The Redheaded Outfield Zane Grey,2021-03-14 It was the most critical time I had yet experienced in my career as a baseball manager And there was more than the usual reason why I must pull the team out A chance for a business deal depended upon the good will of the stockholders of the Worcester club On the outskirts of the town was a little cottage that I wanted to buy and this depended upon the business deal My whole future happiness depended upon the little girl I hoped to install in that cottage Coming to the Worcester Eastern League team I had found a strong aggregation and an enthusiastic following I really had a team with pennant possibilities Providence was a strong rival but I beat them three straight in the opening series set a fast pace and likewise set Worcester baseball mad The Eastern League clubs were pretty evenly matched still I continued to hold the lead until misfortune overtook me Gregg smashed an umpire and had to be laid off Mullaney got spiked while sliding and was out of the game Ashwell sprained his ankle and Hirsch broke a finger Radbourne my great pitcher hurt his arm on a cold day and he could not get up his old speed Stringer who had batted three hundred and seventy one and led the league the year before struck a bad spell and could not hit a barn door handed up to him
