Reflections in a Jaundiced Eye Florence King,1985      Amber Aspects Jim Accardi,1988      Through Alien Eyes Elena Popova,2008 What do you think of those Russian brides What do they think of YOU International marriages bring a substantial number of newcomers to the US and contribute to the transformation of the basic institution of society OCo the family When men are from Mars and women are aliens the marital dynamic can be quite dramatic A Russian born journalist Ms Popova shines a blinding light on some of the amusing and amazing oddities that are revealed when an outsider takes a blunt look at how we live      Reflections Through a Jaundiced Eye James McCurrach,2014-01-13 Andrew is a troubled youth in search of direction He finds himself groping to find his place in the face of numerous frustrations frustrations that include trying to overcome a domineering Father who has very specific ideas about Andrew s future In the midst of many social upheavals Andrew must also deal with incipient homosexuality that later overtakes his life Despite trying to throw over his Father s yoke there is a residue of needing to please him and hope for his approval Andrew s Mom had always thought that he would be a late bloomer and over time that would prove to be the accurate truth Reflections had long been an inborn part of Andrew s personality and he would eventually find it cathartic to go back and explore all of it out loud and reflect on a varied and difficult past      Reflections of a Jaundiced Eye in Winter Bloom and the Tragedy of Adam and Eve Arthur Ruffino,2018-03-15 From the Preface Reflections of a Jaundiced Eye in Winter Bloom is a collection of fleeting thoughts randomly written over a lifetime Often they were recorded on scraps of paper for later scrutiny Sometimes they were incorporated in travel diaries prompted by experiences of the time occasionally they were nascent musings awaiting later revisits The compilation can be read leisurely and selectively since continuity is not requisite The work is aimed at readers who enjoy browsing through witticisms quips aphorisms and axioms It is assumed that readers may not share the author s views or even appreciate some of the attempts at sardonic humor but agreement is not in order What is important is the willingness to screen another person s vision of this thing we call life The Tragedy of Adam and Eve is a one act play It is an imaginary domestic drama about the apocryphal first family      Minding the South John Shelton Reed,2017-07-12 For over three decades John Shelton Reed has been minding the South He is the author or editor of thirteen books about the region Despite his disclaimer concerning the formal study of Southern history Reed has read widely and in depth about the South His primary focus is upon Southerners present day culture but he knows that one must approach the South historically in order to understand the place and its people Why is the South so different from the rest of America Rupert Vance Reed s predecessor in sociology at Chapel Hill once observed that the existence of the South is a triumph of history over geography and economics The South has resisted being assimilated by the larger United States and has kept a personality that is distinctly its own That is why Reed celebrates the South The chapters in this book cover everything from great thinkers about the South Eugene D Genovese C Vann Woodward M E Bradford to the uniqueness of a region that was once a hotbed of racism but has recently attracted hundreds of thousands of black people transplanted from the North There are also chapters about Southerners who have devoted their talents to politics soft drinks rock and roll and jewelry design Reed writes with wit and Southern charm never afraid to speak his mind even when it comes to taking his beloved South to task While readers may not share all his opinions most will agree that John Shelton Reed is one of the best South watchers there is The New York Times Acrostic Puzzles Volume 9 Emily Cox, Harry Rathvon, 2003-03 50 Quotation puzzles from the pages of The New York Times Edited by Emily Cox and Harry Rathvon New York Times puzzles are America's favorite Whether your tastes are literary or lowbrow this latest installment of fifty of the Sunday Times's famous acrostic puzzles features quotations ranging from Herman Melville to Dave Barry Stephen Jay Gould to Sir Arthur Conan Doyle So sharpen your pencil put on your thinking cap and get ready for some acrostic fun Domestic Violence at the Margins Natalie J. Sokoloff, Christina Pratt, 2005 Reprints of the most influential recent work in the field as well as more than a dozen newly commissioned essays explore theoretical issues current research service provision and activism among Latinos African Americans Asian Americans Jewish Americans and lesbians The volume rejects simplistic analyses of the role of culture in domestic violence by elucidating the support systems available to battered women within different cultures while at the same time addressing the distinct problems generated by that culture Together the essays pose a compelling challenge to stereotypical images of battered women that are racist homophobic and xenophobic Maxillofacial Orthopedics Jeffrey H. Ahlin, 2003-12

