Reflections Of A Country Doctor:

Reflections of a Country Doctor Jimmie Ashcraft M. D.,2011-07 This book contains my reflections upon my 26 years as an old time generalist family physician in rural America It is merely a collection of stories that depict some of my many experiences over the years The stories mirror those of many of my generalist colleagues who have experienced the trenches of rural primary care My stories span the breadth and depth of the discipline of rural family medicine Stories range from assisting mothers giving birth to caring for and comforting those at the end of life from performing surgery to becoming involved in one s community and from making house calls to providing emergency room care Some are silly some are sad some are funny and some may make you mad JIMMIE ASHCRAFT M D Doctor Ashcraft is a graduate of the University of Oregon Medical School He was a member of the clinical staff of the University of Washington Medical School for 30 years Doctor Ashcraft and his wife Kay live in Montana They have three grown children and six grandchildren

Reflections of a Country Doctor Barry Ladd,1996 Meet Barry Ladd He is a family physician who practiced medicine for thirty years in a small country town forty miles south of a major city He calls it Our Town because the residents including himself so personally identified with the community In the thirty years that Ladd practiced in Our Town he delivered fifteen hundred babies and had one hundred and eighty thousand office visits He delivered the babies of the babies and took care of four generations in the same family During that time there was an explosion of technology and scientific information The practice of medicine shifted from being more of an art to being more of a science During this time Ladd was a participant and observer He saw how personal events and decisions played out over time He tells his readers what he saw heard and felt These are all true stories Some are composites of several people The names have been changed

The Next Prescription M. D. Jimmie Ashcraft,2011-08-01 I have been most gratified with the positive response to my first book Reflections of a Country Doctor Many readers encouraged me to write another book that told the rest of my story This book contains some of my experiences during my premedical and medical training years and more of my experiences during my twenty six years as an old time family physician in rural America Stories range from assisting mothers giving birth to caring for and comforting those at the end of life from experiencing the joys of pediatrics to the frustrations of medical errors from performing surgery to becoming involved in one s community and from making routine home visits to providing life ordeath emergency care In keeping with the format of Reflections of a Country Doctor some of the stories are silly some are sad some are funny and some may make you mad Doctor Ashcraft grew up as one of four brothers in a poor family in Montana Despite a difficult childhood he managed to work his way through college He was the first graduate from Eastern Montana College to graduate from a medical school He graduated from the University of Oregon Medical School After his medical training he served in the National Health Service Corps Doctor Ashcraft practiced as a family physician in Sidney Montana for twenty five years Afterward he was a member of the faculty of the Montana Family Medicine Residency a program that he helped to develop

Doctor Ashcraft was a member of the clinical faculty of the University of Washington Medical School for thirty years He is a Lifetime Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians Doctor Ashcraft and his wife Kay still live in Montana They have three children and six grandchildren      Reflections of a Country Doctor Jimmie Ashcraft,2020-02      The Next Prescription M.
