Monetary and Fiscal Economics of Islam Mohamed Ariff,1982 Biographical Memoirs National Academy of Sciences,1996-06-08 Biographic Memoirs Volume 69 contains the biographies of deceased members of the National Academy of Sciences and bibliographies of their published works Each biographical essay was written by a member of the Academy familiar with the professional career of the deceased For historical and bibliographical purposes these volumes are worth returning to time and again Risk Behaviour and Risk Management in Business Life Bo Green,2013-03-09 Risk behaviour and risk management in business life influence a wide range of fields in which only a very limited amount of research has been undertaken These topics have often been treated as if they were theoretically and practically isolated from other fields the so called risk archipelago problem What is actually needed is another focus in which the problem of risk is treated as a central theme The demand for interdisciplinary research means that there is a need for crossing scientific boundaries In approaching risk problems from a holistic perspective there is also a parallel need for linking the scientific and the business worlds Researchers must work closely together in concrete multidisciplinary research projects and in co operation with the industrial world in seeking out and solving research problems of importance This book contains selected and re written papers and key note speeches presented in a risk seminar that Stockholm University organised in June 1997 The seminar in which 200 researchers and practitioners from 26 countries participated was divided into four main topic areas Risk Assessment and Credit Management Psychology in Business Life Risk Management in Small Firms and Law and Business Risk In writing this book the editor invited eight professors from four continents to assist him in introducing the reader to the different and scientific disciplines and in explaining the need for interdisciplinary multidisciplinary and cross disciplinary risk research projects The book consists of eight chapters and the target groups are researchers doctoral and master students at universities and business people working in the risk management area The New Palgrave Dictionary of Money and Finance John Eatwell,Murray Milgate,Peter Newman,1992-10-14 The first reference work ever to be awarded the Eccles Prize for Excellence in Economic Writing from Columbia Business School Continuing in the tradition of The New Palgrave this 3 volume set provides an unparalleled guide to modern money banking and finance In over 1 000 substantial essays by leading academic and professional authorities it provides the most comprehensive analysis available of contemporary theory and the fast evolving global monetary and financial framework In its scope and depth of coverage it is indispensable for the academic and practitioner alike The Power "to Coin" Money Thomas Frederick Wilson,1992 This book traces the history from colonial times to the present of the monetary powers exercised by the Congress under the Constitution. It follows the evolution of the American banking and monetary system from the perspective of specific provisions in the Constitution that authorize the government to coin money and regulate its value. The author critically examines how far the development of the contemporary money and banking system has pushed beyond the narrow powers spelled out in the Constitution. He shows how changes in congressional legislation, Supreme Court decisions on precedent setting cases, and the evolution of central banking powers within the Federal Reserve System have expanded the scope of the federal government's monetary powers. Yet the author views this history within the context of private limits to the authority of Congress and the Congress's distrust of lodging the central bank within the Executive branch, preferring instead to respect an independent central banking tradition. The Hamiltonian tradition, he concludes, still offers the best institutional arrangement to confront unstable markets and destabilizing political influence. The International Who's Who, 1990