Gender and Feminist Theory in Law and Society Madhavi Sunder, 2017-11-30 This volume chronicles a quarter century of feminist theorizations on equality and liberty The essays demonstrate a continuing commitment to feminist method a democratic notion that all people have a right to participate in the production of knowledge of the world including legal knowledge and manifest feminism's continuing critical tradition namely theorists willingness to see multiple factors including feminism itself as obstructing enlightened constructions of the world Taken together the essays suggest that liberty to make the world is not just a means to an end equality but is a substantive end in itself The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture M. Thomas Inge, 2014-02-01 Offering a comprehensive view of the South's literary landscape past and present this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region's ever flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature theoretical categories such as regionalism the southern gothic and agrarianism and themes in southern writing such as food religion and sexuality Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries which introduce southern novelists playwrights poets and critics Special attention is given to contemporary writers and other individuals who have not been widely covered in previous scholarship      Precious Perversions Tison Pugh, 2016-03-21 The tragic sentiment of Southern literature and its heteronormative perspective are foundational attributes generally accepted by both popular and scholarly audiences Yet a pantheon of great authors ranging from like Tennessee Williams Carson McCullers and Truman Capote to present day voices of Alice Walker John Waters and David Sedaris collectively attest to both the vibrancy of queer experience and the prevalence of humor found in this rich regional cannon In Precious Perversions Humor Homosexuality and the Southern Literary Canon Tison Pugh challenges the premises that elevate William Faulkner and diminish Florence King that esteem Walker Percy yet marginalize David Sedaris by arguing for the inclusion of gay comic authors as long standing defining voices in the field By redefining the tenets of Southern literature Pugh reveals long overlooked or discounted aspects of gay humor within the South s literary realm Noting for example that Tennessee Williams is revered as a dramatist who probes the heart of the human condition rather than for his submerged camp humor and Truman Capote s comic cinema and literature never eclipsed serious works Pugh establishes a history of mainstream and academic critique that ignored queer humor Likewise Florence King and Rita Mae Brown wrote defining narratives of Southern lesbian experience in respectively Confessions of a Failed Southern Lady and Rubyfruit Jungle yet according to Pugh they are almost entirely neglected in accounts of the literary South More recently the author shows the critical reception of Dorothy Allison s Bastard Out of Carolina testifies to an overarching interest in the traumatic aspects of her poetry and fiction rather than in her humor and its cathartic power Pugh also asserts that David Sedaris as a writer of the post Southern South who appears to fall beyond the parameters of regional literature for many readers creates a new humorous vision of the region that recognizes both its pained history and its grudging accession to modernity Drawing from works of key southern writers Pugh sets forth a new vision of Southern literature emerges one illuminated by the humor of gay voices no longer at the margins      America in Quotations Bahman Dehgan, 2015-08-31 America is a land of wonders in which everything is in constant motion and every change seems an improvement No natural boundary seems to be set to the efforts of man and in his eyes what is not yet done is only what he has not yet attempted to do Alexis de Tocqueville Democracy in America 1835 Americans will pay a big price for an invention that will help them save time they don t know what to do with Anonymous This collection of quotations both serious and humorous about America is divided into 19 main topics The Nation The American People Places Nature Mind The Individual Human Relations Social Life Culture and Media Literature and Language Religion and Belief Past and Future History War and the Military International Relations Politics and Government Law and Order Business and Economy and Food Each main topic is divided into subtopics for example Culture and Media has these Architecture Art Charlie Chaplin Dance Fashion Intellectuals Marilyn Monroe Movies Music Elvis Presley and Television The author attributes each quote to its speaker author or composer and wherever possible provides the date of the quote and the name of the work in which it was published In the case of uncertainty about the exact date of a quote the author provides the birth and death dates of the
