Reflections On Black Psychology:

Reflections on Black Psych CB William David Smith, 1979-03 Afrocentric Visions Janice D. Hamlet, 1998-09-14 In this timely volume editor Janice D Hamlet has chosen essays which illuminate various aspects of African American culture refracted through the lens of Afrocentric thought The book examines Afrocentric ideology and methodology Afrocentric approaches to the dynamics of communication the Afrocentric influence on the black aesthetic with an examination of language literature oral tradition movies and television and the future of Afrocentric visions Research Directions of Black Psychologists Wade Boykin, Anderson Franklin, Frank J. Yates, 1980-01-15 Focusing on issues of particular importance to black people and confronting the rich variety and the complexity of the black experience the many contributors demonstrate the broad diversity of research interests and strategies among black psychologists from the traditional to the innovative Topics covered include studies of motivation cognitive development life span development and cultural difference versus deficit theories Many of the studies directly refute previous conceptions of the psychological functioning of blacks and offer alternative models and formulations This book is the first to present soundly designed and executed research that is emphatically linked to the perspectives and the psychological concerns of black Americans In designing these studies the authors aimed to ameliorate the pressing educational and social problems of blacks through a better understanding of their life conditions Philosophical Reflections on Black Mirror Dan Shaw, Kingsley Marshall, James Rocha, 2021-12-16 Black Mirror is a cultural phenomenon It is a creative and sometimes shocking examination of modern society and the improbable consequences of technological progress The episodes typically set in an alternative present or the near future usually have a dark and satirical twist that provokes intense question both of the self and society at large These kind of philosophical provocations are at the very heart of the show Philosophical reflections on Black Mirror draws upon thinkers such as Friedrich Nietzsche Pierre Hadot and Michel Foucault to uncover how Black Mirror acts as philosophical television questioning human morality and humanity's vulnerability when faced with the inexorable advance of technology Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective Letha A See, 2013-04-03 In Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective leading black scholars come together to discuss complex human behavior problems faced by African Americans and to force the abandonment of conceptualization theories made without consideration of the Black experience Challenging you to engage in different thinking and develop new theories for addressing the needs of African Americans this book highlights the assets of black individuals families and communities and guides you through program interventions and public policies that strengthen and empower African Americans You will learn to enhance your clients coping strategies and resilience by factoring in their strengths rather than focusing on their weaknesses Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective contextualizes community behavior patterns gender roles and changing contemporary identities to challenge your assumptions about African American culture and communities and convince you to rethink your intervention strategies and methods To further help you fine tune your service delivery this book leads you through discussions on help seeking behaviors of young street males the association of sociocultural risk factors with suicides the use of emotive behavior therapy to help African Americans cope with the prospect of imminent death advocating for changes in institutions and systems which negatively impact the lives of the poor and the oppressed how social work has ignored one segment of the African American community young girls in urban settings psychological consequences of coming of age in a hostile environment Social workers community based groups policymakers and other helping professionals owe it to their clients to shrug off culturally incompetent services and care Using Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective as a guide you will learn to redress your programs and policies with a sensitivity to the factors and mechanisms that maximize the buoyancy of disadvantaged groups over various stages of their life development

An Introduction to Black Studies Eric R. Jackson, 2023-01-31 For years the American public education system has neglected to fully examine and discuss the rich history of people of African descent who have played a pivotal role in the transformation of the United States The establishment of Black studies departments and programs represented a major victory for higher education and a vindication of Black scholars such as W E B Du Bois and Nathan Huggins This emerging field sought to address omissions from numerous disciplines as well as myriad distortions stereotypes and myths In An Introduction to Black Studies Eric R Jackson demonstrates the continuing need for Black studies also known as African American studies in university curricula Jackson connects the growth and impact of Black studies to the broader context of social justice movements emphasizing the historical and contemporary demand for the discipline This book features seventeen chapters that focus on the primary eight disciplines of Black studies history sociology psychology religion feminism education political science and the arts Each chapter includes a biographical vignette of an important figure in African American history such as Frederick Douglass Louis Armstrong and Madam C J Walker as well as student learning objectives that provide a starting point for educators This valuable work speaks to the strength and rigor of the field its importance to the formal educational process and its relevance to the United States and the world

Jungian Reflections on Systemic Racism Christopher Jerome Carter, Tiffany Houck, 2023-06-23 Jungian Reflections on Systemic Racism is a unique contribution of Jungian analysts and analysts in training who provide individual perspectives and approaches to promoting greater inclusivity in analytical theory training and practice This book examines issues of racism through intrapsychic interpersonal and archetypal lenses Drawing from the specificity and ingenuity of Jungian psychoanalysis the authors provide personal narratives clinical vignettes and theoretical perspectives that exemplify ways of comprehending and furthering the work of anti racism The editors assert that without deeper exploration of our theories distinguishing between the theory itself and the theorist's unconscious biases our clinical paradigms unconsciously align and thus perhaps promote an attitude of white supremacy in psychoanalytic training programs and practices Without claiming to reflect the official view of any particular psychoanalytic community it utilizes Jung s analytic paradigm to offer insight into the dynamics of the cultural complex of racism from a depth psychological perspective Jungian Reflections on Systemic Racism is an important resource for psychoanalytic students trainees supervisors and practitioners as well as for clinicians medical professionals social workers mental health professionals sociologists and anyone interested in the wide impact of the unscientific construct of race Substance Abuse Prevention Kar Snehendu,2020-06-10 In thirteen chapters twenty four authors share their analyses concerns and conclusions in several domains including the meaning and dynamics of multiculturalism affecting prevention intervention relative risks and knowledge gaps across ethnic groups social trends affecting health risks and substance abuse lessons learned from substance abuse research and prevention role of the media promises and limits of the new public health paradigm for assessment policy development assurance of preventive services and social action and empowerment for prevention in partnership with the public Violence in the Black Family Robert L.
