writing the inhabitants of this ancient land into history The Fragmentation of Palestine Joshua Rickard,2022-02-24 This book examines processes of fragmentation that have altered the social dynamics of Palestinian society since the second intifada With a specific focus on the city of Nablus and its outer laying areas the book details the extraordinarily personal experience of isolation namely the physical division of communities through long term military siege and the ways that communities have adapted to get by despite frequently changing restrictions Joshua Rickard shows various forms of isolation and social fragmentation combined with the uncertainty of everyday life that have come to characterise the existential experience of being Palestinian More relevant than how the conditions of fragmentation have occurred is what isolation and uncertainty mean to communities that are severed from those surrounding them Finally this book examines the possibility for a reformation of social organisation that transcends traditional political discourses which can be seen emerging from Palestinian communities Imperialism on Trial R. M. Douglas,Michael Dennis Callahan,Elizabeth Bishop,2006-01-01 Imperialism on Trial reveals across a broad cross section of geographical and political settings the operation of the complicated and often conflicted dynamic between the national and international dimensions of colonialism in its final and most historically consequential phase The Palestinian Peasant Economy Under the Mandate Amos Nadan,2006 Challenging the claim that Palestine s peasant economy progressed during the 1920s and 1930s Amos Nadan skillfully integrates a wide variety of sources to demonstrate that the period was actually one of deterioration on both the macro per capita and micro levels The economy would have most likely continued its downward spiral during the 1940s had it not been for the temporary prosperity that resulted from World War II Nadan argues that this deterioration continued despite the British authorities channeling of funds from the Jewish sector and the wealthier Arab sectors into projects for the Arab rural economy The British were hoping that Palestine s peasants would not rebel if their economic conditions improved These programs were on the whole defective because the British chose programs based on an assumption that the peasants were too ignorant to manage their farms wisely instead of working with the peasants and their own institutions Haifa in the Late Ottoman Period, 1864-1914 Mahmoud Yazbak,2023-12-28 This volume offers a history of Haifa during that crucial part of the nineteenth century when Europe s penetration of Palestine combined with Istanbul s centralization efforts to alter irrevocably the social fabric of the country and change its political destiny After tracing the town s beginnings in the early eighteenth century the author painstakingly reconstructs from the few sijill volumes that have survived vital aspects of Ottoman Haifa s society and administration A fresh look at the town s demography is followed by an in depth discussion of the way inter communal relations developed after the 1864 Vil yet's Law had brought a restructuring of the sources of elite power The author s findings on the social status of Haifa s Muslim women significantly add to the vibrant picture of economic activities we now know urban Muslim women in the Ottoman Empire were involved in The Modern Middle East Camron Michael Amin,Benjamin C. from 1700 to 2005 that offer information on the history development and policies of the Middle East The Transformation of the World Jürgen Osterhammel, 2015-09-15 A panoramic global history of the nineteenth century A monumental history of the nineteenth century The Transformation of the World offers a panoramic and multifaceted portrait of a world in transition Jürgen Osterhammel an eminent scholar who has been called the Braudel of the nineteenth century moves beyond conventional Eurocentric and chronological accounts of the era presenting instead a truly global history of breathtaking scope and towering erudition He examines the powerful and complex forces that drove global change during the long nineteenth century taking readers from New York to New Delhi from the Latin American revolutions to the Taiping Rebellion from the perils and promise of Europe's transatlantic labor markets to the hardships endured by nomadic tribal peoples across the planet Osterhammel describes a world increasingly networked by the telegraph the steamship and the railways He explores the changing relationship between human beings and nature looks at the importance of cities explains the role slavery and its abolition played in the emergence of new nations challenges the widely held belief that the nineteenth century witnessed the triumph of the nation state and much more This is the highly anticipated English edition of the spectacularly successful and critically acclaimed German book which is also being translated into Chinese Polish Russian and French Indispensable for any historian The Transformation of the World sheds important new light on this momentous epoch showing how the nineteenth century paved the way for the global catastrophes of the twentieth century yet how it also gave rise to pacifism liberalism the trade union and a host of other crucial developments Polymaths of Islam James Pickett, 2020-09-15 Polymaths of Islam analyzes the social and intellectual power of religious leaders who created a shared culture that integrated Central Asia Iran and India from the mid eighteenth century through the early twentieth James Pickett demonstrates that Islamic scholars were simultaneously mystics and administrators judges and occultists physicians and poets This integrated understanding of the world of Islamic scholarship unlocks a different way of thinking about transregional exchange networks Pickett reveals a Persian language cultural sphere that transcended state boundaries and integrated a spectacularly vibrant Eurasia that is invisible from published sources alone Through a high cultural complex that he terms the Persian cosmopolis or Persianate sphere Pickett argues that an intersection of diverse disciplines shaped geographical trajectories across and between political states In Polymaths of Islam he paints a comprehensive colorful and often contradictory portrait of mosque and state in the age of empire Palestine and the Decline of the Ottoman Empire Farid Al-Salim, 2015-04-07 During the final decades of Ottoman rule Palestine was administratively divided into two states Jerusalem and Beirut Both provinces exhibited a strikingly cohesive history of modernisation and as the Ottoman Empire began to recede the education systems taxation and bureaucracy which were left behind formed the foundation of administration in the Palestinian authority today The reign of Sultan Abdulmecid I saw great changes in Palestine in line with the Tanzimat reform programme These changes included the monetisation of the economy structural changes in land ownership legal reform moves towards Ottoman centralisation and the first European immigration to the area Education was expanded to the lower classes and Arab and Palestinian nationalism and Islamic movements began to stir by the end of the century as the first Zionist settlers arrived At the heart of these radical shifts in thought and infrastructure were the new administrative centres established by the Ottomans during this period of re organisation Drawing extensively on official Ottoman records Farid Al Salim charts the transformation of one such centre Tulkarm from a small village in central Palestine to a seat of administrative reform in order to provide a new account of the forces behind the formation of modern Palestine

