The novel english as paradigm of canadian literary identity Natalia Rodriguez Nieto, 2014-04-02 La presente tesis se centra en el género novelístico en lengua inglesa como paradigma de la Identidad literaria canadiense con el fin de analizar su construcción restrictiva por medio de la Recuperación de contribuciones de mujeres y autores étnicos que han sido bien relegadas o bien infravaloradas como agentes literarios relevantes Esta investigación abarca un periodo que comprende desde la publicación de la primera novela canadiense en inglés The History of Emily Montague de Frances Brooke en 1769 hasta 1904 año en el que la obra de Sara Jeannette Duncan titulada The Imperialist vio la luz es decir desde los comienzos del género en inglés hasta la primera novela modernista La primera parte engloba el marco teórico general del Nuevo Historicismo el Feminismo y los Estudios étnicos puesto que resaltan el papel crucial de la historicización de la literatura en la creación de tradiciones e identidades literarias e impulsan una visión crítica tanto de la producción literaria de mujeres y escritores étnicos como de su consideración La segunda parte se centra en la historia tradiciones e identidad literarias canadienses Por medio de la novela se analiza el proceso de antologización de la literatura canadiense en inglés a través de un estudio detallado sobre la presencia ausencia de autoras y autores étnicos en antologías publicadas entre 1920 y 2004 También se incluyen las contribuciones de críticos feministas y/o étnicos puesto que cuestionan axiomas establecidos en la historia tradiciones e identidad canadienses y posibilitan el acceso a las obras de estos escritores/as alternativos cuyos diversos sentidos identitarios de otro modo silenciados son revelados Precisamente estos diferentes sentidos de la identidad son el eje de la tercera parte Desde 1769 a 1904 existen una primera novela frecuentemente infravalorada escrita Frances Brooke novelas olvidadas de autoras con gran reconocimiento como Susanna Strickland Moodie escritoras relevantes en la ficción juvenil como es el caso de Agnes Maule Machar Margaret Murray Robertson y Margaret Marshall Saunders contribuciones tempranas de autores étnicos como Martin Robinson Delany y Winnifred Eaton así como novelistas de éxito de la talla Agnes Early Fleming Lily Dougall Susan Frances Harrison y Sara Jeannette Duncan Dando voz y resaltando su relevancia este trabajo demuestra que la literatura canadiense temprana está plagada de autoras y autores étnicos inteligentes poderosos y reconocidos cuyas aportaciones deben ser reconsideradas si se pretende seguir manteniendo el carácter multicultural y no patriarcal de las letras canadienses Estas novelas de un autor afroamericano y residente temporal en Canadá de una mujer canadiense de ascendencia china inglesa y un amplio espectro de mujeres inmigrantes o nativas pone de manifiesto no sólo que Canadá cuenta con un pasado literario sólido y forjado desde la diversidad sino que cuestiona el hecho de que esta herencia literaria todavía necesita ser recuperada Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975

First Nations, First Thoughts Annis May Timpson, 2010-01-01 Countless books and articles have traced the impact of colonialism and public policy on Canada's First Nations but few have explored the impact of Aboriginal thought on public discourse and policy development in Canada First Nations First Thoughts brings together Aboriginal and non Aboriginal scholars who cut through the prevailing orthodoxy to reveal Indigenous thinkers and activists as a pervasive presence in diverse political constitutional and cultural debates and arenas including urban spaces historical texts public policy and cultural heritage preservation This innovative thought provoking collection contributes to the decolonization process by encouraging us to imagine a stronger fairer Canada in which Aboriginal self government and expression can be fully realized

Gordon L Heath, 2014-09-25 Most accounts of Canada and the First World War either ignore or merely mention in passing the churches experience Canadian Churches and the First World War addresses this surprising neglect exploring the marked relationship between Canada's Great War and Canadian churches in intricate detail The authors of this volume provide a detailed summary of various Christian traditions and the war both synthesising and furthering previous research In addition to examining the experience of Roman Catholics English and French speaking Anglicans Presbyterians Methodists Baptists Lutherans Mennonites and Quakers there are chapters on precedents formed during the South African War the work of military chaplains and the roles of church women on the home front Reprinted in the centenary year of the conflict's outbreak Canadian Churches and the First World War acts as a sobering reminder of the devastating impact the Great War had on Canada and the rest of the world in the early twentieth century It will inspire those with a keen interest in theological military and women's history along with academics and students whose areas of research cover the monumental events of 1914-18 This article gives an exquisite insight into the stance of the Canadian churches during the First World War Martin Grechat Theologische Literatur Zeitung 141 Jahrgang Heft 4 April 2016

Projecting Canada Zoë Druick, 2007-02-22 Based on newly uncovered archival information and a close reading of numerous NFB films Projecting Canada explores the NFB's involvement with British Empire communication theory and American social science Using a critical cultural policy studies framework Druick develops the concept of government realism to describe films featuring ordinary people as representative of segments of the population She demonstrates the close connection between NFB production policies and shifting techniques developed in relation to the evolution of social science from the 1940s to the present and argues that government policy has been the overriding factor in determining the ideology of NFB films Projecting Canada offers a compelling new perspective on both the development of the documentary form and the role of cultural policy in creating essential spaces for aesthetic production
