Refined Behavior , Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 A Manual of the Art of Prose Composition John Mitchell Bonnell,1867 Практичний курс англійської мови. Зарума О. Р. та ін., Business in Ethical Focus: An Anthology - Second Edition Fritz Allhoff,Alexander Sager,Anand J. Vaidya,2016-12-20 Business in Ethical Focus is a compilation of classical and contemporary essays and case studies in business ethics Readers will become acquainted with seminal ideas on corporate social responsibility and the place of business in a just society Other topics include diversity in the workplace sexual harassment workplace rights environmental responsibility and sustainability global business intellectual property bribery and ethical issues in advertising and marketing This second edition adds a dozen original case studies as well as new sections on global perspectives with articles on Islamic Confucian and Buddhist business ethics entrepreneurship and the non profit sector Background material on ethical theory and the nature of business ethics is included to orient readers new to this field Curriculum and Teaching Dialogue David J. Flinders,Christy M. Moroye,2015-08-01 Curriculum and Teaching Dialogue CTD is a publication of the American Association of Teaching and Curriculum AATC a national learned society for the scholarly field of teaching and curriculum The field includes those working on the theory design and evaluation of educational programs at large At the university level faculty members identified with this field are typically affiliated with the departments of curriculum and instruction teacher education educational foundations elementary education secondary education and higher education CTD promotes all analytical and interpretive approaches that are appropriate for the scholarly study of teaching and curriculum In fulfillment of this mission CTD addresses a range of issues across the broad fields of educational research and policy for all grade levels and types of educational programs Sacred Scents in Early Christianity and Islam Mary Thurlkill,2016-07-26 Medieval scholars and cultural historians have recently turned their attention to the question of smells and what olfactory sensations reveal about society in general and holiness in particular Sacred Scents in Early Christianity and Islam contributes to that conversation explaining how early Christians and Muslims linked the sweet smell of sanctity with ideals of the body and sexuality created boundaries and sacred space and imagined their emerging communal identity Most importantly scent itself transgressive and difficult to control signaled transition and transformation between categories of meaning Christian and Islamic authors distinguished their own fragrant ethical and theological ideals against the stench of oppositional heresy and moral depravity Orthodox Christians ridiculed their stinking Arian neighbors and Muslims denounced the reeking corruption of Umayyad and Abbasid decadence Through the mouths of saints and prophets patriarchal authors labeled perfumed women as existential threats to vulnerable men and consigned them to enclosed private space for their protection as well as society s At the same time theologians praised both men and women who purified and transformed their bodies into aromatic offerings to God Both Christian and Muslim pilgrims venerated sainted men and women with perfumed offerings at tombstones indeed Christians

and Muslims often worshipped together honoring common heroes such as Abraham Moses and Jonah Sacred Scents begins by surveying aroma s quotidian functions in Roman and pre Islamic cultural milieus within homes temples poetry kitchens and medicines Existing scholarship tends to frame scent as something available only to the wealthy or elite however perfumes spices and incense wafted through the lives of most early Christians and Muslims It ends by examining both traditions views of Paradise identified as the archetypal Garden and source of all perfumes and sweet smells Both Christian and Islamic texts explain Adam and Eve s profound grief at losing access to these heavenly aromas and celebrate God s mercy in allowing earthly remembrances Sacred scent thus prompts humanity s grief for what was lost and the yearning for paradisiacal transformation still to come Reading the Early Modern Passions Gail Kern Paster,Katherine Rowe,Mary Floyd-Wilson,2004-06 Authors here investigate specific emotions such as sadness courage and fear Others turn to emotions spread throughout society by contemporary events such as a ruler s death the outbreak of war or religious schism and discuss how such emotions have widespread consequences in both social practice and theory Etude ,1888 Includes music

The Image before the Weapon Helen M. Kinsella,2011-05-02 Since at least the Middle Ages the laws of war have distinguished between combatants and civilians under an injunction now formally known as the principle of distinction The principle of distinction is invoked in contemporary conflicts as if there were an unmistakable and sure distinction to be made between combatant and civilian As is so brutally evident in armed conflicts it is precisely the distinction between civilian and combatant upon which the protection of civilians is founded cannot be taken as self evident or stable Helen M Kinsella documents that the history of international humanitarian law itself admits the difficulty of such a distinction In The Image before the Weapon Kinsella explores the evolution of the concept of the civilian and how it has been applied in warfare A series of discourses including gender innocence and civilization have shaped the legal military and historical understandings of the civilian and she documents how these discourses converge at particular junctures to demarcate the difference between civilian and combatant Engaging with works on the law of war from the earliest thinkers in the Western tradition including St Thomas Aquinas and Christine de Pisan to contemporary figures such as James Turner Johnson and Michael Walzer Kinsella identifies the foundational ambiguities and inconsistencies in the principle of distinction as well as the significant role played by Christian concepts of mercy and charity She then turns to the definition and treatment of civilians in specific armed conflicts the American Civil War and the U S Indian wars of the nineteenth century and the civil wars of Guatemala and El Salvador in the 1980s Finally she analyzes the two modern treaties most influential for the principle of distinction the 1949

IV Geneva Convention Relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Times of War and the 1977 Protocols Additional to the 1949 Conventions which for the first time formally defined the civilian within international law She shows how the experiences of the two world wars but particularly World War II and the Algerian war of independence affected these subsequent codifications of the laws of war As recognition grows that compliance with the principle of distinction to limit violence against civilians depends on a firmer grasp of its legal political and historical evolution The Image before the Weapon is a timely intervention in debates about how best to protect civilian populations
