

In the Reflection

Looking for the reflection you can tell it what you've seen but will you let it tell you what it really means

Outer parts are easy they are hard to hide Inner parts are tricky since you still can't see inside

Reflections can show you all that you have it can also leave you wanting all you wish you had

Things you wish you had come from somewhere unseen all that reflection shows you is the image of a dream

Wishes and wants are not seen on the out they are projected on the inside until they're turned about

Focus on the inside until you can see everything you wanted in the reflection from your dream

Reflections and Dreams Anny Lutter,1983-01-01      Reflections on Dream of the Red Chamber ,      Sino-Japanese Reflections Joshua A. Fogel,Matthew Fraleigh,2022-05-09 Sino Japanese Reflections offers ten richly detailed case studies that examine various forms of cultural and literary interaction between Japanese and Chinese intellectuals from the late Ming to the early twentieth century The authors consider efforts by early modern scholars on each side of the Yellow Sea to understand the language and culture of the other to draw upon received texts and forms and to contribute to shared literary practices Whereas literary and cultural flow within the Sinosphere is sometimes imagined to be an entirely unidirectional process of textual dissemination from China to the periphery the contributions to this volume reveal a more complex picture highlighting how literary and cultural engagement was always an opportunity for creative adaptation and negotiation Examining materials such as Chinese translations of Japanese vernacular poetry Japanese engagements with Chinese supernatural stories adaptations of Japanese historical tales into vernacular Chinese Sinitic poetry composed in Japan and Japanese Sinology the volume brings together recent work by literary scholars and intellectual historians of multiple generations all of whom have a strong comparative interest in Sino Japanese studies      Literary Presses in Canada, 1975-1985 Dalhousie University. French Symbolist Poetry and the Idea of Music Joseph Acquisto,2017-03-02 What role did music play in the creation of a new aesthetics of poetry in French from the 1860s to the 1930s How did music serve as an unassimilable other against which the French symbolist poets crafted a new poetics And why did music gradually disappear from early twentieth century poetic discourse These are among the questions Joseph Acquisto poses in his lively study of the ways in which Baudelaire Mallarm Ghil and Roy re question the nature and function of the lyric through an ever shifting set of intertextual and cultural contexts Rather than focusing on musicality in verse the author addresses the consequences of choosing music as a site of dialogue with poetry Acquisto argues that memory plays an under acknowledged yet vital role in these poets rewriting of symbolist poetics His reading of their interactions and his focus on both major and neglected poets exposes the myth of a small handful of great authors shaping symbolism while a host of disciples propagated the tradition Rather Acquisto proposes the multiplicity of authors writing and rewriting symbolism invites a dialogic approach to the poetics of the period Moreover music as theorized rather than performed or heard serves as a privileged mobile space of poetic creation and dialogue for these poet critics it is through engagement with music supposedly the purest or most abstract of the arts that one can retrace the textual and cultural transformations accomplished by the symbolist tradition By extension these poets rethinking of poetics is an occasion for present day critics to re examine assumptions not only about the intersections of music and poetry and our understanding of symbolist poetics but also about the role that the aesthetic implicitly plays in the creation preservation or reshaping of cultural memory
