Rediscovery Of Creation A Bibliographical Study Of The Churchs Response To The Environmental Crisis:

Rediscovery of Creation Joseph K. Sheldon, 1992-03 With 1700 references this work is of critical importance to pastors theologians scientists and those in the environmental field who wish to explore how the church has responded to the environmental crisis necessary considerable scope THE CHRISTIAN CENTURY Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa The Augustana Evangelical Lutheran Church in Print Virginia P. Follstad, 2007 This book identifies more than 300 periodicals published by the Augusta Evangelical Lutheran Church its agencies and various related institutions Follstad presents these journals magazines and newspapers and briefly explains their contents when and by whom they were published and where materials are located in libraries and archives in the United States Canada and Sweden Anyone researching Swedish American history and culture the history of the Lutheran Church in the United States and Canada Swedish American church history and the history and inner life of Augustana Evangelical Lutherans will find this a helpful guide BOOK JACKET Environmental Stewardship Robert James Berry, 2006-03-13 Is stewardship a useful way of regarding our relationship with our environment or is it a dangerous excuse for plunder Is it possible for us to be effective stewards This book gathers together expositions of stewardship with criticisms of the concept and adds other contributions written especially for this collection Emil Brunner Mark G. McKim, 1996 After an essay sketching Brunner s life and major theological contributions the bibliography is divided into parts on works written by Brunner edited by Brunner written by Brunner jointly with others prefaces and forewords and book reviews by Brunner as well as secondary sources For scholars in religious studies Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Tao te Ching Lao Tzu, 2021-04-06 Although translations and interpretations of the Tao te Ching abound and new editions are released yearly few accomplish the hard work of linking and bridging the Tao s profound message to the needs of modern readers There may be a profusion of versions but our lives and our world reflect little of the deep transformative potential of this important text Marc S Mullinax s new translation grows from extensive teaching experience and combines a deep understanding of the Tao s fourth century BCE Chinese context with an exciting two part application of that text to contemporary life First each of the eighty one verses is joined by a richly curated array of quotes sayings poems and stories from wisdom traditions around the globe With quotes ranging from Emerson to Pink Floyd and from the apostle Paul to Margaret Atwood the Tao s meaning comes alive in conversation with others Second a brief reflection puts the verse in historical context and highlights the transformative power of Wu Wei the non interfering action perfectly timed to promote peace and prevent injury to bring joy and justice to a hurting world Baptist Successionism

James Edward McGoldrick, 1999-11-17 an important contribution it is difficult to see how the historical argument could be any better presented than has been done by James McGoldrick Hermann Sasse Ronald R. Feuerhahn, 1995 Provides a complete list of Dr Sasse's writings including unpublished essays and works about him All introductory sections are in English and German explanatory sections are likewise bilingual Indexes Keeping God's Earth Noah Toly, Noah J. Toly, Daniel I. Block, 2010-05-26 Diversity of life Water resources Global climate change Cities and global environmental issues We all know being a Christian involves ethical responsibility But what exactly are our environmental obligations This unique volume teams up scientists with biblical scholars to help us discern just not that question What does the Lord require of us Caring for Creation Max Oelschlaeger, 1996-01-01 Argues that religion blamed for contributing to the ecological crisis provides an ethical context that will help solve the problem The approach suggests that the environmentally positive aspects in various Western creation stories demonstrate religion Toward an Ecology of Transfiguration John Chryssavgis, Bruce V. Foltz, 2013-06-03 Can Orthodox Christianity offer spiritual resources uniquely suited to the environmental concerns of today This book makes the case emphatically that it can indeed In addition to being the first substantial and comprehensive collection of essays in any language to address environmental issues from the Orthodox point of view this volume with contributions from many of the most influential theologians and philosophers in contemporary world Orthodoxy will engage a wide audience in academic as well as popular circles resonating not only with Orthodox audiences but with all those in search of a fresh approach to environmental theory and ethics that can bring to bear the resources of ancient spirituality often virtually unknown in the West on modern challenges and dilemmas Is It Too Late? John B. Cobb Jr., 2021-04-20 In the fifty years since its initial publication Is It Too Late has proven its prescience in ways both significant and dire As the first book length philosophical and theological analysis of the environmental crisis this work introduced a generation to the key elements of crisis while suggesting ways that religion can be a force for hope rather than an instrument of despair Covering an ambitious range of issues from deforestation to abortion from religious views of the natural world to the need for technological innovation to avoid nature's destruction John Cobb moves deftly from philosophical to theological to scientific learning and integrates these interdisciplinary insights into a compelling vision for what he calls a new Christianity Comprehensive in scope non technical in expression and concise in length Is It Too Late provides the scholar and the student alike with a readable and compelling orientation to the philosophical and theological stakes of ecology This Fortress edition includes a new preface in which Cobb reflects on the current situation the specific promises and perils we now face and how his own thinking on matters theological and ecological has evolved in the last half century Biblical Counsel, 1993 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Ecology Roger S. Gottlieb, 2006-11-09 Ecologically oriented visions of God the Sacred the Earth and human beings The proposed handbook will serve as the definitive overview of these exciting new developments Divided into three main sections the book's essays will reflect the three dominant dimensions of the field Part I will explore

