Reflections Of Courage:

The Value of Courage Per Bauhn, 2003-01-08 Combining in depth analysis with strikingly apt examples of the role that courage plays in the life of human beings this major contribution to moral philosophy argues that courage is necessary to personal achievement as well as to the common good of a civic community Bauhn insists that courage is necessary for reinforcing people's understanding of themselves as autonomous agents which is in turn necessary for countering widespread feelings of alienation and depression He defines courage as the ability to confront fear but crucially distinguishes a variety of fears that give rise to different types of courage

Daily Reflections on Addiction, Yoga, and Getting Well Rolf Gates, 2018-09-25 Deeply personal essays and daily prompts for self reflection while healing from addiction and walking the road of recovery from the author of Meditations from the Mat and Meditations on Intention and Being You are a process that has called forth a teaching for this day This teaching will not be new to you rather it will be reminding you of what you already know Reminding you of who you already are Rolf Gates author of Meditations from the Mat has walked the walk of the 12 step method of recovery while traveling down the Buddhist eightfold way and practicing the Eight Limbs of Classical Yoga His integrated approach has been the key to his understanding of sobriety for over 25 years In his series of 365 essays Gates explores the lessons and experiences from his own practice and study classical teachings and his career as a teacher and coach Each eloquent and brief essay is accompanied by a self reflection prompt to help guide you on your journey of introspection and change As the co founder of the Yoga Recovery Conference at Kripalu Center for Yoga and Health and Esalen Institute Gates has made a significant contribution to understanding the role that yoga can play in recovery from addiction With his personalized approach to both the modern and classic teachings and by embedding it within the space of the human heart and everyday life Gates is a solid guide to finding and living the freedom that lives within each of us

Alwan,2025-03-10 Catholic Reflections for August 2025 The Immanent Divine John J. Thatamanil, While traditional Christian thought and spirituality have always affirmed the divine presence in human life Thatamanil argues we have much to learn from non dualistic Hindu thought especially that of the eighth century thinker Sankara and from the Christian panentheism of Paul Tillich Thatamanil compares their diagnoses and prognoses of the human predicament in light of their doctrine of God or Ultimate Reality What emerges is a new theology of God and human beings with a richer and more radical conception of divine immanence a reconceived divine transcendence and a keener sense of how the dynamic and active Spirit at work in us anchors real hope and deep joy Using key insights from Christian and Hindu thought Thatamanil vindicates comparative theology expands the vocabulary about the ineffable God and arrives at a new construal of the problems and prospects of the human condition Parents as Spiritual Guides Roberta Nelson,Christopher Nelson,2001 Catholic

Kellow,Neven Leddy,2016-01-01 On Civic Republicanism explores the enduring relevance of the ancient concepts of republicanism and civic virtue to modern questions about political engagement and identity Reflections of a Peacemaker Mattie J.T. Stepanek,2010-04-22 Mattie J T Stepanek lived and died a child but he had the spirit of a giant Affected by a rare and fatal neuromuscular disease Mattie lived almost fourteen years but in that time became a poet best selling author peace activist and a prominent voice for the Muscular Dystrophy Association Before his death in June 2004 his five volumes of Heartsongs poetry sold more than a million copies Reflections of a Peacemaker A Portrait Through Heartsongs is the final collection of Heartsongs that Mattie was working on when he died It includes the last poem Mattie penned along with a special collection of unpublished poetry photographs and artwork spanning the decade from when he began writing Heartsongs at age three Culled from the thousands of poems essays and journal entries Mattie left behind the entries in Reflections of a Peacemaker create a portrait of Mattie in his own words In these poems he explores disability despair and death but also the gifts he finds in nature prayer peace and his belief in something bigger and better than the here and now The poems are grouped by theme such as playful stormy sacred and final Heartsongs with each section introduced by a personal tribute from the likes of Maya Angelou Oprah Winfrey Larry King and former President Jimmy Carter In the words of Mattie s mother Jeni Stepanek who has published Reflections of a Peacemaker at her son s request In reading these poems we enter Mattie s world and gain insight through a child who somehow balanced pain and fear with optimism and faith

The Art of Effective Facilitation Lisa M. Landreman,2023-07-03 Co published with How can I apply learning and social justice theory to become a better facilitator Should I prepare differently for workshops around specific identities How do I effectively respond when things aren t going as planned This book is intended for the increasing number of faculty and student affairs administrators at whatever their level of experience who are being asked to become social justice educators to prepare students to live successfully within and contribute to an equitable multicultural society It will enable facilitators to create programs that go beyond superficial discussion of the issues to fundamentally address the structural and cultural causes of inequity and provide students with the knowledge and skills to work for a more just society Beyond theory design techniques and advice on practice the book concludes with a section on supporting student social action The authors illuminate the art and complexity of facilitation describe multiple approaches and discuss the necessary and ongoing reflection process What sets this book apart is how the authors illustrate these practices through personal narratives of challenges encountered and by admitting to their struggles and mistakes They emphasize the need to prepare by taking into account such considerations as the developmental readiness of the participants and the particular issues and historical context of the campus before designing and facilitating a social justice training or selecting specific exercises They pay particular attention to the struggle to teach the goals of social justice education in a language that can be embraced by the general public and to connect its structural and contextual analyses to real issues inside and outside the classroom The book is informed by the recognition that the magic is almost never in the exercise or the handout but instead is in the facilitation and by the authors commitment to help educators identify and analyze dehumanizing processes on their campuses and in society at large reflect on their own socialization and engage in proactive strategies to dismantle oppression

Reflections and Poetry to Ponder Diane Hicks White,2009-08 My poetry can best be described as a personal journey lived through depression From childhood through adulthood I have existed with depression I have always enjoyed reading and so with reading the idea of writing poetry came to mind Being able to express my emotions has played a big part on my road to recovery Seeing people like myself has helped me give more understanding of how depression affects the mind Through my poetry I have been able to talk of these emotions through faith in others who have helped me and through my faith in God who has never left me I try to end my poetry not in negativity but with a purposeful emotion that will give the reader hope a hope that he or she will someday reach that pinnacle in their lives that will help them to see beyond that hopelessness of depression Diane Hicks White 2007      Reflections of Courage on D-Day & the Days That Followed Marcia Moen,Margo Heinen,2025-01-15 The personal account of Charles Ace Parker a World War II Ranger on the European Front
