many countries and in many fields The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G. S. Coetsier,2014-01-09 In The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G S Coetsier breaks new ground by demonstrating the Jewish existential nature of Etty Hillesum s spiritual and cultural life in light of the writings of Martin Buber Emmanuel Levinas and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Hillesum s diaries and letters written between 1941 and 1943 illustrate her struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the Second World War and the Shoah By finding God under the rubble of the horrors she rediscovers the divine presence between humankind while taking up responsibility for the Other as a way to embrace justice and compassion In a fascinating accessible and thorough study Coetsier dispels much of the confusion that assails readers when they are exposed to the bewildering range of Christian and Jewish influences and other cultural interpretations of her writings The result is a convincing and profound picture of Etty Hillesum s path to spiritual freedom Modernism - Dada - Postmodernism Richard Sheppard,2000 Modernism Dada Postmodernism collects updates integrates and contextualizes the critic Richard Sheppard s essays on the historical avant garde Sheppard s topic in all of these essays is the modernist writers artists and philosophers linguistic and visual responses to a changed sense of reality and human nature Beginning with an overview of the problematics of European modernism Sheppard establishes the dialectical relationship between the cultural crisis that occurred during the period 1880 1936 and the different responses from European modernists and the avant garde With its combination of classic and new essays and its perspective on the theoretical avant garde modernism debate in the United States Sheppard s volume should give the specialist as well as the general reader an insight into the highest sample of European scholarly discourse on this subject European Existentialism Nino Langiulli,2018-01-18 European Existentialism is a rich collection of major texts and is made all the more significant by the range and depth of its contributions This book aims to give greater intelligibility to existentialism by providing samples from antecedents of and influences upon it Although existentialism is regarded as an example of twentieth century philosophizing the book presents nineteenth century thinkers such as Kierkegaard and Nietzsche as its forerunners Thinkers such as Dilthey Husserl and Scheler frequently associated with other trends in philosophy such as historicism and phenomenology are included because of their influence upon existentialism Informative biographies of each author represented are also included European Existentialism includes a broad range of philosophers working in the existentialist mode not only French and German but also Spanish Italian Jewish and Russian philosophers This volume is also distinctive in that it omits existentialists from the literary world While Dostoevsky is often included in other existentialist collections Langiulli represents Russian philosophy with a selection by Berdyaev In his new introduction Langiulli discusses how the themes of existentialism have led to contemporary aberrations He uses the language of political rights as an example whereas we once referred to freedom of speech we have transformed that phrase into a much wider category freedom of expression Langiulli also examines various trends that have derived from existentialism postmodernism deconstructionism and multiculturalism Langiulli's introduction and the contributions place existentialism as a genuine tradition in the history of philosophy European Existentialism is an invaluable collection for philosophers educators and all those interested in the existentialist tradition
