Perillo,2018-10-03 Coastal estuarine fluvial and submarine morphodynamics encompass some of the leading processes shaping our planet They stem mainly but not only from the interaction of water in motion and movable sediment boundaries resulting in morphological changes produced by erosion transport and deposition of sediments that generate a variety of landscapes

Stratigraphic Analyses Using GPR Gregory S. Baker,Harry M. Jol,2007-01-01 The Tide-Dominated Han River Delta, Korea Don Cummings,Robert Dalrymple,Kyungsik Choi,Jaehwa Jin,2015-09-25 The Tide Dominated Han River Delta provides a thorough analysis of a river delta in which tidal currents have reworked the river borne sediment generating characteristic geomorphological and sedimentological signatures in the process Such tide dominated deltas are common in the modern ocean forming the substrate upon which entire populations are built Furthermore ancient examples contain enormous volumes of hydrocarbon Despite this tide dominated deltas remain less well understood than their wave and river dominated counterparts largely because processes within them are inherently more complex and fewer modern examples have been investigated in detail This multi year study by a team of experts in coastal geoscience represents the most complete documentation of a tide dominated delta to date Results help advance and are applicable to a broad range of fields within sedimentary geology including clastic sedimentology seismic and sequence stratigraphy and coastal geomorphology in addition to petroleum geology and reservoir engineering Offers new access to results of a multi year hydrocarbon reservoir analogue study not available elsewhere Features 75 full color figures and illustrations to emphasize critical aspects of the delta s sedimentology geomorphology and stratigraphy Provides basic data that better define what tide dominated deltas are how these complex systems behave over time and why this is so Aids petroleum geologists and reservoir engineers in predicting the distribution of baffles and barriers in tide dominated sediment bodies helping in the successful development of reservoirs

Mekong River Traditions Amelia Khatri,AI,2025-02-14 Mekong River Traditions explores the intricate relationship between religious beliefs historical events and cultural heritage along Southeast Asia s Mekong River Examining the enduring influence of religious traditions particularly Theravada Buddhism this work reveals how these beliefs are woven into the daily lives and social structures of Mekong Basin communities The book highlights the syncretic nature of religious practices demonstrating how indigenous beliefs blend with Buddhist philosophy The book traces the spread of Buddhism along the Mekong from ancient trade routes to the establishment of early kingdoms It examines specific religious practices in Laos Thailand Cambodia and Vietnam revealing the unique characteristics of Buddhism in each region By incorporating historical texts anthropological studies and oral histories the book adopts a balanced approach avoiding simplistic portrayals of religious life The book progresses by first introducing the geographical and historical context then moves to specific religious practices and concludes by assessing the impact of globalization It provides insights into cultural diversity religious tolerance and cultural heritage preservation The book presents a holistic view of religious traditions found along the Mekong River

Spiritual Care Reflections from a Hospice Chaplain Jr. Charles J Lopez,2015-10-13 From the good sisters and monks of the 11th century hospice care grew through the passions of 20th century people like Dame Cecily Saunders and Elizabeth Kubler Ross and into the recognized modality it is today of compassionate and palliative care for those who are on their final journey from this world Pastor Lopez rightly fills this name as he reaches out not only to patients and their families but the team of nurses doctors social workers and caregivers who offer their hands and hearts to those in need Within these pages you will find practical and compassionate words along with hands and a heart that knows the pain of loss and feet that are willing to accompany the reader on their journey
