Reflections In Poetry Mother And Daughter Collection:

Reflections in Poetry Michelle Epps, Carole Watson Cooley, 2005-09 Reflections in Poetry Mother and Daughter Collection is meant to share innermost thoughts with others. It is a hope that the readers will be able to identify with the portraits painted and maybe use some lines or words to express a feeling they would like to portray to someone they care about. Writing is about sharing experiences with the readers; it is also therapeutic because a writer is daring to share his soul. This is also a collection of poems in a storybook form. Some of the poems are laden with emotion as in a message to someone you're in love with while others may be spiritual in nature as in a conversation with God or prayer. There are poems that rhyme while others are free verse. The poems may evoke a plausible reaction to the readers or not. It is the intent to provide an obvious story in each poem connecting each verse to the other with the hope to leave enough room for the readers' interpretation of the poems to be open to any possible understanding or outcome. This is also an effort to have readers get acquainted with the intimacy of imagination; maybe even fall in love with it or find an expression all their own. The sale of this book is meant to be used in part for outreach under Helping Hand, a non-profit organization. Mothers and Daughters June Cotner, 2010-03-10 Celebrate the life passages shared only between mothers and daughters in this uniquely moving collection. Mothers and Daughters reveals the full breadth and depth of the mother-daughter bond as only poetry can. From pregnancy to toddlerhood, adolescence to leaving home, grandmotherhood and beyond, and every passage in between, this collection captures the voices of mothers and daughters as they write about the most moving moments of their times together. Honest, inspiring, joyful, and reflective, the full range of women's voices has been captured here: the inexplicable joy of a mother holding her baby girl, a mom witnessing the first grown-up tears of her adolescent girl, a mother watching her daughter walk down the aisle, a ten-year-old trying to explain to her mom why she hates broccoli, and a daughter saying good-bye to her mother in her new dorm room. All the poetry selected by bestselling author June Cotner is accessible and beautifully crafted, alternating poems that will move any mother or daughter to tears with others that will make her laugh out loud, and all of which will deepen the reader's understanding and appreciation of this unique bond as no self-help book ever could. The perfect gift for mother or daughter, this is a book that women will want to revisit and share for years to come. Mothers and Daughters Dannabang Kuwabong, 2017-12-01 Mothers and Daughters is a compelling anthology that explores the multifaceted connections between mothers and daughters. Chapters explore new fields of inquiry, examining discourses about mothers and daughters through academic essays, narrative, and creative work. By examining the experiences of mothers and daughters from within an interdisciplinary framework which includes cultural, biological, socio-political, relational, and historical perspectives, the text surveys multiple approaches to understanding the mother-daughter dynamic. Therefore, the uniqueness and strength of this collection comes from blending not just work from across academic disciplines but also the forms in which this work is presented: academic inquiry and critique as well as creative and narrative explorations.
