Reflection In Jamaica:

Reflection--in Jamaica Mary Gaunt,1932      Reflections on agriculture in Jamaica Chelston W. D. Brathwaite,2001

The Intimate Empire Gillian Whitlock,2000-02-01 By means of contextualized readings this work argues that autobiographic writing allows an intimate access to processes of colonization and decolonization incorporation and resistance and the formation and reformation of identities which occurs in postcolonial space The book explores the interconnections between race gender autobiography and colonialism and uses a method of reading which looks for connections between very different autobiographical writings to pursue constructions of blackness and whiteness femininity and masculinity and nationality Unlike previous studies of autobiography which focus on a limited Euro American canon the book brings together contemporary and 19th century women s autobiographies and travel writing from Canada the Caribbean Kenya South Africa Australia and New Zealand With emphasis on the reader of autobiography as much as the subject it argues that colonization and resistance are deeply embedded in thinking about the self      Brand Jamaica Hume Johnson,Kamille Gentles-Peart,2019-12-01 Brand Jamaica is an empirical look at the postindependence national image and branding project of Jamaica within the context of nation branding practices at large Although a tiny Caribbean island inhabited by only 2 8 million people Jamaica commands a remarkably large presence on the world stage Formerly a colony of Britain and shaped by centuries of slavery violence and plunder today Jamaica owes its popular global standing to a massively successful troika of brands music sports and destination tourism At the same time extensive media attention focused on its internal political civil war mushrooming violent crime inflation unemployment poverty and abuse of human rights have led to perceptions of the country as unsafe Brand Jamaica explores the current practices of branding Jamaica particularly within the context of postcoloniality reconciles the lived realities of Jamaicans with the contemporary image of Jamaica projected to the world and deconstructs the current tourism model of sun sand and sea Hume Johnson and Kamille Gentles Peart bring together multidisciplinary perspectives that interrogate various aspects of Jamaican national identity and the dominant paradigm by which it has been shaped      Imagining the Tropics Elizabeth S. Manley,Elizabeth Manley,2025 Imagining the Tropics is a history of the development of tourism in the Caribbean from the 1910s through the 1970s that focuses on the ways women s labors of hospitality writing and advocacy built the industry and its ubiquitous imagery of tropical island relaxation escape and romance By examining a range of sources engaging an array of women protagonists and looking broadly across multiple Caribbean island states including Jamaica Cuba the Bahamas Barbados the Dominican Republic Haiti Puerto Rico Trinidad and Tobago and the U S and British Virgin Islands it seeks to understand how the region came to be sold as a romantic escape from the troubles of the modern world By putting women at the center of Caribbean tourism history as both its ambassadors and objects of desire it seeks to explain some of the complicated contradictions that plague the business of pleasure but also to point toward ways of building alternative models to its present and past extractive realities
