gender politics authorship and genre Each article is accompanied with a guide to further reading and a filmography of the director and the new edition also includes a fully revised introduction and a bibliography on French cinema Le Jour se

Lève Ben McCann,2014-06-10 Le Jour se leve 1939 directed by Marcel Carne is widely recognised as the classic French Poetic Realist film Told in flashback it recounts the story of a man who has committed a murder and who awaits his fate as the police close in Carne shuttles between different registers tones and textures throughout marshalling the studio s resources to create striking pictorial compositions The film also contains the great French star Jean Gabin s most iconic performance as Francois marooned at the top of his apartment building Ben McCann s perceptive and lively book traces the evolution of Le Jour se leve and situates it in a very specific historical moment He also underlines the importance of actors Jules Berry and Arletty production designer Alexandre Trauner writer Jacques Prevert and cinematographer Curt Courant in establishing the film s tone mood and visual style He charts the national and international reception of the film uncovering a work that deeply divided critics at a time of national crisis He also reveals Le Jour se leve to be a key transitional work between European and American noir and compares it with the 1947 Hollywood remake Highlighting its combination of the poetic and the realist this book finally stresses how Le Jour se leve represents the very best of pre war French studio filmmaking The French Screen Goddess Jonathan Driskell,2015-03-26 Many years before Brigitte Bardot and

Catherine Deneuve rose to fame the French cinema produced a host of glamorous female stars designed to rival their Hollywood counterparts Bathed in soft light discussed adoringly in fan magazines and shown wearing the latest fashions these cinematic stars emerged in opposition to France s traditional stage based stardom while remaining through the roles they played and the looks they sported a distinctly French phenomenon The French Screen Goddess examines how these stars influenced the narratives and look of their films contributed to defining the period s new emancipated femininity the modern woman and related to the decade s politics particularly the Popular Front of the mid 1930s The book focuses on the three most important examples of this type of stardom Annabella Danielle Darrieux and Michele Morgan while also considering many other key stars such as Arletty Viviane Romance and Jean Gabin Previously neglected films are considered and true classics of French cinema re examined with Rene Clair s Quatorze juillet Julien Duvivier s La Bandera and Marcel Carne s Le Quai des brumes and Hotel du Nord foremost among these Marcel Carné Jonathan Driskell,2019-01-04 This book provides a scholarly yet accessible account of the work of Marcel Carn one of the great directors of classical French cinema and the key figure behind the poetic realist film movement of the 1930s His films a number of which were made in collaboration with the poet turned scriptwriter Jacques Pr vert include such well known works as Le Quai des brumes Le Jour se l ve and Les Enfants du paradis As the first book to be written on Carn for a number of years it offers a fresh perspective on his cinema particularly through a re examination of his post war work although many of these films were very popular and offer a fascinating insight into France at the time they have until now largely been neglected Adopting a carefully crafted aesthetic his films explore a tension between pessimism and entrapment on the one hand and transcendence idealised romantic love and a populist celebration of working class life on the other His career traversed key moments in French cinema including poetic realism the tradition of quality and the French New Wave and spanned important historical moments such as the Popular Front of the 1930s the Second World War and France's post war modernisation This book will be of interest to scholars students and film lovers alike
