Reflective Teaching Of Geography 11 18 Meeting Standards And Applying Research:

Reflective Teaching of Geography 11-18 Graham Butt, 2002-10-11 THIS IS THE SERIES BLURB LIST ALL BOOKS TOGETHER Continuum Studies in Reflective Practice and Research is a new series of textbooks aimed at teaching students As with Andrew Pollard s books they use the idiom of reflective teaching In other words they avoids the two extreme views about learning to teach namely that it is best done simply through acquiring practical tricks of the trade without any theory or that it is best done applying sytematized objective theory The distinctive feature of relective teaching is that it encourages practitioners to develop by continually inter relating theory and research findings to their own practice situation and style These comprehensive textbooks provide an accessible guide to all those who are new to teaching in secondary schools Covering all aspects of job from planning through to teaching and assessment the authors provide constructive accessible and above all practical advice to help subject teachers become more effective in their work

Reflective Teaching of History 11-18 Rob Phillips, 2002-10-11 This series of textbooks is aimed at teacher training students and comprises two concerns the practice of teaching and how to use theory and research findings to improve that practice and how to meet the TTA standards whilst placing them in a wider context This comprehensive textbook is an accessible guide to all those who are new to the profession of teaching history Covering all aspects of the job from planning through to teaching and assessment Rob Phillips provides constructive practical advice to help subject teachers become more effective in their work

Geography Education Research in the UK: Retrospect and Prospect Graham Butt, 2019-08-22 This book provides a unique assessment of the development of research in geography education and its future prospects offering a challenging critique of subject based education research with particular reference to geography education across a range of different jurisdictions It covers a range of topics including the changing role of research in geography education the relationship between education research and professional practice with special reference to geography education research the place of academic subject knowledge in geography education research critiques of the functions of research in geography education and the key issues for education policy and policymakers concerning educational research at national and international levels Importantly in a period marked by radical change for education research and researchers the book offers a timely appraisal of possible ways forward for geography education research Addressing the needs of academics research students policymakers and education practitioners who undertake use or shape the future of research in geography education it comprehensively explores the forces that have driven the development of geography education research and pedagogy Further by positioning its analysis in the context of education policy debates in the UK and further afield it assesses the role and function of research in education and offers an outlook on its future This book is essential reading for all those who wish to understand the sporadic and increasingly uncertain development of subject based research in education

Action Research in Teaching and Learning Lin Norton, 2009-05-07 A practical down to earth guide for those who work in teaching and learning in universities this book will be indispensable reading for those who would like to carry out action research on their own practice Lin S Norton's concept of pedagogical action research has come from over twenty years experience of carrying out such research and more than six years of encouraging colleagues to carry out small scale studies at an institutional national and international level This accessible text illustrates what might be done to improve teaching supporting learning by carrying out action research to address such questions such as What can I do to enthuse my students What can I do to help students become more analytical How can I help students to link theory with their practice What can I do to make my lecturing style more accessible What is going wrong in my seminars when my students don't speak Action Research for Teaching and Learning offers readers practical advice on how to research their own practice in a higher education context It has been written specifically to take the reader through each stage of the action research process with the ultimate goal of producing a research study which is publishable Cognisant of the sector's view on what is perceived to be mainstream research the author has also written a substantial theoretical section which justifies the place of pedagogical action research in relation to reflective practice and the scholarship of teaching and learning

Addressing Special Educational Needs and Disability in the Curriculum: History Richard Harris, Ian Luff, 2017-04-11 The SEND Code of Practice 2015 has reinforced the requirement that all teachers must meet the needs of all learners This topical book provides practical tried and tested strategies and resources that will support teachers in making history lessons accessible and exciting for all pupils including those with special needs The authors draw on a wealth of experience to share their understanding of special educational needs and disabilities and show how the history teacher can reduce or remove any barriers to learning Offering strategies that are specific to the context of history teaching this fully revised edition will enable teachers to Make history education accessible and engaging to pupils of all abilities Create an inclusive classroom environment that responds to the emotional needs of the class and nurtures a culture of learning Develop inclusive practical demonstration and role play techniques to aid conceptual understanding Set assessment objectives Deploy in class support effectively An invaluable tool for continuing professional development this text will be essential for teachers and their teaching assistants seeking guidance specific to teaching history to all pupils regardless of their individual needs This book will also be of interest to SENDCOs senior management teams and ITT providers In addition to practical activities and supporting material contained in the book there are also free online resources for readers to download and use in the preparation of successful inclusive lessons for all pupils