Living in the Lamblight Hans Boersma, 2001-01-08 In recent decades many fundamental Christian assumptions about the nature of God and the world have come under attack No longer can one assume even in many church circles that historic Christian beliefs about the Trinity and providence are generally accepted or understood Scientific knowledge and new technologies have also presented challenges for the church How for example should Christians understand the ecological crisis And how should the opening chapters of Genesis be understood in an age of genetic research and evolutionary science This collection of essays attempts to chart a faithful path for postmodern Christians exploring the foundational ideas and concepts of a Christian worldview and suggesting their implications for Christian living today Contributors Hans Boersma John Cooper Marva J Dawn Michael W Goheen Christopher D Marshall Arnold E Sikkema John G Stackhouse Jr Rikki E Watts John R Wood

The Literature of Theology David R. Stewart, 2003-01-01 This updated reference guide directs students to over five hundred significant theological resources across a wide area of theological research It details bibliographic sources for encyclopedias dictionaries and electronic resources in biblical studies historical studies theology and practical theology

The Oxford Movement and Its Leaders Lawrence N. Crumb, 2009-03-20 The Oxford Movement began in the Church of England in 1833 and extended to the rest of the Anglican Communion influencing other denominations as well It was an attempt to remind the church of its divine authority independent of the state and to recall it to its Catholic heritage deriving from the ancient and medieval periods as well as the Caroline Divines of 17th century England The Oxford Movement and Its Leaders is a comprehensive bibliography of books pamphlets chapters in books periodical articles manuscripts microforms and tape recordings dealing with the Movement and its influence on art literature and music as well as theology authors include scholars in these fields as well as the fields of history political science and the natural sciences The first edition of The Oxford Movement and Its Leaders and its supplement contained comprehensive coverage through 1983 and 1990 respectively The Second Edition with over 8 000 citations covering many languages extends coverage through 2001 it also includes many earlier items not previously listed corrections and additions to earlier items and a listing of electronic sources

True North Mark Liederbach, Seth Bible, 2012-11-01 Because the Bible describes the second person of the Trinity as the key agent in creation redemption and the restoration of all things it is imperative that Christians seeking conformity to the image of Christ root their understanding of and motivation for creation care in a theology and ethic that seeks to maximize the worship of Christ throughout all creation Discussions related to creation care and environmental ethics have become both politically charged and highly controversial Unfortunately while a growing number of Christian books address various aspects of creation care that either support or deny the reality of global warming or perhaps advocate various policies and practices there is very little work available seeking to focus on clarify and establish the biblical and theological foundations upon which Christians ought to care for God's world Even more specifically there seems to be almost a complete dearth of accessible works in theology or ethics that offers a Christology of creation care Thus the purpose of True North is to explore the person and work of Christ in creation redemption and the restoration of all things so as to establish the idea that caring for God s creation depends not upon prognostications for or against a global warming crisis Rather the motivation for Christians to care for creation flows from the created purposes established in the very fabric of the universe faithful discipleship in Christ and the inherent goal to return to God all the glory he is due from every corner and aspect of creation