The Oxford Handbook of Modern Egyptian History Beth Baron, Jeffrey Culang, 2024 Until relatively recently scholars of Egyptian history understood the modern period to begin with the movement of European people and ideas to Egypt's northern shores precipitated by Napoleon's invasion in 1798 From this perspective modern Egyptian history was animated by the diverse and sometimes contradictory ways in which Egyptians responded over time to colonial power and modern forms of knowledge This handbook featuring 26 originally commissioned essays by top scholars in the field adds to a growing literature that complicates the facile colonizer colonized and modern tradition binaries undergirding this view Modern Egyptian history is a continuous process of translation and adaptation invention and reinvention Bringing together a dynamic and accomplished group of historians of Egypt the book maps the present state of modern Egyptian history highlighting the most promising avenues of research and laying new ground upon which future generations of scholars may build The contributors address both long persisting themes in the field though in new ways as well as new themes reshaping how we understand modern Egyptian history and thus Middle Eastern and global history These include environment family infrastructure intellectuals labor law literature medicine politics popular culture and slavery Within these categories they explore issues of gender race and class The questions these scholars consider reflect pressing contemporary concerns and debates including medical sovereignty and bodily autonomy the management of the environment the rights and movements of workers courts and legal struggles cultural expression production and reception and the relationship between the army state and society

Frontiers of the State in the Late Ottoman Empire Eugene L. Rogan, 2002-04-11 A theoretically informed account of how the Ottoman state redefined itself during the last decades of empire

The Iron Cage Rashid Khalidi, 2024-01-18 A brilliant and sobering critique of the Palestinian failure to achieve statehood by a major Palestinian historian and political commentator At a time when a lasting peace between Palestinians and Israelis seems virtually unattainable understanding the roots of the longest running conflict in the Middle East is an essential step in restoring hope to the region In The Iron Cage Rashid Khalidi one of the most respected historians and political observers of the Middle East examines the Palestinian's struggle for statehood presenting a succinct and insightful history of the people and their leadership throughout the twentieth century Ranging from the Palestinian struggle against colonial rule and the establishment of the State of Israel through the eras of the PLO the Palestinian Authority and Hamas this is an unflinching and sobering critique of the Palestinian failure to achieve statehood as well as a balanced account of the odds ranged against them Lucid yet challenging Rashid Khalidi's engrossing narrative of this tortuous history is required reading for anyone concerned about peace in the Middle East

Printing Class R. Michael Bracy, 2011 This book explores the manners and challenges in which alternating constructions of national identity were articulated in the writings of Issa al Issa and his newspaper Filastin The time period under consideration will be limited to Issa's work between 1911 and 1931

Middle East from Empire to Sealed Identities Kamel Lorenzo Kamel, 2019-01-22 This compelling analysis of the modern Middle East based on research in 19 archives and numerous languages shows the transition from an internal history characterised by local realities that were plural and multidimensional and where identities were flexible and hybrid to a simplified history largely imagined and imposed by external actors The author demonstrates how the once heterogeneous identities of Middle Eastern peoples were sealed into a standardised and uniform version that persists to this day He also sheds light on the efforts that peoples in the region in the context of a new process of homogenisation of diversities are exerting in order to get back into history regaining possession of their multifaceted pasts
