Spencer, 2011-04-28 Via readings of novels by J M Coetzee Timothy Mo and Salman Rushdie and the later poetry of W B Yeats this book reveals how postcolonial writing can encourage the enlarged sense of moral and political responsibility needed to supplant ongoing forms of imperial violence with cosmopolitan institutions relationships and ways of thinking

Humane Warfare Christopher Coker, 2001-08-23 The decision to fight humanitarian wars such as Kosovo and the development of technology to make war more humane illustrates the trend in the West to try to humanise war and thereby humanise modernity This highly controversial and cutting edge book asks whether the attempt to make war virtual or virtuous can succeed and whether the west

Chinese Whispers Nicholas Jose, 2012 This is a literary journey of an Australian writer's encounter with the culture and people of China particularly its young writers and artists and of the evolving influence of China on the writer's own work and life Nicholas Jose is the author of four novels and two collections of short stories He was Cultural Counsellor at the Australian Embassy Beijing between 1987 and 1990 and has taught Australian Studies in China

Cultures in Movement Martine Raibaud, Ionut Untea, Micéala Symington, 2015-02-05 The contributors to this volume encourage a re thinking of the very notion of culture by examining the experiences situations and the representations of those who chose or were forced to change cultures from the nineteenth century to the present day Beyond a simple study of migration forced or otherwise this collective work also re examines the model of integration As recent entrants into new social settings may be perceived as affecting the previously accepted social equilibrium mechanisms encouraging or inhibiting population flows are sometimes put in place From this perspective integration may become less a matter of internal choice than an external obligation imposed by the dominant political power in which case integration may only be a euphemism for cultural uniformity The strategies of cultural survival developed as a reaction to such a rising tide of cultural uniformity can be seen as necessary points of departure for an ever growing shared multiculturalism A long term voluntary commitment to make cultural boundaries more flexible and allow a more engaged individual participation in the process of defining the self and finding its place within a culture in movement may represent a key element for cultural cohesion in a globalized world

Mapping World Anglophone Studies Pavan Kumar Malreddy, Frank Schulze-Engler, 2024-10-30 This book explores core issues in the emerging field of World Anglophone Studies It shows that traditional frameworks based on the colonial and imperial legacies of English need to be revised and extended to understand the complex adaptations iterations and incarnations of English in the contemporary world The chapters in this volume make three significant interventions in the field First they showcase the emergence of Anglophone literatures and cultures in parts of the world not traditionally considered Anglophone Cuba the Arab world the Balkan region Vietnam Algeria and Belize among others Second they feature new zones of contact and creolization between Anglophone literatures cultures and languages such as Swahili Santhali Ojibway and Hindi as well as Anglophone representations of colonial encounters and contemporary experiences in non Anglophone settings such as Cuba Angola and Algeria And finally the volume turns to Anglophone literary and cultural productions on new platforms such as social media and Netflix and highlights the role of English in emergent sites of resistance involving women Indigenous populations queer and other non heteronormative sexualities as well as post conflict societies Mapping linguistic transgressions and the transmigration of cultural tropes between Englishes vernaculars and a wide variety of other languages with a rich set of case studies this volume will be essential reading for courses such as world literatures in English postcolonial studies anglophone studies literature and culture Indian Ocean worlds Global Englishes and Global South studies Redundancy of Courage Exp Header T.
